GIVEN TO MR. KINSLEY.

Commissioner Receives a Token from Department Employees.

A costly Knight Templar charm was presented to Street Commissioner C. H. Kinsley Saturday night by the employees of his department. The presentation was made at 7 o'clock in the corridor of the city hall, where Commissioner Kinsley had been summoned by a fictitious note from Mayor Bailey.

Florentino Perigo made a very brief presentation speech. Mayor Bailey, who is a Sir Knight, had expected to be present, but reached the building a few moments after the pleasant episode had ended.

"The charm is beautiful in design and costly. The red cross is of rubies, and three diamonds are set in the points of the crown. On the reverse are inscribed the words 'C. H. Kinsley, Malta Commandery, No. 68.'" In the center the initials are inscribed with the design of the degree of Mark Mason. The outer work is of solid gold with beautiful chasing, the charm being surrounded by the Maltese cross.

E. E. Everhart Claims $1,081 for Selling the Phelps' Property.

E. E. Everhart on Saturday brought suit in court against Dr. B. H. Throop for $1,081. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney I. H. Burns and claims that on January 2, 1895, he entered into a written agreement with the defendant to dispose of the property now occupied by the Traders' National bank for $57,720 within 40 days.

On February 1, as alleged by the plaintiff, he sold the property to the present owners for $60,000, and up to date Dr. Throop has refused to pay more than $519 on the $2,500 difference between the option price and the amount the property brought.

MANAGER JONES' PARADE.

It Advertised the Exhibition of the Vitaseope at the Frothingham.

Manager O. E. Jones, of the Frothingham, succeeded Saturday night in advertising successfully the exhibition of the Vitaseope, which will be presented at the Lawrence band tonight.

In addition to which there will be a production by a high class vaudeville company, secured by Manager Jones from New York.

A wagon was driven through the principal streets of town and nickels and brass pieces were scattered promiscuously. The Lawrence band preceded the wagon. As the parade moved along Washington avenue on the court house square over 2,500 persons, big and little, were flanked up along the wagon.

There was a lively scramble for the coin and checks. The latter will entitle the holder to admission to the theatre.

PUT THE PERSUADER TO THEM.

Revolver Makes Kelly's Patch Italians Respect a Search Warrant.

Joseph Pepper, alias Toni Ledalis, who was sentenced on Saturday to a year in jail for stealing a check from the Spring Brook Water company's office and passing it on Clothier Posner, of Lackawanna avenue, secured $20 worth of goods on the check and confessed that he secreted them in the house of Antonio Margareta, who lives in Kelly's Patch.

Mr. Posner had a search warrant sworn out and with Constable Yeomans visited the Margareta house on Saturday. A number of Italians board at the place and they showed a disposition to obstruct the warrant, but the constable made one of them look along the barrel of a revolver and the effect was magical. The search was then made and the clothes were recovered.

LECTURED ON JERUSALEM.

United States Consul Wallace Heard in Y. M. C. A. Hall.

United States Consul Wallace of Jerusalem delivered a highly entertaining illustrated lecture on the Holy Land Saturday evening in Young Men's Christian association hall for the benefit of Green Ridge Presbyterian church. Scenic and historical views were exhibited by means of a stereopticon.

The visit of Consul Wallace to Scranton was brought about through his meeting with E. B. Sturges on the latter's recent trip to Palestine. While in Scranton the speaker will be the guest of Mr. Sturges. The congregation of Green Ridge church had the pleasure of hearing him again yesterday morning and evening.

Order a copy of Wednesday's Tribune from your news dealer at once, and secure the handsome life-like portrait of Hon. William McKinley, the Republican candidate for president of these United States.

of Mr. Teller and his colleagues will do material damage. It seemed to be the general opinion at St. Louis that for every Republican vote thus lost, we could safely count on a gain of two votes from men who have hitherto been Democrats. Especially was this thought true in the Chicago convention, where shall declare flatly for free coinage. Besides, the Chicago convention cannot without stultification do otherwise than declare for free trade. And there are thousands of Democrats, and also thousands of silver Republicans who, in this campaign at least, will put Protection first and vote for Protection's champion, William McKinley."

The Chicago Times-Herald of last Friday contained an excellent portrait of Mr. Connell, who was spoken of by that paper as one of the prominent members of the Pennsylvania delegation.

DESIGNS ON THE SAFE.

Ex-Theatrical Manager Waite Arrested for Opening the Strong Box in the Arlington—His Version of the Case.

W. C. Waite, ex-manager of the Bubb Comedy company and at one time manager of Music Hall, Wilkes-Barre, was locked up at 1 o'clock yesterday morning for robbing the safe of Grimes & Flannery's hotel, The Arlington, corner of Franklin avenue and Spruce street.

Friday night Waite registered at the hotel and Saturday afternoon paid his bill with the presumed intention of departing. He however lingered about the place, drinking quite heavily and at midnight when Proprietor Grimes prepared to lock up, Waite was still loitering about the office. Mr. Grimes left him alone in the office while he went to the barroom to get the cash from the register and had gone only but half a minute when he heard the jingle of money falling on the floor.

Looking into the office he discovered Waite crouched in front of the safe extracting money from the cash drawer. At the appearance of the proprietor, Waite bolted out of the hotel and down Spruce street to Millin avenue. Mr. Grimes followed and overtook him on Millin avenue. Waite fell and Grimes fell on top of him and they were having a hand to hand struggle when Patrolman Goetz attracted by Grimes' first shouts came up with them and took Waite into custody. Two twenty dollar bills and a five dollar bill were found on Waite's person when he was searched at the station house. This on investigation proved to be the amount missing from the safe. At the hearing in police court he was committed to the county jail by Alderman Howe in default of $500 bail.

Waite firmly denies his guilt and explains the matter this way: After Grimes had gone to the barroom he determined to go to bed and went behind the counter to get the key to his room No. 21. Instead he got the key for No. 29 and upon going back the second time to make the exchange allowed the key to drop to the floor. He was in the act of picking it up from beside the safe, where it had fallen, when Grimes came upon him with a base ball bat.

Not being able to understand this action on the part of the proprietor and relishing the idea of having his brains knocked out he ran into the street and when he was pursued continued his flight. He further claims that he had $70 when he came to the city Friday and that the $45 taken from him in the police station is part of it.

FIERCE FIRE AT DURVEA.

It Burned Three Hours and Wiped Out an Entire Block.

Durvea was the scene of a $15,000 fire Saturday morning. The flames broke out at 4:15 in the basement of Firestone's hotel on Main street and the entire block in which the hotel stood was swept away. The other buildings were a grocery store, a meat market, a furniture store, and a hardware establishment, besides some tenement houses owned by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western.

The Firestone hotel was occupied by a man named Kolska. The entire damage is estimated at $15,000. Very little insurance was carried on any of the property destroyed. The flames had not become extinguished until 7:30, where there was no longer anything to feed their fury.

Every purchaser of a copy of next Wednesday's Tribune will receive a handsome portrait of Hon. William McKinley, Republican candidate for president.

IT WAS A NIGHT OF TERROR ON THE FLATS

Number of Brawls Occurred There Saturday Night.

ONE MAN STABBED AND KICKED

Was Taken to the Lackawanna Hospital, Where It Was Found That His Injuries Were Not of a Serious Nature and He Went Home After They Were Dressed.

Several places on the South Side, including the steel mill, paid on Saturday and at night the foreign element which congregates on Washington avenue flats caused a veritable reign of terror.

There was a constant succession of brawls of a more or less serious nature extending in time from about 9 o'clock until well on in the Sabbath morning hours and in place from the foot of the hill to the silk mill.

The police force for that territory which consisted of Patrolman J. F. Jones was powerless to preserve order for as soon as one disturbance was quelled another would break out.

Entered faces and broken heads were common and one affair which was of a quite serious nature came to notice because of the fact that the victim was taken to the Lackawanna hospital.

He is Sandio Dokeske, a middle-aged married man residing at 923 South Washington avenue. He was on his way home in an intoxicated condition when he encountered a gang of his fellow-countrymen at the corner of Washington avenue and Maple street and got into a wrangle.

The crowd pitched on to him and during the melee he received a stab wound in the right side in the region of the lower ribs. He was also knocked down and kicked in the head and face, and remarkable to say he got up after the ruffians had left him for dead, went to a nearby saloon where he drank a glass of beer and then walked three blocks to his home.

SENT TO THE HOSPITAL.

Patrolman Jones who heard of the affair found him then shortly afterwards and had him conveyed to the Lackawanna hospital where his wounds were dressed.

The knife thrust was found to be not of a serious nature after he had been patched up he was taken back to his home in the ambulance.

He could not identify any of his assailants as he was drunk and the place where the assault occurred is dark.

Many disorderly occurrences have of late been reported from this locality particularly about Central Park garden.

One week ago Saturday night an atrocity occurred just outside the park which may result in the death of a girl and the imprisonment of a dozen or more men.

INJURY PROVED FATAL.

Patrick O'Boyle's Fall from Street Car Ends in Death.

Patrick O'Boyle who was injured by jumping from a suburban car Friday night died at the Lackawanna hospital at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. He never regained consciousness. A post mortem examination was conducted yesterday by Coroner Longstreet assisted by Dr. Garvey and it disclosed that death was due to concussion of the brain.

Coroner Longstreet also decided to hold an inquest and empanelled a jury consisting of Dr. E. M. Pennybacker, J. J. Kernan, T. P. Canavan, D. S. Ryan, W. P. Kinsbury and H. F. Mellon, who viewed the remains in the morgue and then adjourned till tonight to take testimony.

Deceased was 28 years of age, a widower and the father of two children. His home was on the West Side. He was employed as a driver for a Pittston brewery. His remains will be taken in charge by relatives.

NOT DEAD BY ANY MEANS.

Citizens' Street Railway Company Is in the Business to Stay.

Select council's set back to the Citizens' Street Railway ordinance does not mean the death of the measure by any means. Ex-Mayor Connell, president of the new company, upon his return from the St. Louis convention, authorized the statement that council's adverse action will not deter the new company in the least from pushing its project to a successful consummation.

Just what course they propose to pursue Mr. Connell could not definitely state as he had not had a conference with the other members of the company.

SHEA WILL BE MARSHAL.

His Appointment Was Officially Announced on Saturday.

The announcement in Friday's Tribune that John J. Shea would be Frank Robling's successor as deputy United States marshal was officially confirmed Saturday by a letter from Marshal Walker to Postmaster F. M. Vandling.

Going to some shortage in the appropriation, the appointment will not be made until July 1. Mr. Shea was formerly a member of the police force and served a term in county prison, he is in every way fitted for the office and the appointment meets with general approbation.
