WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Fire in the Air Shaft of the Mount Pleasant Colliery—Hazardous Task of the Firemen.

The old air shaft of the Mount Pleasant colliery was, for the third time since it was sunk, visited by fire last night, shortly after 9 o'clock. Boys playing and smoking cigarettes about the mouth of the shaft threw flaming matches upon a pile of papers which were packed within the twelve-foot square enclosure at the top of the opening.

It was a hazardous fight. Only a thin flooring covered the shaft and it was under this floor where the fire was at its worst. A misstep would have sent the firemen several hundred feet down to the next vein. After an hour's work the flames were mastered. The extent of damages is not great. Several feet of timbering on the side of the shaft was destroyed. There was danger in the mine underneath.

When the water was sent down the shaft it drove the smoke before it and the mine maids in the barn near the foot entrance to the shaft were in danger of suffocation. A gang of men led the animals to safer quarters before anything serious happened.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JANE THOMAS.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Thomas, which took place yesterday afternoon, was a fitting tribute to the character of the deceased. At 2 o'clock a brief prayer service was conducted at the family home on South Hyde Park avenue.

Rev. T. Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church, officiated. Immediately after the service at the house the remains were taken to the Plymouth church, where a large congregation of friends listened to an eloquent sermon by Rev. Bell.

Among the flowers were a pillow with the word "Mother" on it. This was the gift of the family. The speaker told of the basket bouquets, a pair of floral anchors, a floral lyre, the gift of the Equitable Aid Union, of which the deceased was a member.

FUNERAL OF MARY BARRETT.

A solemn high mass of requiem over the remains of the late Miss Mary Barrett, the deceased daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Barrett, of Ninth street, was celebrated at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's church.

OLD MAN MISSING.

David Walter Jones, an aged gray-haired man, whose form is bent with the weight of seventy-two years, is a wanderer from home and his friends and aged wife are at loss to know his whereabouts.

A COMING RECITAL.

An opportunity to hear Professor and Mrs. L. J. Richards, the excellent elocutionists, will be given West Side tomorrow evening at the First Welsh Baptist church, on South Main avenue.

AT CAMPBELL'S LEDGE.

The pupils of Professor David Owens, of No. 14 school, rode in a band wagon to Campbell's Ledge yesterday. Dinner was set upon the rocks near the "Falling Springs." Those present were: Blanche Kellow, Ruth Beddoe, Edith Blair, Harriet Coons, Bessie Beavers, Bessie Williams, Fortia Van Vleet, Nellie Davis, Edna Stevens, Sadie Peters, Anna Norton, Margaret Hughes, Emmet Ellis, Kate Chase, Charles Bevens, Frank McGovern, John Shavin, Harry Stevens, Chester Morse, Roswell Phillips, David Phillips, John Hirlinger, Arthur Nichols, Alvan Armstrong, Walter Ellis, Bert Beavers, Curtis Whetstone.

YOUNG PEOPLES' PARTY.

A June party was held at the Sloan wood yesterday by the following young people: Esther, Maggie and Rena Hughes, Dora Smith, Ada Gleason, Jessie Reed, Jennie Hughes, Mary Sheedman, Nora Davis, Blodwin Davis, Thomas Williams, Harry Sheedman, Henry and Joseph Reed, John Jones, Archie Saxe, Walter Hughes. MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review. New York, June 22.—Stocks ruled weak today and a material decline in prices was recorded. News from abroad was anything but favorable and including statements that the position taken by the Republics in regard to the Cuban question was unsatisfactory to Spain. This was accompanied by large sales by houses with foreign connections. A renewal of exports of gold to Germany, which was rather unexpected, had the effect of depressing the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reinhardt and daughter, Eva, of the Pyre, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Williams, of 128 North Rebecca avenue. Mr. John Williams, of Petersburg, is spending a few weeks for the good of his health at his mother's, Mrs. Jenkin Richards, of 1206 Washburn street. Miss Bessie Thomas, of 1206 Washburn street, is recovering after a week's sickness. James B. Lessing and daughter Cleo, of Shenandoah, are visiting B. F. Landig.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Two Excursions Will Take Many to Fairview and Mountain Park—Anniversary of St. Peter's Society.

This is the day on which the members of the St. Peter's Society and their friends will enjoy a picnic at Fairview. Each annual event of this organization has been one of unqualified pleasure, and the provisions made for the occasion today are sufficient to meet the requirements. In addition to the exhilarating ride over the Gravity and the picnic at the grounds, the excursionists will be further delighted with hearing the singing of societies from Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, Carbonade and Honesdale. There will be a large crowd from here.

PREPARING FOR THE EVENT.

St. Peter's Beneficial society of St. Mary's German Catholic church will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of their organization with a grand picnic at Central Park next Monday. Addresses will be delivered by prominent speakers and nothing has been left undone to make it enjoyable for everybody. Many societies are expected from out of town to be present.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.

Rev. H. P. Burke who is assisting Rev. J. A. Moffitt of St. John's church, is at St. Bonaventure's college, his alma mater, attending the commencement exercises. He will be home Thursday. The funeral of Frances, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Herz, of Stone avenue, took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the German Catholic cemetery. During the summer the choir will not sing at mass in St. John's church. William Johnson and Miss Anna Ruddy will be married at St. John's church tomorrow. Gerald, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, of 730 Maple street, died Sunday night. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. PROVIDENCE. John Sullivan, of this city, and Miss Lucy Stunk, of Cresco, Wyoming county, were married yesterday afternoon by Alderman Roberts. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Mitchell, and the groom by William Mitchell. The children of the Holy Rosary church will enjoy a trolley ride to Dickson city today. In charge of the sisters they will leave at 8 a. m. and return at 6 p. m. One of the principal features of the day will be a game of base ball between the altar boys of the Holy Rosary church and those of St. Mary's church, Dunmore. A debate will be held in the Dunmore Methodist church this evening between men selected from the Epworth league chapters connected with the Dunmore and Providence Methodist Episcopal churches. It is desired that all members of the league from this place meet at the church and attend in a body. The men who will represent this place are Henry Kemmerling, C. O. Sutton and Charles Connolly. The Niagara Drum corps will hold their annual picnic June 2 and 3 at Brevin's grove. Mrs. John Connor, of Sweeney street, who died last Saturday afternoon from paralysis, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Holy Park Catholic cemetery. A high mass of requiem was read by Rev. William P. O'Donnell at the Holy Rosary church. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Legatee street, are visiting friends at Hazleton. Thomas Lewis, of Fenner & Chappel's store, is spending his vacation at Nanticoke. Many from this section will accompany the Home for the Friendless on their excursion to Ross Park, Binghamton, today. William Iger, of Oak street, who has been visiting friends in Wayne county, returned home yesterday. Proprietor Mabey, of the Bristol House, is dangerously ill. Mrs. Ellen Davis, of Spring street, leaves today for Binghamton, where she will remain for the summer. David Edwards, of Brick avenue, spent Sunday at Taylor. Miss Rachel A. Griffin, of Wilkes-Barre, who has been visiting her parents on Spring street, returned home yesterday. Rev. R. E. Jones, D. D., spent Sunday at Plymouth. Yesterday afternoon the Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Welsh Congregational church held a lawn social on the lawn in front of the church. The regular weekly meetings of this society have ceased for the summer. Miss Lulu Hughes, of Edna avenue, was having a visit to friends at Mt. Zion for the past week, returned home yesterday. George Jackson, of Lehigh university, is spending his vacation with his parents on Hollister avenue. Our Next President's Portrait in colors with each copy of tomorrow's Tribune. Don't miss it.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review. New York, June 22.—Stocks ruled weak today and a material decline in prices was recorded. News from abroad was anything but favorable and including statements that the position taken by the Republics in regard to the Cuban question was unsatisfactory to Spain. This was accompanied by large sales by houses with foreign connections. A renewal of exports of gold to Germany, which was rather unexpected, had the effect of depressing the market. The decline ranged from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent., nearly every stock being participated in the downward movement. Sugar was heavy and broke from 12 1/4 to 11 1/4. Round amounts of long stock came out on the way down, the decline in refined of 3-16 cents per pound and the break in raws abroad, having retarded the stock on week margins. In the international market, Louisiana and Nashville, St. Paul and the low priced southwestern issues suffered losses of anywhere from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent. The Grangers and Southwestern also lacked support and declined under pressure of both long and short stock. Near the close when sugar rallied the general list improved somewhat, but in the final transactions the list was weak again. Net changes show losses of 1/4@3/4 per cent. Sugar leading. The sales were $31,041,585.
