THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1896.

M'KINLEY AND HOBART

[Concluded from Page 1.]

majority of the American people at the polis next November. (Applause.) The names of the signers to the protest as read by the secretary were greeted with hisses and a voice in the rear called out "Good bye my lover, good bye" as Senator Teller and his associates filed out of the hall, marching down the main aisle. The whole convention rose and yelled and waved flags, hat and fans, while the band played patriotic airs, the assemblage singing the chorus "Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue" to the accompaniment of the band, shouting until they were hoarse. The chair, when the tumult had in some measure subsided, said in his slow, deliberate way: "Gentlemen of the convention, there seems to be enough delegates left to do business (Great cheering.) The chair now asks that a gentleman from Montava who did not go out"-here an outburst of cheering drowned the rest of the sentence and cries were made for Lee Man-He was asked to come to the plattie. form, but declined to do so.

SENATOR MANTLE'S SPEECH. Senator Mantle stood on his chair in the rear of the hall, facing the chairman, and spoke as follows; "I desire to say that a majority of the delegation from the state of Montana has not feit that, under all the circumstances surrounding this occasion, they were jus tified in actually going out of the convention. (Applause.) But, Mr. Chairman, I am bound to say, in deference to the opinions and wishes of the majority of the Republicans of the state of Montana, that we cannot give our approval or our endorsement to the financial plank this day adopted." (Applause.)

Senator Brown, of Utah, rose to a question of privilege and the chair, in according him the floor, expressed a that the request had not been made for the purpose of saying anything offensive to this convention.

Senator Brown, speaking from the platform.snid: "Mr. Chairman, the delegation from Utah does not bolt. (Cheers.) We do not beleve that the Republican party is the oppressor of the people, but the guardian of liberty and protector of honest government. (Appause.)

Three of our delegates have gone. and 1 am here to express sorrow at their departure. We have asked them to remain and we shan never cease to regret their departure. (Good, and cheers.) We have three delegates left and three alternates, Messrs. Rogers, Green and Smith, all true to the old party, and who are as loyal to its principles and as fixed as the everlasting mountains where we live. (Cheers.) "In saying this, we stift remain true to the principles of free gold and free silver at the old rates." Senator Brown concluded by asking that the three alternates he had named be allowed to sit in the convention in place of the delegates who had left.

The chairman said unless objections were made this would be so ordered. No dissenting voice being raised, the three alternates Lundsey Rogers, Web Greene and A. Smith, were seated as delegates from Utah.

The states were then called for the choice of members of the national committee and when completed a resolution was then offered and adopted for a meeting of the national committee to-flag on the gallery facing the platform. at last quiet was restored and the call and the cheering began over again, to which the band responded by playing "Rally 'Round the Flag" and the convention joined in the chorus. Senator-elect Foraker stood during all this wild scene smiling his approval. Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, had in the meantime been called to the chair by Senator Thurston, but just when he had nearly restored orders Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, of California, who had presented the plumes in honor of Ohio's choice, made her appearance on the floor, waving one of them and another uncontrollable outbreak of temporary insanity occurred. During the interval of con-Kinley; Florida eight for McKinley;

fusion a three-quarters face, life-size sculptored bust of Mr. McKinley was presented to Mr. Foraker by the Re-

was recognized to second McKinley. At the close of his brief remarks the chairman announced that the call of states being completed the order called for balloting for a nominee for president of the United States. Amid a hush the call of states was begun and Alabama led off with one for Morton and nineiteen for McKinley. Arkansas and California cast their solid votes for McKinley. Connecticut cast five votes for Reed and seven for Mc-ty-two McKinley.

of states was resumed and J. Madison Vance, of Louisiana, a colored delegate, breaks for McKinley and three absentees were voted in the 29th district. John F. Parkhurst and both the alternates, Charles M. Woodward and Charles T. Andrews. The poll resulted in showing the vote to be exactly as announced: Morton 54; McKinley 17. When Ohlo was reached the requisite number of votes were given to nominate McKinley and the convention recognizing the fact without announcement, broke into cheers. Texas votes 21 Mc-Kinley, Delaware a solid vote for Mc- Kinley; 5 Reed; 3 Allison, and one absent.

Pennsylvania voted McKinley 6; Quay Georgia two Reed, two Quay and twen-Virginia voted Reed 1. McKinley 23.

votes were reached when the halves di- Thomas B. Reed, he said, had received vided equally between MvKinley and Morton. Then came quite a number of Morton 58: Senator Allison 35½ and Don Cameron 1.

REED MEN IN LINE.

Senator Lodge rising in his delegation and standing upon his chair, said: "Mr. Chairman, the friends of Mr. Reed have at the Southern hotel. followed him with the same loyalty which he has always shown himself to president was announced by the chair as follows: Hobart, 53314; Evans, 27714; Bulkeley, 39; Lippitt, 8; Walker, 24; country and principle and party. That loyalty, they now transfer to the soldier, Reed, 3; Thurston, 2; Fred. Grant, 2; the patriot, the Americon whom you have nominated here today and on be-Depew, 3; Morton, 1. Absent, 23. half of my own state and I believe of all The chair then formally declared Garthe other New England states that suprett A. Hobart, of New Jersey, the ported Mr. Reed we pledge a great maminee of the convention for vice jority in our own states, and our assispresident of the United States and the One of the colored delegations from All the rest of the roll of states went | tance in other states and all the help we | convention adjourned sine die at 7.51.

The result of the ballot for vice-that it would be necessary to appoint bois; from Colorado, the entire two committees to wait upon the nomi-nees for president and vice-president and notify them of their nomination and tion of eight, including Senator Tel They carried with them their sta ard marking their position in the hall he requested the delegations from the The total number of those who "bolted" various states to choose two of its mem was 21, including four senators and two representatives. bers to act on these committees, which he said would meet tomorrow morning

SKETCH OF GARRET HOBART.

Republican Cadidate for Vice President of the United States.

New York, June 18 .- Garret Hobart, ominated by the Republican party for the vice-presidency of the United States, was born at Long Branch, N. J., in 1844. He was graduated from Rutger college before he was twenty years old, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1866. In 1872 he was elected a member of the New Jersey house and was reelected and chosen speaker. He declined an election in 1873 and in 1877 he was elected senator from Passale county. He was re-elected to this position and served in the offlice from that time until the expiration of the year 1882, being president pro tem of the body for the ast two years of which he was a mem-

In 1854 he was nominated by the Republican caucus of the legislature for United States senator, but was not elected, as the legislature was Democratio and John R. McPherson was chosen. In 1884 he became a member of the Republican national committee. In business life he has been activ and energetic.

MONTROSE REJOICES.

Fork-Tongued Flames of Numerous Bonfires Leaped Last Night. Special to The Tribune

Montrose could not contain itself tolight when the news of McKinley's iomination became known. Bonfires galore and a general demonstration howed that every one was interested in the ratification. A heroic sized caroon of McKinley was placed in bold relief against the court house and was heered to the echo. McKinley is solid in the old Wilmotfrow district.

REWARD FOR HONESTY.

Ohio Girl Returns a Wallet to Its Owner and Is Given $1,000.

Warren, Ohio, June 18 .- As a reward for honesty, Miss Mamie alle, of Waren, today received $1,000. In February Miss Vaile faund a wallet containing $800 on the street, and returned it ot its wner, Rev. H. H. Ogdon, of New York, Rev. Mr. Ogdon recently fell heir to a large fortune, and today he made Mirs Vaile a present of $1,000. When he lost he money he was en route from Painesville to Columbus.

Herald's Weather Forecast.

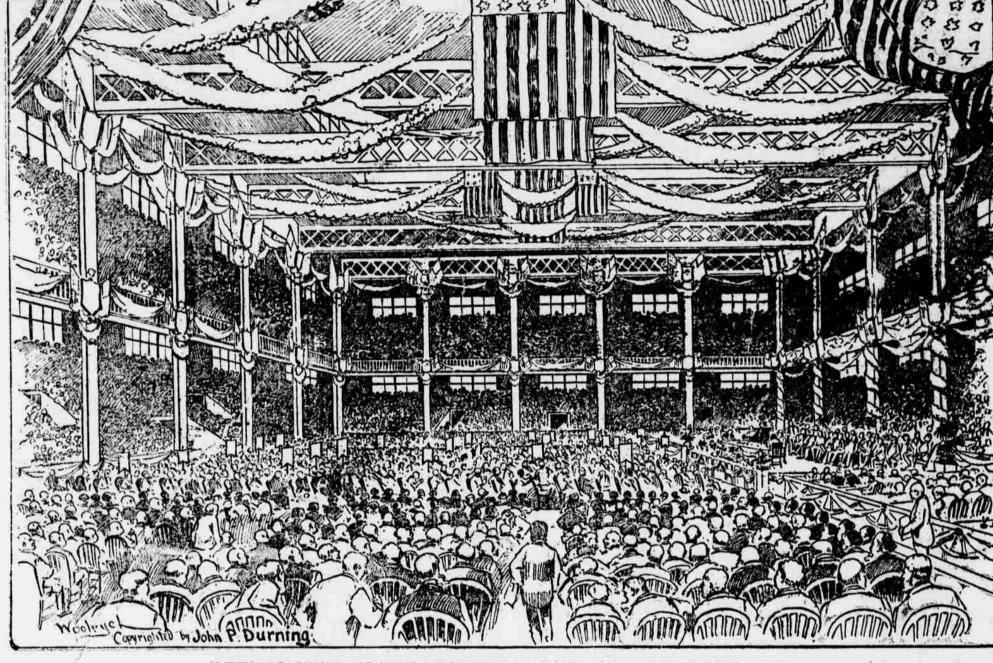

New York, June 19,-In the middle states oday, fair, slightly warmer weather will prevail, with light and fresh variable winds nearly southerly. On Saturday, fair to partly clouy and rather sultry weather will prevail with slight temperature changes and fresh southerly winds, folowed by local rains near the lakes and in the Hudson valley.

WHIPPING HIS WEIGHT.

The Champion Logger Overestimated His Fistic Ability.

In the logging camps of Michigan night makes right and the man who has whipped all comers in fair fight is king of his camp.

Alabama, McKinley, 19; Morton, 1, Reed One of these was very boastful of his Arkansas, McKinley, 16. California, McKinley, 18; Colorado, blank, Connecti-cut, McKinley, 7; Reed, 6, Delaware, Mc-Kinley, 6, Florida, McKinley, 6; Morton, 2. exploits. He had been the victor in a dozen fights and no one cared to enter the lists with him, but every man in he camp hated the champion. Goin Georgia, McKinley, 22; Quay, 2; Reed, 2, Idaho, blank; Illinois, McKinley, 46; Reed, 2, Indiana, McKinley, 30, Iowa, Alinto a saloon one day he announced "I'm tired of these babies in camp. I Kansas, McKinley, 20, ain't had a good fight in Michigan. Ret tucky, McKinley, 25, Louisiana, McKin-ley, 11; Quay, ½; Reed, 4; Allison, ½, Maine, Reed, 12, Maryland, McKinley, 15; can whip my weight in dogs, wildcats or anything that breathes for $100." A meek-looking man took the bet and Reed, 1. Massachusetts, McKinley, 1 Reed, 29. Michigan, McKinley, 28. Minnearrangements for the fight were made. It was to take place in a closed room one week from the time the bet was made. The day came and the champlor called: "Bring on your animile." The man who had bet against the king of ley, 17; Morton, 55. North Carolina, Mc Kinley, 191/2; Reed, 23/2. North Dakota McKinley, 6. Ohio, McKinley, 46. Oregon the camp brought his antagonist in a large sack, which had been deposited behind the stove in the saloon where the McKinley, 8. Pennsylvania, McKinley, 6 Quay, 58. Rhode Island, Reed, 8. South match had been entered into, the Carolina, McKinley, 18. South Dakota, McKinley, 8. Tennessee, McKinley,* 24. Texas, McKinley, 21; Reed, 5; Allison, 8. weather just beginning to get cold. The gladiator entered the room, the sack was emptied and the people crowded at Itah, McKinley, 3; Allison, 3. Vermont B. McKinley, 3: Allison, 3: Vermont, McKinley, 8: Virginia, McKinley, 22: Reed, 1: Washington, McKinley, 8: West Vir-ginia, McKinley, 12: Wisconsin, McKin-ley, 24: Wyoming, McKinley, 6: Arizona, McKinley, 6: New Mexico, McKinley, 5: Allison, 1: Oklahoma, McKinley, 4: Reed, the window to see the contest. Out of the sack came three large hornet nests, the occupants of which had been revived by the heat.

INTERIOR VIEW OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION HALL.

publican cho of the University of Chi- | Florida protests insisted on challenging | solid for McKinley. When the terro ; can render for William McKinley. the vote. The delegation being polled, cago. The portrait was a mahogany it was found that Morton had two votes frame, decorated with red, white and blue ribbins and with a bow of the main Florida and McKinley only six inroon colored ribbons forming the colors stead of eight as announced by the of the university. The portrait was the chairman. A colored delegate from work of Mr. Harris Hirsch and was Alabama here followed with a challenge presented by Dr. L. H. Montgomery, of of the vote of that state which resulted appeared and by unanimous consent the motion to make McKinley's nomina-Chicago, with a letter signed by Mr. H. in showing that instead of casting a

L. Ickes, president of the club. It was solid vote for McKinley, the vote should morrow morning to fill vacancies. The accepted by Senator-elect Foraker in have shown one vote for Morton, two for one vote for Allison and five for Mc-Kinley. Alaska wound up the roll by from New York, Mr. Parkhurst, here total vote: Morton 55; McKinley 17.

Reed and McKinley nineteer

tories were reached New Mexico cast | (Cheers.) "I move you, sir, that the nomination of William McKinley be made unanihad nominated Senator Quay seconded cast his vote for Morton, making the tion unanimous. Pennsylvania, he said, with the loyalty which always distinguished her, would become the cham-

SCENE OF EXCITEMENT. ion of the champion of protection to All of the states having been called. Illinois voted forty-six McKinley and the president stated before the antwo Reed. Indiana cast its thirty votes nouncement of the result that applicafor McKinley. lowa, amid a slight tion had been made on him for recoglemonstration of applause cast its twennition by representatives of the de ty-six votes for Allison; Kansas, twenfeated candidates to make a certain ty for McKinley; Kentucky twenty-six motion. He believed it would be the for McKinley. Louisana cast a curfairest way to recognize them in the ious vote: Half vote Reed, half vote order in which the nominations had Ouay, half vote Blank and eleven for been made. He then announced that McKinley, so the voting went on with-William McKinley had received 6611/2 out further incident until Massachuvotes, and the scene of an hour before etts gave one vote for McKinley and was repeated. Delegates and spectathe rest for Reed. The McKinley coltors arose and cheered and waved flags umn steadily increased. When Mississand banners and the pampas plumes ippi cast eighteen for McKinley another of California; the band struck up "My f the colored delegates demanded a Country, 'Tis of Thee' and cheers and poll which showed one vote for Quay hurrahs rent he air. There was not a and seventeen for McKinley. Montana single one of the 15,000 or 16,000 people cast one vote for McKinley, one for Don in the great hall who did not do his or Cameron, of Pennsylvania, one blank her best to swell the sounds of jubilee

THE DETAILED VOTE.

Official Figures Showing the Ballot on President and Vice President. St. Louis, June 18 .- Following is the official detailed vote for president:

casting its newly conferred four votes mous. (Cheers.) for McKinley. The absent delegate | Mr. Hasting, of Pennsylvania, who lison, 26.

president then directed the call of dumb bow states for nominations for the presidency

NOMINATIONS ARE MADE. The first state to respond, was Iowa when Mr. R. M. Baldwid, of Council Bluffs, came to the platform and nominated Senator W. B. Allison, of Iowa.

The speech elicited very little enthuslasm, although it was applauded at some points.

The next state to respond was Massachusetts and Senator Lodge, of that State, came to the platform and nomi nated Thomas B. Reed for the presidency.

Mr. Reed's nomination was loudly applauded, many of the delegations rising and waving flags amid much cheering. The nomination was seconded by Charles E. Littlefield, of Rockland.

When the state of New York was called a round of cheers greeted Mr. Depew as he made his way to the plat form and proceeded to put in nomination Governor Levi P. Morton.

Mr. Depew's speech repeatedly elicited bursts of laughter and applause, particularly one humorous interpolated passage, in which he said: "I wonder what our erring, bolting brothers will say when they arrive at the Celestial city, which is governed by Republican principles and are met there by St. Peter with a golden key?" As he sat down he was loudly cheered.

M'KINLEY NOMINATED.

As Ohio was called and Governor Foraker came to the front there was such cheering as has not marked the proceedings of the convention at any previous time. He characterized the four years of Democratic administration as one stupendous disaster which had fallen on all alike, the just and the unjust. But this affliction had one compensating advantage; it had displayed the Democratic party. Their approaching national convention was an approaching national night mare. No one knew what they were going to do, and no one was seeking the nomination, except a limited few, who had proclaimed their unfitness by announcing a willingness to stand on any kind of a platform. If Republican made no mistake here, it would be re-established in control of the government to hold it till Providence, in His infinite mercy chose again to chasten the nation. (Laughter and applause.)

The people wanted something more than a good business man, a fearless leader, a wise statesman, but one who in addition to all these, presented qualifications which were exactly opposite of this free trade deficit-making, bond-issuing Democratic administration.

"I present to you such a man," said Senator-elect Foraker, "in William Mc-Kinley." At this point pandemonium was let loose and the convention gave up to unrestrained yelling, cheering, horn blowing, whistling, catcalling and all the other devices common to such occasions. A number of red, white and blue plumes, which (carefully wrapped up) had been brought into the convention earlier in the proceedings, were uncovered and waved, while almost every delegate seemed to be wildly gesticulating with either a fan or a flag in the air. The band tried in vain compete with the ear splitting clatter, but at last the strains of "Marching through Georgia" caught the ears of the crowd and they joined in the chorus and gradually quited down.

Then a portriat of McKinley was d on a line with the United States

When Mr. Foraker, after an enthus lastic demonstration which lasted over ten minutes, resumed his speech, his words seemed to have lost much of their fire and fervor because they came in such close contact with the unbounded exuberance of the convention. For some time he could not secure : hearing. He spoke of the great champions of Republicanism in the past sulogizing Mr. Blaine particularly and continued: "But greatest of all, measured by resent requirements, the eader of the ouse of representatives is the author of the McKinley bill, which gave to abor its richest rewards. No other name completely meets the requirements of the occasion, and no other ame so absolutely commands all hearts. The shafts of envy and malice and one absentee. The chair called the and slander and libel and detraction name of Mr. Hartman's alternate and that have been aimed at him lie broken he voted blank. and harmless at his feet. The quiver NEW YORK CHALLENGED.

s empty and he is untouched. That is cause the people know him, trust him believe in him, love him and will not permit any human power to disparage him unjustly in their estimation.

AMERICAN OF AMERICANISTS.

"They know that he is an American of Americanists, They know that he is just and able and brave; and they want leaving the room to avoid voting." him for president of the United Sates. (Applause.)

"They have already shown it, not in his or that state nor in this or that section, but in all the states and in all the sections from ocean to ocean and from the gulf to the lakes. They expect of you to give them a chance vote for him. It is our duty to do it. If we discharge that duty we will give joy to their hearts, enthusiasm to their souls and triumphant victory to our cause. (Applause.) And he, in turn, will give us an administration under which the country will enter upon a new era of prosperity at home and of glory and honor abroad. By all these tokens of the political and all these promises of the future, in the name of the forty-six delegates of Ohio, I submit his claim to our consideration." (More applause.) Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, was recognized by Temporary Chairman Hepburn and seconded the nomination of McKinley.

ENTHUSIASM OVER QUAY.

At the close of Mr. Thurston's effective speech cries of vote were raised, interspersed with cries for "Quay." In the midst of this, Governor Hastings took the stand and placed in nomination the name of Matthew Stanley Quny.

Governor Hastings was listened to with attention, notwithsanding that the sun for an hour or two had been streaming unobstructed through the windows of the hall and beating on the heads of the delegates and the convention had been in continuous session over six hours. There was quite a formidable demonstration of applause for Quay at the close of Governor Hasting's speech. but it was participated in by only a small portion of the convention and was maintained with difficulty, though with much noise and amid counter demonstrations almost as numerous As it was dying away the rythmatic cry of "Quay, Quay, Matt S. Quay." companied by stamping of feet, set it going again, increasing in volume. delegates began to pelt each other with rolled-up newspapers. Cries of "Vote, vote," were started in fythm to beat down the similar shouts of Quay. The chair rapped in vain for some time, but candidate. The women were as enthusiastic as the men. It seemed as if There was a decided sensation when orderly proceedings would never more be attempted. One young man on the the vote of New York was challenged platform waved on the point of the naby Warner Miller. It had been annunced as 54 for Morton and 17 for tional banner a cocked hat such as the McKinley. John H. Newins was abconqueror of Marengo is represented sent in the first district and the name as wearing. This symbol of victory of his alternate called. Mr. Gruber added, if possible, to the enthusiasm raised a laugh by saying. "He's just and the noise was swelled by the boom ing of artillery outside.

At last the president got a chance to The next alternate was called and continue the announcement of the vote. voted solidly for Morton till the half date. (Cheers.) Mr. Thomas Platt on behalf of the state of New York, also seconded the motion to make William McKinley's nomination unanimous and declared that New York would give its usual (if that New York would give its usual (if that New York would give its usual (if they, 17; Quay, 1. Missouri, McKinley, 34, Montana, McKinley, 16, Nevada, McKinley, 3. New Hampshire, Reed, 8. New Jarsey, McKinley, 19; Reed, 1. New York, McKinley, 19; Reed, 10; McKinley, 19; Reed, 10; McKinley, 10; McKinl not double its usual) majority for the Republican candidate.

American industry-William McKinley -and would welcome the issue of American protection, American credit, American policy and give to William Mc-Kinley the largest majority that she had ever given to a Republican candidate. (Cheers.)

Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, and J. Madison Vance, of Louislana, also seconded the motion. Mr. Depew being called upon, made a characteristically goodnatured speech and was given an ovation. When he concluded there was a and to join in the grand popular dem roar for Mark Hanna, Mr. Hanna stepped upon a chair, but his few words onstration in favor of the successful were innudible except to those close to him. He pledged himself to take his no one would be seated again and as if place in the ranks and work for the election of McKinley. MADE UNANIMOUS.

The chair put the question: "Shall the nomination be made unanimous and by a rising vote it was so ordered and then announced that Mr. William McKinley, of Ohio, was the candidate of the Republican party for president of the United States.

When the applause which greeted this announcement subsided. Senator Lodge moved to proceed to the election of vice-president and that the nominating speeches be limited to five minutes Notwithstanding many expressions of dissent and cries to adourn till morning, it was declared carried and at 6.20 p. m. the convention having been in continuous session nearly eight hours and a half, the roll of states was called for nomination for vice-president.

When Connecticut was reached, Mr Fesenden took the stand and nominated ex-Governor Morgan O. Bulkeley vicepresident. Judge John Franklin Fort of New Jersey, placed in nomination Hon. Garret A. Hobart.

Mr. Humphrey, of Illinois, briefly seconded the nomination of Mr. Hobart in the name of Illinois.

The roll call of the states was resumed and New York made no nomination. When the state of Rhode Island was called Mr. Allen came to the stand and nominated for the vice president Charles Warren Lippitt. When the state of Tennessee was called Mr. Randolph, a delegate from that state, nominated for the presidency Henry Clay Evans, of Tennesse. The nomination of Mr. Evans was seconded by Mr. Smith, of Kentucky, a colored delegate. Mr. I. C. Walker (colored), of Virginia, put in nomination his fellow dele rate, James A. Walker,

The balloting for vice president then began. The call had only proceeded as far as South Dakota when it became evident that Hobart had been nominated on the first ballot and the delegates and the crowd in the galleries began to leave the building.

Resolutions were offered and agreed to appointing the chairman, Mr. Thurston, and the temporary chairman, Mr. Fairbanks, chairmen respectively of the two committees to notify the nominees for president and vice president. Resolutions of thanks were also offered to the chairman, the temporary chairman and the officers of the con vention and suitable acknowledgments vere made by Messrs. Thurston and Fairbanks.

They issued from the nest in swarms and lit all over the man. He fought ; Allison, 1. Indian territory, McKinley District of Columbia, Reed, 1; Allison, 1 them for a minute or two, then, with a yell, jumped through the window, car-Alaska, McKinley, 4. Totals, McKinley, 661½; Morton, 58; Quay, 61½; Reed, 84½; Allison, 35½; Cameron, L rying sash and glass with him, never stopping until he reached the river, into which he jumped. Montana has four blank.

Necessary for choice, 454. Total num per delegates present, 906. "Said he could whip his weight in anything that breathed," remarked the meek little man, as he pocketed the stakes, "but about five pounds of hor-The following is the detailed vote for nets knocked him out in the first round."-Washington Star.

THE NEW CASABIANCA.

When all his gang had fied; The waves that washed the battered wreck

Fom Platt stood on the burning deck,

Yet, grim and sullen, there he stood,

Out in the awful storm; His face looked like a chunk of wood

The waves rolled on, he would not go,

He called aloud: "Say, fellers, say,

Rolled high above his head.

Upon a "dummy's" form,

Because he couldn't swim,

To throw a line to him.

Must I go down alone?

"Go call on Tammany!

Dulay:

And there was not a man below

Alabama, Hobart, 10; Bulkeley, 1; Evans, 1. Arkansas, Hobart, 10; Bulkeley, 1; Ev-NOT BOLTING.

ins, 5. California, Hobart, 14; Bulkeley 1; Evans, 3, Colorado, blank, Connecti-cut, Bulkeley, 12, Delaware, Hobart, 6 Florida, Hobart, 5; Evans, 3, Georgia, Ho "Bolt, sir?" said the statesman, turning and glancing at the interviewer; "did I understand you to ask me whether I inbart, 5; Evans, 21, Idaho, blank. Illi-nois, Hobart, 44; Evans, 4. Indiana, Hotend to bolt?" "That was the question. I thought perpart, 12; Evans, 16; Reed, 1 :Thurston, 1 haps you might feel that you had not been well treated." lowa, Hobart, 8; Bulkeley, 10; Evans, 5; Grant,2; Reed,1., Kansas, Hobart, 20, Ken-ucky,Hobarts; Evans,17; Depew,- Louis-"However that may be, I shall not bolt, I shall stay inside the party, where I can make trouble."-Washington Star, ana, Hobart, 8; Evans, 8. Maine, Hobart, ;; Bulkeley,2; Evans, 5; Depew, 2; Moron, 1. Maryland, Hobart, 14; Bulkeley,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

he vice president:

Svans, 1. Massachusetts, Hobart, 14 Bulkeley, 4; Evans, 12. Michigan, Hobar 1; Evans, 7. Minnesota, Hobart, 6; Ev ans, 12. Mississippi, Hobart, 13; Evans, 7, Missouri, Hobart, 10; Evans, 23; Thurs-ton, 1. Montana, Hobart, 1 (five absent). Nebraska, Hobart, 18. Nevada, Hobart, 3. New Hampshire, Hobart, 8. New Jersey, Hobart, 20. New York, Hobart, 72. North Carolina, Hobart, 11/2; Evans, 20/2; North Dakota, Hobart 3; Evans, 3. Ohio, Ho-bart, 25; Bulkeley, 6; Evans, 15. Oregon,

Hobart, 8. Pennsylvania, Hobart, 64. Rhode Island, Lippitt, 8. South Carolina, Hobart, 3; Evans, 15. South Dakota, Hobart, 8. Tennessee, Evans, 24. Texas, Hobart, 11; Evans, 12, Utah, Hobart, 5, Ver-mont, Hobart, 8, Virginia, James A, Walker, 24. Washington, Hobart, 8. Wes Virginia, Hobart, 3: Evans, 20; Reed, 1 Wyoming, Hobart, 6. Arizona, Hobart, 4 Then came those mocking words from Bulkeley, 1; Evans, 1. New Mexico blank. Oklahoma, Hobart, 4; Evans, 1 Indian territory, Hobart, 6. District o "I've troubles of my own." "Speak, fellers," once again he cried; "Will no one sink with me?" Columbia, Hobart, 2. Alaska, Hobart, 4 Totals, Hobart, 535 14; Bulkeley, 38; Evans, 27714; Lippitt, 8; James A. Walker, 24; Reed, 5; Thurston, 2; Depew, 3; Morton, 1; The people, as one man, replied: Grant, 2. Absent, Montana, 5; Nevada, 3 Texas, 7; Colorado, 8. Totals absent, 23

The wild wind took away his breath. And tossed his rumpled hair; To stay he knew was certain death, His warning had been fair.

Then yet again his voice he found: "Oh Clarkson, where is he Will no one stay here and be drowned. Will no one bolt with me?"

The waves rolled o'er the ancient raft. And tossed its stern on high; Yet Platt stuck to the creaking craft, Determined there to die!

There came a boom like thunder sound And Platt-oh, where was he? Ask of the winds that strewed the ground With parts of Saint Loo-Cleveland Leade

Necessary to a choice, 448,

LIST OF BOLTERS. The Silver Men Who Retired from the Convention. St. Louis, June 18 .- The silver delerates who retired from the hall are Congressman Hartman, of Montana-Senator Cannon, Congressman Allen and Delegate Thomas Kearns, of Utah; Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota; Delegates Cleveland and Strothers, of Nevada. From Idaho the entire del The chair informed the convention gation of six, headed by Senator Du-

JOSEPH BENSON FORAKER. Who Nominated Major McKinley.