HARD LUCK.

The Barons Hit and Field Better Than Toronto, but Couldn't Bat in the Needed Runs.

The crowds are falling off daily and today the players put up a listless game before a handful of spectators. The few, however, enjoyed the clos contest, although Stearns made it slow as usual.

In the ninth Scranton made five cleasingles and a safe bunt, but only go three runs. With the bases full War fouled out. Padden's two home run were straight drives to right and le center. Dowse was taken out in th second for poor work. Moran was s wild that Staley replaced him in th third. Attendance 200. Score:

ONLY TWO HITS.

That's All Buffalo Could Make Off Young Yerrick.

Buffalo, June 25 .- Yerrick, Wilkes-Barre's pitcher, is entitled to the palm for winning today's game. His work was the finest of the season, breaking all records. In the nine innings the Bisons secured but two scattered hits and had it not been for the very bad errors of Earl and McMahon the home team would have been shut out. Gray started to pitch for Buffalo and was batted all over the lot. Wadsworth relived him in the third and pitched good ball, but the Bisons could not hit. Betts made a grand one-hand catch of Field's long fly. Clymer also caught one near the ground, turning a somersault in doing so. Score: BUFFALO.

Syracuse, N. ### NATIONAL LEAGUE.

While the Baltimores are being prevented from playing the games with Philadelphia, the Clevelands are winning and creeping toward the front. The latter will go to first place today if they win and Baltimore loses, or if they do not play and Baltimore drops a game. The Colts, who have jumped around oftener than any club in the league, won yesterday and go up ahead of the Pirates and the Trolley Dodgers. Brooklyn tied Boston in the ninth inning on errors of Harrington and Stivetts and hits of Burrill and Jones. With men on second and third and one out Corcoran and La Chance failed to aid the scoring. Boston won out in this up to expectations. He was the best twirl-inning on hits of Lowe, Hamilton and er in the Western last year and should Bannon. Except Harrington, the work of the infielders of both sides was superb. Cleveland outplayed Louisville at every point. Burkett picked up Weldman and shook him like a rat because he called him out at third. The Colts batted "Brownie" Foreman's Pittsburg curves as they pleased and some day make a home run. There was won in the same manner. Dwyer much meriment, and one man offered to pitched splendidly for Cincinnati, and Toronto, Ont., June 25 .- The Torontos at no time were the Browns in the won today by the smallest possible mar- game. Donohue was not hit hard, but his support was wretched.

Will White, the famous eye-glassed pitcher, who was never known to hit ball, was at bat one day, and a man in the press room remarked that White would much meriment, and one man offered to bet his $300 gold watch against a cent that White would make no homer on this par-ticular occasion. "Good bet, even if I lose," said the other, and watch and cent were duly staked. Hardly was the wager deposited when White hit that ball one terrific paste and started around the bases, The ball went on and on; so did White, and the man of the gold watch turned deadly pale. Rounding third base, White stum-bled and fell, floundered around, regained his feet, went ahead and was caught by a tiny margin at the plate. He who h put up his watch seized his timepiece, letting the cent drop in his excitement, and exclaimed: "Gentlemen, if I get out of this ground alive I shall never see another
