PROVIDENCE.

Last Saturday evening the hearing in the somewhat famous assault and bat-tery case of Captain Joseph H. Duggan against William Littlejohn took place before Alderman Roberts. Mr. Littlejohn was found not guilty but had to pay the costs. The counsel for the rosecutor was Attorney R. J. Bourke. and the defense was represented by Attorney A. A. Vosburg. It will be remembered that the hearing in this case was slated for last Tuesday night, but on that occasion the defense made a request for a trial by jury, which was granted and the trial was postponed until Saturday evening. So much interest has been aroused that the presence of a police officer was necessitated in order to prevent all persons not personally interested in the case from entering the room. The story of the case is that on the morning of the eighth day of June, Leo, the son of Mr. Duggan, was kicked by a mule while at his work in the Leggett's Creek shaft and was injured to such an extent that he was compelled to go home. He reached the foot of the shaft, where a lot of men were standing in line awaiting their turn to ascend, and tried to squeeze himself into position among the men who were to ascend next. Mr. Littlejohn, whose duty it is to select the legal number of men who shall enter the carriage, noticing the actions of young Duggan, asked him what he was doing, and not receiving a definite answer Mr. Littlejohn caught hold of him and threw him back, and in some unex plained manner the boy fell against a rail and was painfully injured. When Duggan went home he reported the occurrence to his parents, who immedi ately had Littlejohn strested. Twenty witnesses were subpoensed and on ac count of the large number of witnesses great deal of time was taken up in the examinations and cross-examinations. The case was given to the jury about 10.45. At 11.50 the jury returned and handed in the verdict already stated. The jury was composed of C. A. Perry Thomas Powell, John J. Owen, W. H. Johnson, John Comerford and George Davis. Mr. Perry acted as fore-

Wall Street Review.

New York, June 20,-London apparently changed front today at least certain houses with foreign connections here were moderate sellers of St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville and other international issues. No adequate reason was forthcoming for these sales and arbitrage houses were inclined to the belief that the bulk of the orders originated here. At least this view of the Whitefield, W. Va.—(Special)—The good people of our town are about to form an anti-tobacco-using club. The direct reason for this agitation is the remarkable get a fair share of European business son for this agitation is the remarkable cure of Col. D. R. Banks, who for a long time enjoyed the palm as the greatest stogic smoker in West Virginia.

The Colonel said tonight: "Yes, I smoked over twenty years, and over two hundred stogics a week. Always smoked five at a time. I was always an active man, and thought I was thoroughly sound, but one day I had to make a run to catch a train, and in less than a hundred yards, grain growing region was more bullial on wheat it being said that the cond?tion of the crop in the southwest had brought me back to life. Another attack was likely to be fatal, for most cases of selling of Rock Island and St. Paul, a death from 'heart-failure' are really cases St. Louis operator being rather promi-of tobacco-heart. That set me figuring on nent in the last named issue. Further than the alleged London selling and the news about the wheat crop in Kansas there was little of interest stirring. Near the close a part of the early loss of 4 per cent. was recovered, and the market reporter's ribs and chuckled, "There are no flies on No-To-Bac.
