A Letter to Aunt Rachael.

Castro, Ill., August 29. To Aunt Rachael Speer at Passaic, N. J. Dear Madam:—We have used your Malarial Bitters for several months past and find it the very best tonic we have ever used to effectively wipe out all traces of malarial fever.

My wife has been sickly, feverish, weak and languid for the past four seasons, and tried almost everything. We heard so much of your bitters that I concluded to try it; my wife's appetite has returned and she is strong, well and sprightly again and all owing to your Peruvian Malarial Bitters. G. H. WOODWARD.

MONTROSE.

Samuel M. Dessauer, son of our merchant, M. S. Dessauer, who has been at South Bethlehem attending Lehigh university, has returned home after attending commencement exercises. Wesley Mungler, who was in New Haven preparing for a course at Sheffield, is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Mungler, of Lake avenue.

Editor Resigues, of Susquehanna, was a visitor at our lively county seat this week. He claims that McKinley will win. The common council have at last come out for sewers. At their last meeting they voted to accept the plans for sewers as made by Surveyor Gilbert. The plans presented to the honorable body provide that the sewer shall end in the valley about one mile to the south of Montrose and run through private property until it reaches the land owned by the estate of the late Addison Gardner; there it is to branch out, in one instance running westerly through South Main street and in the rear of the stores on the westerly side of Public avenue; in the other to run through the alley in the rear of Dessauer's store to Guy's hotel and from there to Maple street. Streets here are well adapted by reason of their grade for sewers, and in years to come it will be a source of regret that they have been located on private property.
