BANQUET AND PICNIC.

Having arrived at the park a banquet was served in the hall and City Treasurer Boland was introduced to deliver the address of welcome on the part of Mayor Bailey, who was forced to leave on account of business. He was followed by Mr. Spaunhorst, who delivered a ringing address. Rev. Father Christ and Rev. Father Nagle also spoke. Each of them congratulated the members of St. Peter's upon the anniversary which was being celebrated and arged them to pursue the same forward and steadfast course in the future which has characterized the career of the soclety with such success in the past.

The remainder of the afternoon and the evening was spent in enjoying the plenic, which was supplied with every thing in the way of music and refreshments calculated to delight. JUDGE-THOMAS CASE.

Patrolman and His Witnesses Were Before Mayor Bailey.

Patrolman John D. Thomas and his witnesses were up before Mayor Bailey yesterday afternoon to give their side of the story in the dispute between the officer of the law and Merchant Martin C. Judge, of Taylor, on the occasion of the latter's refusal a week ago last Sunday night to pay his fare on a Taylor car or get off.

The trouble arose from a transfer, which Mr. Judge in coming from some other part of the city had received to entitle him to ride on the Taylor or any other West Side car. He got on the first Taylor car that came along and handed the ticket to the conductor for fare. It had been punched more than 30 minutes before and the conductor would not take it.

was arrested several times before. He begs money with which he gets drunk In Mr. Judge's side of the case before the mayor it was alleged that Patroland then he wants to fight. He is a man Thomas used more force than was necessary and exceeded his authority in his response to the conductor to put

Mr. Judge off. The stories told by the conductor and motorman of the car and two or too, was riotous about the streets. He three passengers certified that Patrolman Thomas was not guilty of any and his residence as Carbondale. The thing calling for blame on that night in dealing with Mr. Judge. Mayor Bailistened to their stories told in an informal manner, and he has reserved his decision for a few days.

IT'S A ONE RING CIRCUS.

But the Performance Is Instructive and Entertaining. Witch Ptros,' circus opened a week's engagement in their tent at Adams avenue and Mulberry street yesterday afternoon before a good sized audience. In the evening the tent was crowded. It is probable that there are few better 10-cent circuses now exhibiting befor the public than that of the Welshs. It has only one ring, but that is a recommendation in its favor rather than otherwise, for the public, tired of the three and four rings, with their separate and confusing entertainments, hall with delight a good performance in a single ring.

Dan Rice's dogs and ponies are a very entertaining feature of the performance given yesterday, and the Delzabos do a wonderful act on the double trapeze. Then there are innumerable other clever acts which go to make up a most enjoyable two and one-half hour entertainment. The performance will be repeated every afternoon and evening during

DUNN RESOLUTION SIGNED.

Mayor Has Attached His Name and . Scal of the City to It.

Mayor Balley's signature and the official seal of the city were yesterday attached to the resolution awarding to Dunn Bros. the contract for paving Monroe avenue with sheet asphalt. This is the contract which caused so much competition between Dunn Bros. and the Barber Asphalt company, and resulted in the latter's bringing the case to court in the form of a bill in equity praying for an injunction to restrain the clerk of the common council from certifying to the clerk of select council the resolution as it passed the lower branch. The details of that matter are still fresh in the public mind.

A temporary injunction was granted by the court, and the defendant filed a demurrer to the equity suit, claiming that the plaintiff had no standing as the contract had not then been concurred in by select council nor had not received the mayor's approval. Judge Edwards decided to hear arguments on the demurrer at the term of argument court which is in session this week. He dissolved the temporary injunction a few weeks ago and as soon as the upper branch of councils was free to act the paving resolution was taken up and after a short delay was concurred in. The mayor's signature was attached yesterday, and while the resolution is a law it is not operative yet because there is pending in court the question of the legality of the action of common council in the manner in which the centract was awarded to Dunn Bros, after having been awarded to the Barber Asphalt company and then reconsidered. The argument on the demurrer will take place some time this week, but it is hard to say how soon after that the court will decide.

EXECUTION NOT POSTPONED.

to the Law Tomorrow. telegram from Harrisburg yesterday forenoon conveyed the information that Crescenzo Merolo, for whose execution preparations had been completed, had been respited until Oct. 8. Subsequently, Sheriff Clemons received a telegram from Governor Hastings, dated Rellefonte, and authorizing him to proceed with the execution of Merelo tomorrow, as originally planned. The earlier announcement resulted from a misapprehension on the part of some subordinate at Harrisburg. Merolo consequently will be hanged tomorrow at the county jail, somewhere between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m.

In this connection it is no more than fair to say that the reports which have used William Connell's name in con-nection with Merolo's case have no justification in fact. Mr. Connell informed a Tribune reporter last evening that he had at no time taken any steps trying either to delay or to hasten this prisonor's fate. He is at a loss to account for the prevalence of rumors to the con-

A Good Reputation.

After the parade is over, where will we go? This is a question that will be asked very often on the Fourth. It is very easily answered, however. Just jump on a Laurel Hill car and go to the Caledonian games at Laurel Hill Park. This popular society has prepared a most elaborate programme for both afternoon and evening. But why say more? The reputation of the Caledonians and their annual games are too well known to need any laudation at our hands, and it is safe to predict that all roads will lead to Laurel Hill Park on Saturday next.

Jennings Wants to Have His Case Tried in Another County.

ATTORNEY MAHON SPOKE FOR HIM

Judges Will Announce Their Decision in the Matter Later --Other Cases in Which Arguments Were Presented--Several Were urday that the suit was ready. An Marked Settled and Arc Stricken agreement was made, it is alleged, that from the List -- Rules Discharged.

The June term of argument court opened yesterday morning and among the cases heard by the judges during the day was that of John J. Jennings against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, rule for a change of venue. The action between the parties was one in trespass, Jennings suing to recover damages from the railroad company for the loss of his son's services in consequence of injuries the boy received in the railroad accident at Mud Run Oct. 10, 1888. Mr. Jennings and his attorney, Cornellus Smith, were of the opinion that a fair trial could not be had in this county and a change of venue was applied for.

When the matter came up yesterday Major Everett Warren opposed the change of venue and Attorney James Mahon presented the argument in behalf of the change, Mr. Smith having been disbarred since the rule was granted. The judges will announce their decision later. Other cases argued were: Edwards and Barthold against M. Pritchard, rule for new trial; William McDonough against John Cadden and Barbara Barrett, rule to strike off mechanics' lien; James M. Everhart against George F. Neshlit and G. M. Lewis, rule for a new trial; J. E. Cleveland against John T. Jones, rule to open judgment; Ann O'Grady against the Crescenzo Merolo Will Pay His Debt | Prudential Insurance company, rule for new trial.
