Mr. McKinley Receives Telegrams of Congratulation—Discussion of Cabinet Possibilities—The California Pampas Plume Advocated as a Party Emblem.

St. Louis, Mo., June 19.—The new Republican national committee met this morning at the Southern hotel for the purpose of organizing and becoming acquainted with each other, there having been a number of new men placed upon the committee by the various delegations.

- Alabama—William Youngblood. Arkansas—Powell Clayton. California—J. D. Sprengle. Colorado—J. F. Sanders. Connecticut—Samuel Pessender. Delaware—James H. Wilson. Florida—John G. Long. Georgia—J. W. Lyons. Idaho—George F. Shoup. Illinois—L. N. Jamieson. Indiana—W. T. Purdy. Iowa—W. B. Cummings. Kansas—Cyrus Leland, jr. Kentucky—J. W. Yerkes. Louisiana—J. W. Winberry. Maine—Joseph H. Manley. Maryland—George L. Wellington. Massachusetts—George H. Lyman. Michigan—George L. Maltz. Minnesota—L. P. Hubbard. Mississippi—J. J. Hill. Missouri—H. C. Stephens. Montana—Charles R. Leonard. Nebraska—John M. Thurston. Nevada—C. H. Sprague. New Hampshire—Percey F. Cheney. New Jersey—G. A. Hobart. New York—F. S. Gibbs. North Carolina—James E. Boyd. North Dakota—W. H. Robinson. Ohio—Charles L. Kurtz. Oregon—George A. Steele. Pennsylvania—M. S. Quay. Rhode Island—General C. Brayton. South Carolina—E. A. Webster. South Dakota—A. B. Kittredge. Tennessee—W. P. Brownlow. Arizona—W. M. Griffith. New Mexico—Solomon Lina. Oklahoma—Mary E. Asp. Indian Territory—Leo E. Bennett.

THE MEMBERS of the committee having been named, the subject it was determined to elect the chairman at this meeting instead of leaving it open until the meeting that will probably be held in New York two or three weeks hence.

HANNA AS CHAIRMAN. Mr. Mark Hanna was nominated for chairman at the meeting of Mr. Payne, of Wisconsin, seconded by Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York. He was elected by the unanimous vote of the committee. Mr. Hanna accepted the nomination in a short speech which was received with applause.

Mr. Hanna said: I certainly appreciate the compliment and confidence which goes with it in offering me the position, which under ordinary circumstances I should be compelled to decline, but under the present condition of affairs my loyalty and my love for our country induce me to go one step further and see the consummation of this great victory for the Republican party. The task which I had before me in the present campaign was arduous, but my conduct was in accordance with strict business integrity, honor and fair dealing. I wish further to say to the committee that if Major McKinley is elected president of the United States he will be elected owing no man a promise that will embarrass his administration. What he owes me is only to his country and what he will do will be for the welfare of the Republican party. If a pure life, patriotic motives and a firm determination to do his duty will make his administration a success the United States will have occasion to thank God for the nomination made in yesterday's convention. [Applause.]

Mr. Manley was made temporary secretary and James F. Burke, of Pittsburgh, temporary assistant secretary. Colonel Swords, of Iowa, the sergeant at arms of the old committee, was kept in that position temporarily. It was agreed that Chairman Hanna should have full authority to select the officers of the committee, including the treasurer, which office was not even filled temporarily. As the instance of Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, the following resolution was unanimously agreed to: Resolved, That the chairman of this committee is hereby authorized and empowered, after consultation with the candidates for president and vice president to appoint an executive committee of nine members, who may or may not be members of this committee and that the chairman of this committee shall be chairman ex-officio of the said executive committee.

Mr. W. H. Andrews acted as proxy for Senator Quay, who early this morning left for the east. No successor was elected to take the place of Mr. Hobart, of New Jersey, who was the nominee for the second place on the ticket. The committee adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman, and it is understood the next meeting will be held in

ROUSING RECEPTION TO MR. MCKINLEY

Old Friends and Neighbors Extend Hearty Congratulations.

RETURN OF THE CANTON DELEGATES

The Pilgrims from St. Louis Are Greeted by Thousands of Citizens, Who Join Them in Paying Their Respects to the Leader.

Canton, Ohio, June 19.—Shortly after noon preparations began making for the reception of the returning Canton delegates and the neighboring houses began filling up with residents of the city. Market street, on which the McKinley residence stands, is the site of numerous handsome residences surrounded by wide-spreading green lawns. These, with the gay decorations, which were not confined to the house alone, but covered the grounds as well, made a brilliant and attractive scene, heightened by the bright dress of scores of Canton's beautiful women and girls. The McKinley house was a busy place in a quiet way. A stream of callers, mostly residents of the surrounding country, demanded the major's frequent presence on the porch for a hand-shake. The intervals he spent in conversation with a few friends in the library were varied by frequent visits to the parlor, where Mrs. McKinley and a party of lady friends spent the day. Incidents more or less interesting were not wanting, as for instance the arrival of J. W. Smith, a colored man of Ohio, who insisted upon seeing the major to present in person an application for a position. He failed to see him, however.

There was an unexpected delay in the arrival of the train and it was after 6 o'clock when the music of the band announced the approach of the delegation. As they came up one street a delegation of several hundred from Trumbull and Mahoning counties marched up a parallel street and they entered the yard front and rear, completely filling it. At that time the adjoining streets were jammed, fully 10,000 people being in sight of the house. Major McKinley received the triumphal pilgrims under the trees in the side yard and received from them such a tribute as seldom falls to the lot of man.

A MEMORABLE SCENE

It was a memorable scene. Standing bareheaded just at the corner of the house, Mrs. McKinley sitting in a window behind him, from which she could see and hear all that occurred, was the friend and neighbor of the excited and enthusiastic throng, the center of interest of a whole nation, pale but outwardly calm and composed. He listened first to the cheers of the assembled thousands and then to expressions of regard, respect, esteem and affection which must have been sweeter to his ears than even the announcement that he had been elected president of the United States.

BOOMING THE PLUMES.

Chairman Hanna Recommends the California Product as an Emblem. St. Louis, June 19.—The following letter has been received by the United Press for publication:

St. Louis, Mo.—To the Republican party of the United States, in recognition of the courtesy of Mrs. H. W. Strong, of Los Angeles, Cal., in presenting to the Republican national convention through its chairman, the following emblem, I have the adored California pampas plume, the only American product cultivated for the purpose of being used as a party emblem. It is a beautiful, and in its use, in red, white and blue plumes, mounted fan shape on a staff for parades and interior decorations. (Signed) M. A. Hanna, Chairman.

TELEGRAMS ARRIVE.

Messages of Congratulation Flashed Over the Wires to Major McKinley. Canton, June 19.—Speaker Reed telegraphed from Washington: Hon. William McKinley, Canton: I wish you a happy and prosperous administration—happy for yourself and prosperous for the country. Thomas H. Reed.

Senator Allison's was as follows: Dismal, Ia., June 18. Hon. William McKinley: Accept my sincere and hearty congratulations upon your nomination. W. B. Allison.

The following telegram was received from Governor Morton: Hon. William McKinley: Canton, O.: You may recall my remark in 1878, as we sat side by side in the house of representatives that I expected some day to see you president of the United States. Please accept today my hearty congratulations. (Signed) Levi P. Morton.

John Wanamaker telegraphed from Quarantine: "Just received good news on steamer." Telegrams were also received from hundreds of clubs throughout the country.

A pleasing feature of the telegrams was the large number coming from ladies all over the country. Senator Perkins—in behalf of the Republicans of California I greet you as the foremost defender of our party's principles and congratulate our people that you will be our next president. Senator Hawley—Noble cause and platform. Congratulations and support. Senator Lodge—All I can do to secure your triumphant election and a Republican victory will be done. Citizens—We have attended many national conventions and never left more perfectly satisfied with ticket and platform.

Bishop Vincent of the Methodist Episcopal church to Mrs. McKinley: I appreciate as no one else can your husband's worth, power, nobility and tenderness. Lucie's S. Garfield (President Garfield's widow to Mrs. McKinley)—Our two families join in earnest hope that the next four years may bring to you the most of joy and the least of sorrow and to the nation years of triumphant prosperity.

Harriet S. Blaine—Heartiest congratulations with many tender thoughts of the past. This one particularly pleased Major McKinley: Cleveland, Ohio—No one wishes you more success than your Democratic friend, G. D. David, of Jackson.

The above are but a few of the congratulatory telegrams which flooded Major McKinley from all parts of the country.

BRITISH MINISTER WANTS PROPOSALS

England Is Ready to Arbitrate on the Venezuelan Question.

MORE TROUBLE ON THE BORDER

Although Not Officially Confirmed, It Is Evident That Trouble of a More or Less Serious Character Has Occurred—Trinidad Probably the Scene of Conflict.

London, June 19.—The under secretary for foreign affairs, Mr. George N. Curzon, answering a question in the house of commons today, regarding the Venezuelan situation, said that the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, was authorized to receive and report on proposals made by the Venezuelan representative at Washington. The latter, Mr. Curzon continued, had been informed of this, but up to the present had not made any proposal.

Negotiations were proceeding with the United States, both in regard to a definitive frontier and the arbitration of the frontier question with Venezuela under proper conditions of discussion. The latter question, Mr. Curzon further stated does not offer any obstacles to the conclusion of a general arrangement with respect to arbitration, which the government hopes to see concluded. Inquiries made at the colonial office today show that the secretary of state for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, has not received any confirmation of the reports from Caracas that a sanguinary conflict had taken place in the territory in dispute between British Guiana and Venezuela, and the rumor is not credited there.

It is further stated that no information had been received from Caracas or Georgetown which would tend to alter the statement made by the secretary of state for the Colonies in the house of commons yesterday, namely, that it was true that Venezuelans had crossed the boundary and had interfered with British officials who were engaged in the work of surveying. But no mention was made of a conflict of a sanguinary nature.

Washington, June 19.—Although it cannot be learned that official confirmation has been received of a conflict between the British and the Venezuelan forces, yet it is accepted as certain in official quarters that trouble of a more or less serious character has occurred. The first report came from a British source at Kingston, and referred to Venezuelan interference with British surveyors.

Officials here say that Trinidad is the point most likely to hear of a conflict, as it is an island just opposite Georgetown, British Guiana. There is hesitation to accept the reports of the actual fighting, for the most serious phases of the trouble have never before brought on fighting, except in the trilling Uruan incident, when one British inspector—Captain Barnes—was arrested. Minister Andrade of Venezuela has received no word from Caracas as to the reported trouble. He feels confident that if a clash has occurred it is not due to any offensive steps by the Venezuelan troops, as they are under strict orders all along the line to make no advances and to maintain only the status quo, in view of the pending negotiations.

The British embassy here has received no information on the subject.

DEADLY ARC LIGHT.

Elbert Woods and Richard Mensec Are Shocked to Death by Touching a Wire Screw.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Albert Wood, thirty-two years of age, the proprietor of a photograph gallery at Washington Park, in this city, and Richard Mensec, aged twenty years, a visitor to the resort, were shocked to death last night in a singular manner. Mensec, at the conclusion of an evening's pleasure, visited the photograph gallery and as he approached the place threw out his hand and scraped a wire screw. He had no sooner touched the wire covering than he was thrown a distance of ten feet, screaming with pain. His companions gathered about him and in a few minutes the proprietor of the gallery, Woods, came to the outside to learn the cause of the commotion. He was told that Mensec, who was unconscious, had been shocked by touching the screen, but this he was loath to believe. Woods touched the screen himself and was thrown heavily backwards. The victims were taken to the Samaritan hospital, but when that institution was reached they were both dead.

The wire which forms the arc lights in the gallery it was found had become unfastened and had fallen across the screen, charging it with 1,400 volts. Woods leaves a wife and two children.

TELLER WILL REST.

And Will Afterward Engage in Missionary Work in the West. St. Louis, June 19.—Senator Teller, of Colorado, feels the need of rest after an exacting duties of the past fortnight. In pursuance of this purpose he will leave tomorrow for Fulton, Ill., near which place his aged mother is residing. There he will spend a week or more. He will make the trip by water to avoid the fatigue of railway travel. It is his intention to participate actively in the campaign after the Chicago convention shall have made its nominations and the issues between the two parties are fairly joined. It is doubtful if he will come east. He believes that the great west offers a promising field for missionary work. It is in that region that he will be most generally employed.

HERALD'S WEATHER FORECAST.

New York, June 20.—In the middle states today, fair, slightly warmer, fresh to light southerly and westerly winds, followed by local thunder storms near the lake region. On Sunday, partly cloudy, warm southwesterly winds preceded by local rain on the coast, followed by fair weather with slight temperature change.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

Weather indications today: Fair; probably showers.
