CARBONDALE.

CHILD'S LIFE SAVED.
Motorman Samuel Matthews' Presence Saved a Child.

One of the motormen on the Traction road showed rare presence of mind and quick action yesterday whereby the life of a little child who was standing in front of a rapidly approaching car, was saved.

BUGGY AGAIN STOLEN.

Micky Moran's Sleuths Are Caught Napping in the Woods.

After a long and tedious search Constable Michael Moran has succeeded in locating the buggy which was stolen from the barn on Dudley Gordon, of Pike street, some time ago.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Leaders Selected by the Carbonate Lodge, Knights of Pythias.
The Carbonate lodge, No. 230, Knights of Pythias, elected the following officers at their regular meeting:

College Boys Whipped.

The game of ball yesterday at Alumni park was altogether too much one-sided to make it interesting.

Mr. Whiting Resigns.

C. W. Whiting, who has been superintendent at Van Buren & Co.'s works for the last year, has severed his connections with the firm.

Attempt at Robbery.

An attempt was made Tuesday evening to enter the Bennett house on Belmont street, but the burglar made such a noise that the inmates of the house were aroused.

Contaminated Water.

It would be well if the board of health would make an inspection of the water supplies of the city.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Mrs. J. James, of Honesdale, Mrs. Blandin and Horton, of Uniondale, Misses Mary Werner, of Honesdale; Flo James, of Zanesboro, and Mary Ferrell and Mattie Harris, of this city, spent Tuesday with Mrs. John Amermerman, of Canaan street, it being her birthday.

MONTROSE.

Rev. A. Babeck, of Stevensville, is registered at the Exchange hotel.

P. H. Johnston, of Hallstead, who recently purchased the planing mill of Asur Lathrop, drives from that place to Montrose daily.

L. H. Mack, of Brooklyn, is in town.

C. F. Whittemore, of Scranton, has been in Montrose for several days attending to the pianos which do not blend in sweet harmony.

G. D. Nash, of Brooklyn, is registered at the Tarbell house.

H. L. Barrett, of Binghamton, is registered at the Montrose house.

L. A. Devine, of Rush, was in Montrose attending to business yesterday.

W. A. Slattery, of Binghamton, is registered at the Tarbell house.

On Tuesday Montrose was thronged with a bevy of beauty which emanated from every hamlet, every borough, every township of the section of this county, contiguous to Montrose.

The cause was an examination of teachers which was held by County Superintendent Charles E. Moxley.

On Saturday next the ever glorious Fourth of July will be celebrated in Montrose by all, but in chief by those of our No. 2. A grand performance to be held by them at the fair grounds all day has been elaborately advertised.

Among the many attractions offered are two balloon ascensions, one in the afternoon with parachute drop, and one at night with a grand display of pyrotechnics; a grand equine paradox and in addition a canine paradox, a fantastic ball game, dancing and many other entertainments which will cause time to know no limit, care no bounds.

Surveyor Gilbert accompanied by his assistants, Griffiths and Barney, can be seen daily on his expeditions in perfecting sewer surveys.

Landlord De Pue of the Tarbell house, has one of the prettiest young colts imaginable. Occasionally his groom gives it a half hour's exercise on the campus fronting the hotel. It certainly is a beauty.

OLYPHANT.

Miss Hannah Jenkins, of Hyde Park, gave a leap year party to a number of her friends last evening.

They came to this place on their bicycles and held a social at the rooms of the Club of '95.

Those present were Messrs. Beers, Bon, Carlson, Kreig, Sively, McKeeble, Squires, Center, Willis, Houck, Hays, Clarence Bow, E. P. Welch, Misses Moore, Watson, Greene, Miss Marion Mills, Decker, Mame Leki, Miss Cramer Morris, McKeeble, Hanna Jenkins. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. E. P. Welch, Mrs. H. H. Sively and Mrs. Mills.

Clarence, the 4-year-old son of Chas. Thomas, of Delaware avenue, was quite seriously injured yesterday morning morning by falling down a flight of stairs at his home.

The young lad was picked up in an unconscious condition, and it was some time before he regained consciousness.

PRICEBURG.

The condition of the sidewalk in front of the Johnson No. 1 property on Main street still remains unchanged.

It would be advisable for our council to take some official action in the matter, for besides being a nuisance to the traveling public this stagnant water is dangerous to the safety of health.

Miss Jennie Williams, of Peckville, is visiting relatives in town.

Miss Bridget Mahan, of North Main street, is on the sick list.

Misses Katie and Lizzie Dolphin and Mattie Smith visited in Scranton yesterday.

The Priceburg Electric Light company is stretching another line of wires to Dickson.

The building of the new brewery of the Dickson Brewing company is being rapidly pushed forward.

Miss Ella Riley, of South Main street, was a visitor in Olyphant yesterday.

J. Coleman, of Binghamton, N. Y., returned home yesterday after a short stay with friends here.
