BARKER-FOSTER CHURCH WEDDING

Brilliant Event in the Second Presbyterian Church Last Night.

THE FUCHS-KIESEL NUPTIAL EVENT

Ceremony Performed at the Bride's Home on Lackawanna Avenue Thomas Bayliss and Miss Delia Caswell Wedded -- Marriage of Miss Laura McDonough to Patrick Moran, of Price Street.

A largely attended and fashlonable church wedding was that of Miss Mary Eliza Foster and Harry Carlington Barker, which took place last night at 8.30 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian church, and was followed by an elaborate reception at the home of the bride's father, Thomas J. Foster, on Madison avenue. The groom is a son of Mrs. Susan R. Barker, of 332 Madi-

The church was very artistically dec crated. A curtain of ground pine nearly concealed the organ; palms and tropical ferns were banked about the pulpit and daisies and buttercups appeared in profusion on the window sills and in the nooks about the auditorium.

The bride was accompanied to the altar by her father, the ushers preceding the others of the bridal party and standing on either side of the aisle and letting them pass through to their proper positions, the ushers following. Mr. Barker was attended by his friend, Herbert Wheeler, of New York city. The maid of honor was the bride's sis ter, Miss Emma Foster. The bridesmaids were Miss Grace Whains, of Rochester: Miss Jean Travis, of Brooklyn; Miss Sarah Mullen, of Mount Holly Springs, Pa.; and Miss Lillian Gearhart, Miss Emma Hanley and Miss Edith Pierson, of this city. Joel Foster, Harry S. and Willis B. Kirkpatrick, Joseph Boles, James Blair, jr., and Edwin Gearhart were the ushers.

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Robinson, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman. Rev. Dr. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, said the marital prayer. The bride's gown was of white chiffon over white satin. The skirt was made plain and entrain and the waist was of chiffon. She wore a tulle veil and carried white roses which were interwoven with maidenhair fern. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a diamond pendant. The gowns of the maid-of-honor and bridesmaid were alike except in one slight detail of trimming. They were of white organdie over white silk. The skirts were made plain and the waists of organdie were trimmed with butter-colored lace and vellow ribbon, excepting that of the maid-of-honor, the ribbon being white. The skirts had foot ruffles of pleated orandie. The maid-of-honor carried buttercups and the others, alternately, bouquets of buttercups and daisies. The reception at the house was attended by a large number of guests. The bridal party received in the front parlor. A delectable collation was served by Handley. The music was furnished by Bauer. Among those present from out of town were: Miss Hancock, of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Thomas Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daniels, Mrs. J. S. Foster, the Misses Dobson, Miss Martha Foster and Miss Baker, of Pottsville; Miss Agnes Schwartz, of Reading; Mrs. Richard, of Philadelphia.

FUCHS-KIESEL.

Miss Anna Pauline Kirsel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kiesel, and Edward J. Fuchs were married yesterday noon at the home of the bride's parents, 515 Lackawanna avenue, by Rev. P. F. Zitzleman, of the Mifflin Avenue Lutheran church. The groom is chemist of the Lackawanna Chemical and Fertilizer company.

Miss Emily Kiesel, sister of the bride was bridesmand, and Albert Fuchs, brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was witnessed by only the relatives and a few immediate

MORAN-M'DONOUGH.

Miss Laura McDonough of South Bromley avenue, and Patrick Moran, of Price street, were married at 5 o'clock last evening at St. Patrick's church. Rev. J. P. McNally was the officiating clergyman. The bride was attended by Miss Dora McDonough, a cousin; and the groomsman was Mr. Calkin. The costumes of the ladies were similar, a white silk with lace trimmings. The bride carried white carnations and bridal roses and her maid held a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Rose Conway played the wedding music. In the evening a reception was given to a few of their many friends by the bride and groom at the home of the former's parents, 140 South Bromley avenue. An enjoyable time was passed. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Laughan, Mr. and Mrs. T. Devaney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Flanough, Misses Anna, Margaret and Ella Killeen, Miss Mary and Elizabeth Meehan, Mr. and Mrs. M. FOUR TRAINED NURSES.

Receive Their Diplomas at Albright Library Hall Last Night-Address by Dr. Stewart, of New York.

Graduating exercises of the class of 96 of the Lackawanna Hospital Training School for Nurses were held last evening at Albright Library hall, followed by a reception to the members of the class at the hospital. The nurses who have finished the course and are now qualified to do trained work are Miss Rachael Davis and Miss Emilie Hartman, of this city; Miss May Hamlton, of New York; and Miss Sara Patterson, of Nova Scotia.

To the music of a march by the Dickon orchestra, the four graduates and the eight under graduating nurses filed into the hall and took seats to the right of the platform. They were attired in the uniform of the hospital. Chairs had to be placed in the center aisle to accommodate the number of persons present. William T. Smith, John F. Snyder, Thomas D. Davies, and J. George Eisele, of the board of directors, sat in the front row to the left and the following physicians were present also: Dr. L. M. Gates, Dr. H. V. Logan, Dr. John Burnett, Dr. E. M. Pennypacker, Dr. L. S. Barnes, Dr. Walter M. Reedy, Dr. W. G. Fulton, Dr. P. H. McAndrew. Drs. Blanchard and Fish, of the hospital, acted as ushers-

MR. DICKSON CHAIRMAN. James P. Dickson, president of the poard of hospital directors, was chairman of the evening, and Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, offered prayer. Mr. Dickson, after a few remarks, introduced as the speaker of the evening Dr. George D. Stewart, professor of anatomy in Bellevue hospital, New York. Dr. Stewart assured the graduates that it was a great pleasure to him to speak to them and he hoped that he might in the course of his address say something that would be of benefit to them. A nurse should possess all the qualities of mind and heart that every good woman possesses, but she should also have certain of these qualities cul-tivated. Tact is the most important of them all. Doing the right thing at the right time, is tact. For instance, when the patient wants one thing and the family just the opposite, she must use tact to know just what to do and not give offence to either. Courage is the next thing to tact, and she must combine both. Sympathy is a quality that is most essental; with it goes a cheerful disposition, soft voice, sunny face and soft step. PRESENTING THE DIPLOMAS. At the conclusion of the address Dr. Gates presented the diplomas and pins to the graduates and benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Israel.

The reception at the hospital consist ed of a banquet, followed by dancing which continued until midnight. Miss Hamilton received the class honors by having passed the best examinations.

WHAT THE BISHOP TOLD THEM.

Auswer Made to Committee from the Sacred Heart Polish Congregation.

When the committee from the Sacred Heart Polish congregation went to see Right Reverend Bishop O'Hara Monday night about the way in which their pastor, Rev. Richard A. Aust, manages the finances of the parish, they were told to call again last night for an answer and they did. Joseph Netezh, Ladislaw Sniter, and John Rumovich called at the episcopal residence at 7.30.

They were informed that since the previous visit two prominent members of the congregation came and assured the bishop that Rev. Father Aust is transacting the business of the parish eminently satisfactorily to all but a few maicontents, who want to stir up dis-

The bishop was assured notwithstanding the demurrer that the entire parish with the exception of possibly a half a dozen is opposed to the financial management. The bishop told the committee to go to Rev. Father Aust today and demand an accounting. If he does not receive them and accede to them. let them make known that fact Monday evening. The committee will go tonight.
