The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. William Page this afternoon. William Painter and Thomas Jones, of Vandling, were pleasant callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gard last Sunday.

J. L. Lark is having a week's vacation with his grandparents at South Gibson. A. F. Kiser returned Tuesday evening from a visit with friends at Bradford county.

TIFFANY-SOLOMON.

Miss Beulah Tiffany, of Peckville, and Thomas Solomon, of Jermy, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tiffany, on Hickory street, Tuesday evening by the Rev. S. C. Simpkins. The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was lavishly and artistically decorated for the occasion. At 8.15 p. m. the wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. D. J. Robinson, of Carbondale, and took their position in the bay window where the ceremony was performed.

Two little girls, Miss Florence White and Miss Emma White, led the way each carrying a bouquet of flowers. The little ones were charmingly attired in white mulle. Following them came the bridesmaid and groomsmen, the bride's twin sister and the groom's brother. The bride and groom following. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white silk with chiffon ribbon trimmings and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was attired in blue silk trimmed in chiffon and carried a bunch of carnation pinks. The ushers were Messrs. Maple Bell, Edwin Betts, William Gunn, of Peckville and Charles Ditman, of Jermy.

After the wedding ceremony the young couple received the usual congratulations from a host of friends. An excellent wedding supper was served. The bride is a young lady that is well known and has a large list of acquaintances. The groom is a prosperous young business man of Jermy, and is well known in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon left on the midnight train for their wedding tour through New York. On their return they will be given a reception at the home of Mr. Solomon's parents at Jermy, where they will begin housekeeping.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bell, Mrs. John Kendall, Mrs. E. E. Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Miss Stella Wademan, Mrs. M. D. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Maple Bell, of this place; Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Messrs. John Williams, Thomas Roberts, Miss Polly Solomon, Miss May Roberts, Miss Lillie Pizer and Mr. and Mrs. John Solomon, of Jermy; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sly, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moon, Jr., Mr. Edward Moon and Miss Edith Moon, of Carbondale; F. MONTROSE.

W. H. Coleman, of Scranton, was a visitor in town yesterday. A. B. Burrows, of Syracuse, is in town. Dr. W. R. Blakeslee, of Forest City, is registered at the Montrose house. Sergeant John Quinn, of Forest Lake, was in town yesterday. Mr. Quinn in a talk with your correspondent, stated that he had acted as color bearer for the Grand Army of the Republic for over 29 years, and had not during that time missed one Decoration day acting in his capacity. Mr. Quinn is a native of Dublin, Ireland, but came to this country at an early age. He was one of the first to respond when his adopted country called and served during the late rebellion with many honors. F. J. Johnston, of Hallstead, is registered at the Tarbell house. Hon. C. O'Malley, of Scranton, was in town yesterday. Constable Judson North, who recently injured his hand, is rapidly regaining its use. Chief of Police George White, who apprehended two men running from the alley in the rear of McCausland's drug store about 5 o'clock last Sunday morning, thinks that they are two local characters who are bent on becoming expert burglars. These two he claims are the same men who entered the home of Joshua Pettis recently and he is now using extra precaution for some tangible evidence to convict them. In case he is able to gather enough evidence to weave about them, they will at once be arrested and it is safe to say in anticipation that when once they are caught in the meshes of the law it will go hard with them. Attorney J. M. Kelley has returned from Friendsville where he has been engaged in legal business.

CARBONDALE.

WEDDED AT ST. ROSE.

Miss Kate Devaney and Thomas Duffy United. At St. Rose church yesterday afternoon at half past five, Rev. T. F. Coffey, made Miss Kate A. Devaney, of this city, and Thomas A. Duffy, of Archbald, man and wife.

Both young people have a large circle of acquaintance, both in this city and in Archbald, who wish them a long and happy wedded life. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Devaney, of Brooklyn street. Mr. Duffy resides in Archbald where he is a permanent young man. The bride was attired in a dress of cream henrietta, trimmed with lace and satin ribbons. In her hand was a beautiful bunch of roses. Miss Mary A. Burke, of Brooklyn street, the bridesmaid, was attired in a dress of pink silk material, trimmed with lace. John Farrell, of Archbald, acted as best man. The young couple left on the 10.50 train last evening for New York city and other places. They expect to be gone a week, and will then commence housekeeping in Archbald.

LARGE TRADES DISPLAY.

Other Features of the Grand Fourth of July Celebration. Fourth of July is rapidly approaching and preparations for the biggest celebration Carbondale has ever had are nearing completion. The committee who have been out to see what firms will make a display in the trades display report that all the merchants are taking a great interest, and that over thirty had already announced their intention of being represented. All the societies have been invited to join the parade and many have responded to it. About twenty-five societies from this city and nearby places have sent in their names. Many more have promised to come, but have made no definite step.

The fantastic parade will form on Cemetery street, the right turning on Robinson avenue. It will start promptly at 2 o'clock. The prizes offered will undoubtedly bring out many new and original "get ups." Immediately following the parade will occur a number of events prepared by the committee. These will consist of a series of races of different kinds, including a bicycle race, with prizes of $3 and $2; wheelbarrow race and foot races.

HIS FINGERS CRUSHED.

William Collins Meets with a Painful Accident. A painful accident occurred yesterday morning to William Collins, of Williams avenue, which, although serious, will prevent his doing his usual work for some time. Mr. Collins is working a stone quarry just above the Falls and seems constantly to be pursued by bad luck. Since opening the quarry he has lost more time and money than during all the rest of his life. Soon after beginning work at the place he broke his leg there and numerous other misfortunes overtook him. Yesterday, after a blast, he was endeavoring to secure a crowbar from a pile of debris, and in doing so a large fragment of rock fell on his right hand, crushing his fingers badly.

THE FIGHT A DRAW.

William Peck Falls to Knock Out John Flannery in Four Rounds. A severe mill took place at Wilson Creek Tuesday evening between William Peck and John Flannery. Both men were in good condition and fought fiercely. The fight was to be for four rounds. In the first round Peck and Flannery landed on Peck's windpipe and flogged him. He managed to climb to his feet and was all right in the next round. At the end of the seventh both men were badly punished and completely exhausted, so the fight was called, the decision being that it was a draw.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Stanley Maxwell and James Gallagher have returned home from a New York trip. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Johns, of Forest City, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Alexander. Y., where they will witness the marriage of Mr. Fox's sister. Miss Margaret Moran, of Providence, is the guest of Miss Mame Cannon on Pike street. John Kennedy has gone to New York city on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kilpatrick and family of Durie avenue, left yesterday for Bathbridge, N. Y., where the former's brother, Rev. Edgar Kilpatrick, resides. Mr. Kilpatrick expects to make a carriage tour before he returns. William Ogilby has gone to New York to meet his wife who will arrive from England. Rev. W. A. Nealon is at Pleasant Morn assisting in the forty hour devotion. FOREST CITY. On next Friday services will be held in the Presbyterian church of this place all day. In the morning services commencing at 10.30 and continuing through part of the afternoon, the church will be dedicated. Rev. Charles Lee, of Carbondale, will preach the dedication sermon, and a meeting will be made by Revs. Albert J. Wesley, of Avoca; J. D. Sutherland, of Susquehanna; F. Von Krug, of Kingston, and others. At 3.30 p. m. the presbytery of Lackawanna will hold a pro-tem meeting, and in the evening will occur installation services. Rev. Thomas A. Mills, Ph. D., of Wilkes-Barre, will preach the installation sermon, and Revs. L. W. Church, of Hallstead, and P. H. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, will give the charges to the pastor and people respectively. Everyone is invited to attend. Abundant entertainment, including dinner and supper for all who may come. W. J. Gilchrist, of Lake Como, Wayne county, visited friends and relatives in Forest City yesterday. John R. Hawkins, of Binghamton, N. Y., was in town on business Monday and Tuesday. Charles Burdick, of Honesdale, visited his parents here yesterday. Mrs. Brown, of Mount Pleasant, Wayne county, who has been spending the past week with borough relatives, returned home today. E. J. Monroe and Fred Cray are improving their Main street properties by putting on additions and making other repairs. Michael Barrett, of Jessup, arrested for drunkenness, broke the lock on his cell and escaped Monday forenoon. This has occurred a score of times within the past year, and it is high time the authorities put substantial locks on the cell doors. The Presbyterian church of this place will be dedicated tomorrow. Services will be held all day. Installation services will take place in the evening. Dinner will be served in the evening by the ladies in the basement of the church. At the last meeting of the borough council Chief of Police Bates lodged information against Jacob Krechek, our Polish special officer, charging him with having liberated one of his countrymen from the jail whom he (Bates) had locked up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. At committee from the council gave Krechek a hearing and took the evidence of several witnesses Tuesday evening. The case will be disposed of at the next regular meeting of that body. ARCHBALD. At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Annie Collins, of Pine street, was married to Thomas May, of Hill street. The ceremony was performed at St. Thomas' church by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Comerford. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary McHale, of Providence, and the groom by John J. Mahady, of the East Side. The bride looked charming in a dress of pink brocade silk, with pearl trimmings. Her hat was a combination of white with pink, and she carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid also wore pink silk, with hat to match, and had a bouquet of carnations. The ceremony over, the bridal party enjoyed a short drive and on their return a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, Michael Collins, of Pine street. There was a large attendance of guests and the bride received many beautiful and valuable presents from admiring friends. The couple will immediately begin housekeeping in a furnished home on Orchard street. At 3 o'clock yesterday the marriage of Miss Bridget Moyle, of Rock Terrace, and Michael F. Brennan, of the East Side, took place in St. Thomas' church. Rev. T. J. Comerford officiated. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Katie Corcoran, of Dunmore, and the groom by her brother, Michael Moyle. The bride was attractively dressed in steel colored silk, with pearl trimmings. Her hat was of the same color and she carried rose flowers. After a drive to Scranton a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, John Moyle, of Rock Terrace, where a number of invited friends assembled to congratulate the wedded couple. Both of the wedded couples are well known and are held in the highest esteem. If the wishes of their friends prevail their wedded life will be successful and happy. John Durkin, Jr., of Hill street, went to St. Louis, Mo., yesterday to spend a few weeks with relatives. A special meeting of the school board was held on Monday evening for the purpose of transacting necessary business. The matter of appointing janitresses for the various buildings was considered, and it was decided to re-employ the force of last year, with one exception—Mrs. Nicholas Bigg was given the care of the new building committee was received. In view of the increased work of the secretary because of the Farr compulsory law, it was decided to increase his salary to $150. NICHOLSON. The young ladies of the Young Peoples' Christian Union repeated the drama entitled, "No Cure, No Pay," Monday evening on request. It was
