WILKES-BARRE.

Death of an Old Resident.

Daniel Kidney, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at his home on Oregon street Monday aged 78 years and 6 months, of general debility. He is survived by five sons and two daughters. Mr. Kidney was an expert gardener and followed that vocation for a half century in this city.

Not a Candidate.

W. I. Watkins, of Plymouth, has withdrawn from the contest for county treasurer. He says the candidacy of Morgan B. Williams for congress makes it imperative that all Welshmen work to better his interests and secure his nomination.

A New Pastor.

Rev. Paul Rowoldt, of Chicago, was elected pastor of the Reformed Christian church of this city recently. Rev. Rowoldt is spoken of as an exceptionally bright and energetic young man, and will succeed Rev. Conrad Kuehn next month.

Hurt at Plymouth.

MacKnight Taylor of Plymouth township, was seriously injured yesterday by a piece of timber falling on him at No. 4 colliery.

NOTES.

The jewelry store of M. C. Wells, at Towanda, was entered Saturday morning and $1,000 worth of jewelry taken.

Miss Grace N. Correll, a student in Emerson's School of Oratory, at Boston, will give a recital in the First Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening.

The dog catchers have a large yellow cor locked up which showed symptoms of madness, but has, since being locked up, seemed all right.

Miss Bulkeley, of Hartford, Conn., and Miss Ranlet, of Holyoke, Mass., are in town to attend the Miller-Reynolds wedding.

LERAYSVILLE.

Several of our bicyclists took part in the races at Nichols, N. Y., last Saturday and five of the six prizes offered.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Babcock died last Sunday morning. A funeral was held Tuesday.

Mrs. J. G. Keeler, of Walling, has been a guest of her son in town the past week.

Mrs. W. T. Morris spent last Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Wyalusing. Her niece, Miss Edith Smith, of that place, accompanied her home.

Miss Nellie Morris has gone to Scranton and Wilkes-Barre for an extended visit among her friends.

C. H. Hutchinson and wife were visiting in Sayre and Athens the first of the week.

Mrs. J. V. Keeler is spending a fortnight at her husband's former home in Wyalusing.

Miss Nellie Allen, who graduated at the State Normal school at Mansfield last Thursday, has returned home.

John McCauley and L. E. Allen were over from Towanda to spend Sunday at their respective homes.

Squire Coleman has sold another bicycle to Miss Anna Brink.

R. H. Carl, who is now a professional tuner of musical instruments, made a bicycle tour in Wyoming county, New Albany and Towanda last week.

Landlord Coolbaugh, G. J. Johnson, Mrs. H. F. Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carlin, of Laceyville, were visitors in town last week.

Charles Brink made a business trip to Scranton last week.

Thomas E. Myer, of Wyalusing, candidate for the legislature subject to Republican rules, was in town last week renewing acquaintances and gaining many new friends, who, we dare say, will stand by him to the last at the primaries. Mr. Myer is well and favorably known throughout the entire county, being a member of the bar and agent for the Provident Life and Trust company, of Philadelphia. He is also a man who, if elected, will do everything possible to work for the interests of his Bradford county agriculturists and taxpayers in general.

Rev. S. I. Davies exchanged pulpits with the Rev. D. Davis, of Rome, last Sunday.

The Epworth league will hold an ice cream and strawberry social on the parsonage lawn this week Friday evening.

Miss Mabel Shoemaker, of Waverly, N. Y., was visiting relatives and friends in these parts last week.

Fine strawberries were selling for 7 cents a quart here last week.

TUNKHANNOCK.

A Los Gatos, California, paper just at hand describes the promising eight-acre apricot ranch of Clarence Wilson, who went out there some time since to better his physical, and possibly his financial condition. "Todd" was a genial, whole-souled fellow who used to stick type on the Tunkhannock Republican and blow the big bass drum in the band. Later he went to Scranton and worked for a considerable time in one of the printing offices there. He has a whole lot of friends here who will wish his new venture all the success imaginable.

Work on the sewers was begun Friday, thirty-five Italians holding down the job. The formal commencement was made by Burgess Edgar Harding, who struck his first blow with a pick and threw out a few shovels full of earth. He will retain the tools as souvenirs of the day he worked.

Russell, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sanford, was badly injured by being run over by a heavily-loaded wagon a few days since. The wheel passed over his leg, nearly crushing the flesh from the bone. The injured member is swollen hard as an inflated tire, but the little chap bears the pain heroically.

T. G. Walter, the well known Montrose conductor, was badly injured by falling from a ladder while attempting to hit a bee on his farm east of town. A number of contusions and slight internal injuries resulted, but it is hoped that he will be about again soon. His escape from death was a narrow one.

The Mansfield base ball team, who came over here Saturday under the leadership of Prof. J. P. Bredinger, had the bad taste to do up the Tritons. It was a very ungracious act.

Col. N. A. McKown and party returned from Boston Saturday, full to overflowing with rhapsodies over their trip. The Medal of Honor Legion was received with a great deal of eclat, being received by the governor, and entertained at the expense of the city. Among the pleasant things provided was a trip down the bay and a visit to Bunker Hill.

POLITICAL CHAFF.

The Republican county convention will occur Monday, Aug. 31. The primaries will be held Saturday preceding.

Candidates for the various county offices still spring up, like Jonah's gourd—in a single night. The boom of many of them will likewise be found to have a worm at the root, and perish before the sun goes down.

The Northumberland township miss who is anxious to figure as a candidate for state legislature is not so much of a freak, after all. We have had a number of misrepresentatives at Harrisburg within a few years.

A local Democrat, who was boasting the other day that his party was the party of Thomas Jefferson forgot to include Boss Tweed and a number of other illustrious statesmen. It is well to think twice before boasting of your ancestry. Perhaps some of them were hung for horse stealing.

SUMMER GLIMPSSES.

The sun beats down with fierce hot glare

As it sweeps through the zenith gray;

A dusty path hangs over the weeds that skirt the lone highway.

The bobolink swings on the apple bough, As he gurgles his notes so gay.

And the insect orchestra down in the grass Is tuning for matinee.

The huckleberry and rattlesnake crops are reported good this season.

J. B. Atkinson, general manager for the Wilson Lumber company, of Lenoir, North Carolina, is visiting relatives in this and Susquehanna counties.

The said company is composed of Scranton business men, and does the largest southern lumber trade of any concern extant.

The Tunkhannock Methodist, edited by Norris S. Swisher, is three years old, and is about to be enlarged. It now enjoys the distinction of being the smallest paper in the United States.

Special trains will be run on the Montrose road Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week to accommodate those attending the hotel openings at Lake Carey, and again on Saturday evening on account of the Montrose-Tunkhannock base ball game.

The Tritons went to Nicholson Monday to play ball and returned with the Scranton banks. Evidently that fish was no Populist. And while cogitating the matter, the conviction forces itself upon us that the novitiate larva strands no show while the thirty-second degree man is in town.

The dairies roundabout Meshoppen are being probed for tuberculosis. The milk is mostly shipped to a Wilkes-Barre dairy company, who ordered the tests made.

Judge Dunham, of this district, is holding court at Wilkes-Barre this week. He is a popular judge, not only in the counties of his own district, but in the neighboring counties as well.

J. A. Murray, of the Wilkes-Barre Times' reportorial staff, was in town yesterday afternoon.

CARBONDALE.

[Readers will please note that advertisements, orders for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannan & Co., newsdealers, North Main street, will receive prompt attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

AMATEUR THESPIANS.

The Cast for the Opera "Priscilla" Is Completed.

Rehearsals are held each evening in the rooms of the Cycle club for the presentation of the opera "Priscilla" and it will be given to the public in the near future. The characters are entertaining and the music catchy and pleasing. Last night the cast of characters was completed and consists of the following:

Miles Standish, A. R. Jones; John Alden, F. P. Coates, Jr.; William Bradford, W. Leonard; Squanto, C. P. O'Connor; Hatched Higgins, E. Joseph Blev; Priscilla, Grace Yannan; Resignation, Howard Foster; Barbara, Jean Widman; Faith Eunice Bryson; Prudence, Nellie Gallagher.

STABBING AFFRAY.

An Old Man Seriously Injured by a Simpson Trough.

Garrett Dalton, an aged man who resides on upper Canaan street, was badly beaten Monday evening at Simpson. Full particulars of the affair are not known, but Dalton says he was assaulted by a young man named Lynam, who cut him several times with a knife.

Mr. Dalton's face was a pitiable sight when he came to this city. There was a long gash under one eye, his lip cut through and nose badly injured. Dr. J. S. Niles dressed the wounds.

Addition to Krantz's Brewery.

The addition to Krantz's Carbondale brewery is about finished. Contractor Kierstedt, of Scranton, has nearly completed the brick work, but there is still considerable to be done to the interior. A large force of men are at work and the work, which is being done under the personal supervision of Mr. Kierstedt, is very satisfactory to Mr. Krantz. When finished and with the machinery in place, Mr. Krantz will have one of the most complete breweries in the state.

Changes on South Church Street.

That there is a disposition on the part of the residents on South Church street toward improvement is evident from the petition presented to the councils and the movements of that body. The opening of the roadway to the width determined upon some time ago will give a fine entrance to St. Rosa's cemetery and at the same time make the road more useful for general purposes.

AVOCA.

The twelfth anniversary of the St. Aloysius school on Monday evening was one of the most gorgeous events of the season. O'Malley's Opera house and dining halls were transformed into a veritable fairyland by a profusion of potted palms, flowers and bunting. President E. J. Reilly welcomed the guests in a few well-chosen remarks and introduced Rev. J. J. McCabe, who spoke encouraging words to the members of the society and reminded them of their duty to the organization and wished them unbounded success in the temperance cause. His remarks were humorous and witty, and drew forth applause from the vast audience.

Three medals were awarded E. J. Reilly, Frank Beamish and Joseph Connor for their labors in inducing other young men to become members of the society. The presentation speech was made by William Dixon, to which the recipients gratefully responded. After the entertainment the dining halls were thrown open and a dainty menu was placed at the disposal of the guests.

Frank Beamish acted as toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by James Ward, James Lavin, T. A. Brehony and Cornelius Osborne. The merry dancers flitted to the strains of the music until the early morning hours, when they reluctantly departed to their homes, after attending one of the most joyous events in the history of the town. The several committees were faithful to the duties assigned them, and everything went on in union. The society was organized Oct. 25, 1883, with a membership of twenty-four, since which time the ranks have increased until they now number 275 total abstainers, worshipping at the shrine of St. Aloysius, the patron of purity and innocence.

The following comprised a merry party who visited the Langsille mine Monday evening: Misses May and Blanche Sanders, Mary and Euphenia Brown, Agnes Biggar, Jennie Newlin, Flora Davis, Agnes Gillespie and Messrs. Charles Bozley, of Chicago; Sam Carl, of Hackettstown; Horace Frederick, of White Haven, and John Davis, of this place, under whose direction the party traversed the dark recesses of the mine.

John Curran, of Pittston, was a caller in town yesterday.

The many friends of J. J. Morahan are jubilant over his nomination as representative of the Fifth Legislative convention. A band serenaded Mr. Morahan at his home on Monday evening and discussed several choice elections. We wish him success in his future efforts.

A large number of people accompanied the Methodist Episcopal excursion to Mountain Park yesterday.

The Music Populars will cross bats with the West Side team this afternoon on the latter's ground.

While Elizabeth Bostock was returning from the excursion to Mountain Park yesterday she had occasion to go out on the platform and while there stooped over and dropped her watch. She did not miss it until she had gone some distance from the place where she supposed it was lost. It is a silver watch and it is to be hoped the finder will return it to the owner.

PRICEBURG.

Sour Stomach

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came often and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine."
