VERY YELLOW GAME.

Barons Had It Won, but Lost It in the Seventh on Inexcuseable Errors.

Pitcher Harper Weakened. After obtaining a reasonably certain mortgage on Saturday's game with the Syracuse Stars the Barons went to pieces in the seventh round as surely as though they had been dynamited. When the score lifted the score was no longer 3-1 in the Baron's favor, but Syracuse had the long end of it at 9 Up to the time of the disaster Tarper had kent the Stars guessing and when any of them did happen to get on the bases the Brooklyn farmer succeeded in making them fan with surprising The Barons had tallied three times in the first inning on hits by Hutchinson and O'Brien and errors by Shearon and Moss, and in the fifth the Stars got a run, thanks to Meaney's

With one out in the seventh eight Syracuseans pushed or slid themselves over the plate on a beautiful postpourri of hits and errors. It all happened after chances had been offered to retire the side on two errors each by Pete Eagan and Herger, three doubles and four singles and Maguire's nightmare. The score in detail:

Chicago, June 21 .- Ten thousand persons saw the Cincinnati team win from the Colts today. Dwyer was in the bex for the visitors and held the Colts safe at all times. Pfeffer was given the biggest kind of a reception and Irwin was presented with flowers by his local friends. The game was marred by a disgraceful scene in which Anson and Peltz figured. The latter, who was on the bench for the visitors, made an insulting remark to the captain and Anson went after the catcher. They met n front of the plate and exchanged blows, but neither was hurt. Anson was with the greatest difficulty restrained from following the Cincinnati player to the bench to continue the fight. It was the first time the oldtimer was ever known to forget himself and this time was a big surprise to the crowd. Terry was in good form, but the luck was all with the visitors.

CARBONDALE TEAM SOLD.

Its Manager and All the Players Belong to Pottsville.

Pottsville, June 21.-The Carbondale base ball team and its manager were transferred in a lump to the base ball association of this place yesterday. The price paid for the transfer is authoritatively stated to be $500.

This action, although sudden, not entirely unexpected. The Potts-ville people have known of the shape matters were in with the Carbondales for some time and had laid pipe ac-codingly. Not all of the Carbondale players are pleased with the new order of things, but they are so placed that they cannot help themselves. Several other towns were after Massey, Cargo, McQuade, Rafter and O'Brien.

TO SPITE SCRANTON.

A Carbondale dispatch as follows to the Sunday Free Press does not indi-cate that the Carbondale cranks are pleased over the sale of their club: 'Carbondale, June 20 .- To say that the base ball loving people of this town are hot over the reported sale of their team to Pottsville is to put the condition of things mildly. It is not so much the sale itself as it is the mere pittance for which the players were transferred that sticks in every good crank's craw. It is looked upon as a mere action to spite Scranton at the expense of the home association."

DIAMOND DUST.

The deal to secure Bill Massey, the heavy-hitting Carbondale first baseman, for Scranton fell through. Frank Malott, one of the most compe tent players on the Scranton Young Men's Christian association team, has signed to play second base for the Hamilton, Ont., club.

The Barons left the city at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Buffalo, where they play two games beginning today, and then go to Toronto, Rochester and Syracuse returning home July 2 for a series of games with Wilkes-Barre in that city and at home. Pitchers Corbett and Esper and Catcher Bouerman, the Baltimore trio, will join the team in Buffalo tomorrow. Dick Brown did not show himself before the club left home. He wired that he had been ill and would report today in Buf-

Here's a sample of unreliable "grape vine" telegraph which appeared in the last issue of the Sporting News as a special dispatch: "Scranton, Pa., June 18.J—Outfielder O'Brien, of Hornellsville, lately with Rochester, signed with Scranton and is playing third. Latham has been benched. Sandy Griffin, who succeeded McDermott as manager is popular with the fans." O'Brien has played right field ever since he reported in Scranton and Latham has continued to play third. The only truth in the paragraph is its last sentence. The mania for some kind of disgraceful scene on the diamond is going the rounds, Yesterday your Uncle Anson and Catcher Peltz, of Cincinnati, exchanged blows in

New West Side Team Makes a Bad Beginning.

Olyphant, June 20.-The new West Side team, of Scranton, was defeated by the Browns, of this place, today. Mc-Dermott, the mute pitcher, started in to pitch for the locals, but the Scranton aggregation soon fell on him and hammered the ball all over the lot and over the fence. In the second inning he retired in favor of Cleary, who finished the game in good style.

Julius Posner did the twirling for the West Siders and was pounded hard and often for six innings, "Senator" Mc-Ginnis took his place in the seventh. The game was remarkable for its many home runs and errors. The score:
