AMATEUR PRODUCTIONS.

The rehearsals for "The Comedy of Toys" and "Priscilla." The rehearsals for the two amateur productions, "The Comedy of Toys" and "Priscilla," are progressing rapidly.

The first act is laid in a toy shop and the toys are engaged in conversation. They are brought to life by a fairy's magic salts and conduct themselves thereafter as ordinary human beings.

The play will be given in the opera house on July 14 and 15. The cast are all young people, who show great quickness in the portraying of their parts and the success of the production is assured.

"Priscilla" will be produced by home talent under the auspices of the Cycle club on July 1 and 2. The music is very catchy and pretty and the evening and wonderful progress is being made. The chorus and cast have their parts all committed and only need the polishing and action to make the play ready for the stage.
