Connell will be mentioned in the Republican congressional convention. "Mr. Connell is 69 years of age. He s in perfect health and as active and vigorous as most men of 40. He has never been an office-seeker. Years ago he took an active interest in educational subjects and served two terms as a member of the board of school control. Except for this and a number of honorary places, held by appointment, he has remained in private life. But he has always taken an active interest in politics, never allowing an opportunity to pass to aid a friend."
