FELL INTO THE CELLAR.

Rather Unusual Proceedings of a Sand Street House.

A ripple of excitement was caused on Sand street Monday evening, the cause being the rather unusual proceeding of a house which partly tipped over into the cellar.

The house is the property of Moses Cohen, who resides in the second story, the first floor being used as a store.

Mr. Cohen has recently commenced to make improvements about his place, among other things enlarging the cellar. The house was propped up while the work was going on and looked perfectly stable. Several things, however, in that section took a sudden drop about this time, and the house plunged over into the cellar.

The occupants of the house and several visitors were in the second story and they also took a drop only to land against the sides of the room. The air was filled with screams for a while. When it was found that no one was seriously hurt the screams gradually subsided and work was commenced to put the building in position. Things inside the house were badly broken and a small fire was started, but was quickly extinguished.

Men who were at work in the cellar had a narrow escape as the house fell and were badly scared. Painters at work on the next house also came in for their share of fright and jumped from their scaffold. One of the men was slightly injured.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Everything Completed for the Biggest Celebration Ever Held Here.

The final arrangements have been made for the mammoth celebration in this city on the Fourth, and people are now praying that the weather will be clear that the day's pleasures may not be marred.

The line of march for the fantastic parade is as follows: Form on Cemetery street, right resting on Robinson avenue, at 1.30 sharp; move promptly at 1.50. From Church to Eighth, to Main, up Main to Lincoln avenue by Mitchell house, to Salem, up Salem to Washington, to Lincoln, down Lincoln to Dundaff, countermarch to starting place and disband. Costumes can be secured by those desiring them from Abe Sahm. Ten dollars will be given for the most comical get up and $5 for the most original.

Immediately after the parade there will be a series of races which will come off on Main street. They will consist of bicycle, foot and other races, for which handsome cash prizes will be offered.

Firms who have not decided to take part in the parade in the best of the day. Many of the ideas which will be brought out are striking and original.

J. E. MORGAN'S PURCHASE.

Acquires Valuable Property on Washington Street.

J. E. Morgan, one of this city's most progressive young business men, has completed a deal which makes him the possessor of one of the most desirable residences in this city.

The property is situated upon Washington street, between Salem and Seventh avenues. The lot is thirty-five by seventy-five feet. The house is very handsome and has recently been moved from the corner of 7th and Avenue C to Washington street, since being removed it has been fixed up until now it is one of the prettiest on the street. The purchase was made from Daniel

Nervous

People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this:

"I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken

Cured

Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and they have done me much good. I will not be without them. I have taken 13 bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and through the blessing of God, it has cured me. I worked as hard as ever the past summer, and I am thankful to say I am well. Hood's Pills when taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla help very much." Mrs. M. M. MISSENON, Freehold, Penn.

Trains Collide.

Several cars were badly smashed yesterday in the Ontario and Western yard, but fortunately no one was injured in the wreck. The smash-up was caused by losing control of the cars while making up a train. The crash as they struck was terrific, and in a second there was enough kindling wood to go through a severe winter comfortably. The wreck caused the tracks to be blocked, but there was no other damage done.

"Priscilla" Tonight.

The full rehearsal of the cast and chorus of "Priscilla," which will be produced this evening at the opera house, shows that there has been much faithful work done and also that a decided hit will be made. The parts are all well taken and each of the cast show a wonderful talent in the portrayal of their lines. If you have not yet purchased a ticket, do so at once and be with the crowd tonight.

Base Ball This Afternoon.

Those who like a good game of ball should not fail to see the game between the Alumni team and a club composed of college boys who are home on their vacation. The college boys are a little out of practice, but they expect to put up a stiff game, and judging from some of the players, they will.

KILLED BY REMORSE AND FEAR.

Indiana Man Finds Relief from His Suffering in Death.

Kokomo, Ind., June 20.—George Lucas of Walton, near here, is dead of remorse and fear. His life has been a sad one and death was no doubt welcomed as a relief. In 1884 Mr. Lucas, who was an ardent and uncompromising unionist killed two soldier boys that were home on a furlough, they being Byron and George Knight, sons of a near neighbor. Some one as a joke told Lucas that the Knights boys had deserted and were plotting against the government. Lucas tried to compel the Knights to return to the service, and in the fight they followed he shot both of them fatally.

When matters were explained Lucas went raving mad, and from that hour was a mental wreck, and for thirty years has been a great care to his family. To the hour of his death he was tortured by fear that the dead men's friends were seeking his life.

The priest was acquitted on his trial several days ago but Misner was convicted while Annie Macko plead guilty.

IOWANS ARE MISSING.

Man and Woman Mysteriously Disappear from a Nebraska Hotel.

Ashland, Neb., June 30.—The authorities at Ashland are somewhat concerned over the mysterious disappearance from the Commercial house of a man and

Woman, who registered under date of June 29 as C. A. Davis and wife, of Le Mars, Ia. The couple arrived Saturday evening, were assigned to a room, and immediately retired. In the morning, after coming downstairs for breakfast, they returned to their room, since which time they have not been seen. Two aliases and a few small articles of jewelry to the value of $25 or $30 were found in their room, and as their charge for board at the time of their disappearance amounted to only $1, the landlord scouts the idea that they were attempting to jump their bill. The people are not now in Le Mars, and if they ever re-appeared there the supposition is that the name of Davis was assumed.
