THE CYCLE CARNIVAL.

It Will Be Held on July 4th at the Scranton Driving Park.

The 4th of July, Saturday afternoon and evening, at the Scranton Driving park, a decidedly novel and unique exhibition will be offered the Scranton amusement-loving public by the all-Chicago lady bicycle riders, consisting of John Albert, 26-mile rider; Herbert & Lane, 20-mile riders; Albert Waltz, unicycle expert and Max Hahler, a noted speed rider of New York City.

Among the many engagements made this week are William H. Barber, the world's greatest trick bicycle rider; William H. Chadsey, champion mile rider; John Albert, 26-mile rider; Herbert & Lane, 20-mile riders; Albert Waltz, unicycle expert and Max Hahler, a noted speed rider of New York City.

Among the champion lady riders may be mentioned Miss Ruth Dennis, a very handsome lady and one of the speediest riders; Miss Nellie Lyall, another speedy rider; Miss Annie Witten, who has the reputation of being one of the fastest lady riders before the public; Mamie Dallas; and a score of others.

It is the management's desire to express to the public in suggestive and not one objectionable feature. The ladies of the company are professional bicycle experts, champions of their class, who have followed this line of work for years. Their costumes are neat and tasteful. In a word the attraction is one that should appeal to all lady bicycle enthusiasts as well as gentlemen, and is of a character to merit their attendance.

There will be several local amateur contests for local prizes. One mile boys' race, for 16 years of age; also a one mile race open to all local lady riders of Scranton, and a two mile race to amateur gentlemen riders of Scranton and vicinity. Valuable prizes will be given to the winners of these races. Same will be on exhibition during the week. Competent attendants will be at the park to check wheels and to render what assistance they may desire. Admission is only 25 cents.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

George J. Winans Has Sued L. M. Bunnell for $1,000.

A suit for $1,000, with interest from Jan. 20, 1894, was commenced Saturday in court by George J. Winans against L. M. Bunnell. It is alleged that they entered into an agreement on the above named party the defendant was to sell to the plaintiff a one-half undivided interest in sixty acres of land situated in Woodsville, New Hampshire. The plaintiff paid down $1,050 with the understanding that when the sale was consummated the amount should apply as partly payment. He now claims that he got neither an interest in the land nor his money back and for that reason brings suit.

MEROLO'S LIFE IS ALMOST ENDED

He Will Be Hanged Wednesday for Murdering Lora.

HE IS INDIFFERENT ABOUT IT

Death Watch Has Been Set—Scaffold Will Be Erected in the Jail Yard Tomorrow—Witnesses of the Hanging Will Be Few—Passes Are Not Being Issued.

The life of Murderer Crescenzo Merolo is drawing to an end, and the crime of slaying Barber Emanuel Lora, of Old Forge, on Sunday, June 17, 1894, will soon be expiated on the gallows.

The condemned man will be hanged in the jail yard Wednesday morning between 10 o'clock and noon, and he will possess the undesirable distinction of being the first to be hanged in Lackawanna county. Sheriff Clemons placed the death watch on him Friday afternoon. The watchers are Robert Haug, ex-Patrolman John McHale and ex-Chief H. P. Ferber. Mr. Haug went on duty at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and remained at the cell door until midnight, when he was relieved by Mr. McHale, who remained on until 8 o'clock Saturday morning and then Mr. Ferber took the position.

HE IS COOL.

Merolo comports himself very indifferently for one about to be ushered to the great unknown. He is just as matter-of-factly as during the trial, but the saffron shade of his skin has given way to a clear alabaster color, and he presents a handsome appearance. Last Thursday District Attorney John R. Jones and a photographer went to the jail to have a likeness of Merolo taken but they came away without it. He refused to be photographed, and he afterward informed Warden Price that he wanted to have on different clothes when he would consent to have his picture taken. The day the district attorney called at the jail Merolo had on the stripes.

WELSH BROS.' CIRCUS.

It will open this afternoon at 8 o'clock, at which time the afternoon performances will begin each day. The evening performance will begin at 8 o'clock.

Special features of the exhibition are given by trick dogs and mules. The circus came here from Wilkes-Barre highly recommended as an entertainer, to which women and children are especially invited. The admission is 10 cents.

PATRICK REGAN DEAD.

Deceased Was Well Known on the South Side.

Patrick Regan, a man who was well-known and widely respected, died at the home of his son, Peter J. Regan, of 533 Lee court, at 8 o'clock Saturday night. He had been in ill health since March 18. The deceased was born in Ireland in 1830 and came to this city in 1850, having resided here until his death. He formerly lived on the South Side.

Three sons, John F. Regan, of Pittston; Peter J. Regan, of the South Side, and Martin, of the South Side, survive him. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at the Cathedral and interment will be made in Hyde Park cemetery.

NEW YORKERS COMING HERE.

On the Fourth of July a party of about twenty New York Scotchmen have decided to visit our city, with the main point in view being attendance at the Caledonian games at Laurel Hill Park. There will also be quite a few from Philadelphia, Wilkes-Barre, Pittston and several points in Canada. This goes to prove that the Scranton club has gained a reputation abroad which ranks second to none, as they have also done in this city for the reliability of their games. Some fine attractions have been secured for this year and the games bid fair to excel any ever held. For further particulars see advertisement elsewhere in the issue.

OUR MINERAL PRODUCTS.

An Increase That Is Considered a Long Step Towards Recovery.

Washington, June 28.—According to official statistics just issued by the director of the geological survey, the total value of mineral products of the United States for 1895 increased over $80,000,000 beyond the same for 1894, or from $527,483,854 to $617,795,259. The increase is considered a long step towards recovery from the depression to which the mineral industry like all others has been subjected.

While the coal product is great, it is much steeper in spite of the extra demand for it in order to produce any extra supply of iron. The increased output of iron in 1895 was necessary because of the great retrenchment in 1894. The railroads ordered as little iron as possible in that year, but ordered freely in 1895 to take advantage of prices while they were still low, but advancing.

Another noticeable feature was the profitable producing petroleum districts in the Appalachian range. Natural gas showed a decline, the pressure decreasing in all the fields, thereby shortening the life of each well and greatly reducing the product, especially in Pennsylvania.

Almost all the remaining minerals show substantial improvement.

MURDERER TONI GETS HIS SENTENCE

He Thanked the Judge for Showing Him Leniency.

TWELVE YEARS AT HARD LABOR

For Shooting John J. Rafter, of Green Ridge, in Old Forge Last February. Sentence Pronounced by Judge Gunster and Might Have Been for Twenty Years.

Twelve years at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary, is the punishment which Samuel Toni, of Old Forge, will have to suffer for the murder of John J. Rafter, of Green Ridge, on the night of February 4.

Toni was called up for sentence before Judge Gunster Saturday morning and when asked if he had anything to say why the sentence of court should not be pronounced upon him, his attorney, Joseph W. Brown, moved that time be given in which to file reasons for a new trial. Judge Gunster responded that the case was tried fairly for the defendant and under the evidence the verdict was a good one, but a rehearing was not warranted unless something outside of the case could be shown.

AGAINST CARRYING WEAPONS.

Turning to Toni, Judge Gunster said that the defendant's presence in the courtroom taking a human life, was due to the fact that he was armed with a deadly weapon. If he didn't have the revolver with him that night, he would not have committed the murder. Those who carry deadly weapons were condemned by the court. As sentence was pronounced upon him, Toni bowed his head and when the judge finished, he expressed thanks for the leniency shown. The maximum penalty for second degree murder is twenty years in the penitentiary.

AN ALDERMAN SENT TO JAIL.

Alderman John T. Atkinson was called in surrety court to answer the charge of deserting his wife. He was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, pay $15 a month toward the support of his wife, and file a bond in the sum of $200 as a guarantee that he will comply with the obligation. He was unable to pay the costs or give the required bond and was sent to the county jail.

ALBERT VAUGHN, OF THE NORTH END, who deserted his wife, was ordered to pay the costs of prosecution and $22 a month toward the support of his family. He was obliged to furnish a bond in the sum of $200 that he will comply with the provisions of the sentence.

George Josie, the Dunmore Italian, who was found guilty of assault and battery upon Matt Banks, was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and spend three months in jail.

David Howells, who was convicted of keeping an unlicensed saloon, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and spend three months in the county jail.

John Drusdaek, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, was fined $15 and sentenced to six months in jail. Drusdaek was convicted at the April sessions of criminal court for making a murderous assault upon a Polish man named Michael Ruddy last election day about 6 o'clock in the evening while Ruddy was crossing the fields with a pair of beer.

John Roch, who pleaded guilty to the charge of robbing Edward Ryan, was sentenced to restore the property stolen and serve nine months in jail.

James Sullivan, who pleaded guilty to larceny and receiving, was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and spend four months in the county jail.

Clarence S. Morgan, convicted of assault and battery on Assistant Postmaster Duffy, of Carbondale, was fined $25 and sentenced to the costs. Mrs.
