WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Members of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating Society Entertained at Blume Residence.

A jovial time was furnished last evening to the members of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society by Member John Blume at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blume, of North Main avenue. The handsomplot of ground surrounding the residence was most brilliantly illuminated. Several hundred Chinese lanterns lighted up the scene of festivities.

The gentlemen sat on the lawn during the early part of the evening and discussed light and airy subjects. At 11 o'clock the members were escorted into the luxuriously furnished residence by Mr. Blume, sr. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Blume, assisted by Miss Blume. Those who enjoyed the
