CALM BEFORE THE CHICAGO STORM

two Bland and Boies—but the Iowa people found any suggestion that their candidate would accept second place. Vice-President Stevenson and Governor Matthews, of Indiana, were also talked of considerably for the second place on the ticket in the event of the nomination for the presidency going to Mr. Bland and late in the day ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, was talked of in the same connection.

Not a single name of any person being mentioned, the Allegheny was brought up, however, and one of the silver people put it, the general opinion seemed to be that if there was an eastern man of national reputation who is favorable to silver he must have taken to the woods before allowing his name to be used for a record.

MATTHEWS REINFORCED. The friends of Governor Matthews, of Indiana, and his aspirants were reinforced today by the arrival of Will English, son of the late Hon. W. H. English, who was a candidate for vice-president on the Hancock ticket in 1880. Although not a free silviteer Mr. English is a warm friend of the Indiana executive and was elected a delegate at the latter's request. His wealth and influence, it was thought, would be used in Governor Matthews' behalf.

So far the silver people have held the right of way and there has been considerable criticism over the failure of the Illinois sound money committee to do anything toward countering the efforts of the opposition. For Saturday night there has been a busy mass meeting in the Auditorium proper and Senators Hill, of New York; Gray, of Delaware; Vilas of Wisconsin; Palmer, of Illinois; and William C. Whitney, of New York; ex-Governor Russell, of Massachusetts; Peck, of Wisconsin; Flower, of New York; Francis, of Missouri; Honorables Robert E. Wright, of Pennsylvania; Allen McDermott, of New Jersey; W. D. Byrum, of Indiana, and William F. Sheehan, of New York, are expected to make short sound money addresses.

LONESOME GOLD BUGS. Ramsey, of South Dakota, waits a Tale of Woe. Chicago, July 2.—S. A. Ramsey, the leader of the gold standard delegation from South Dakota, arrived here this morning. Mr. Ramsey said to a United Press reporter: "A sound money resolution was adopted by our convention of which I was the temporary and permanent chairman. The silver faction took part in the proceedings, and after the resolution went through, went out in a corner and set the national system by fire. The silver faction, however, succeeded in demonstrating the presence of the bacillus of leprosy, which had never before been discovered elsewhere than in leprous tubercles.

DREADED THE CROWD'S FURY. Burglar Kills a Colorado Officer and Commits Suicide. Colorado Springs, Colo., July 2.—Frank Rish, a police officer, was shot and killed last evening by one of three burglars whom he discovered trying to enter the rear of the Gazette building. Five shots were fired, and then when a crowd of citizens entered the alley they fired the officer dead with a bullet through his heart. As the citizens realized the nature of the crime they perceived the burglars leave the alley at the far end.

Arkansas Lochiavar Wins a Bride in a Thrilling Manner. Little Rock, Ark., July 2.—Dennis Magruder and Larkia Sunderland, of Howard county, Arkansas, had a thrilling experience in stealing away today to get married. Dennis put his girl on the horse, jumped on behind her and started for the home of S. B. Naylor, a justice of the peace. The girl's father pursued the fleeing lovers, riding a mule. He shot at Dennis three times and the officer dodged away but the lovers hurried the justice to the roadside.

Y., July 2.—Jerome Rowan, a rich banker and father of Lansing Rowan, the California actress who has challenged Corbett to meet her in a scientific sparring contest, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart.

WEATHER BUREAU CHALLENGED. Star-Gazing Prophet at St. Joseph Proposes a Contest. Washington, July 2.—W. T. Foster, a weather prophet of St. Joseph, Mo., has challenged the officers of the weather bureau to a forecasting contest. He says the weather bureau has been at work nearly twenty-six years and has expended about $15,000,000 of the people's money without satisfactory results. He thinks it is about time for some practical demonstration of its efficiency.

NEVER RODE ON A PASS. Mr. Bland Has Not Enjoyed the Substantial Pleasures of Congress. Chicago, July 2.—Governor Stone made the following statement this afternoon to a United Press reporter in relation to certain reports which had been put in circulation among the delegates regarding the attitude of Mr. Bland toward labor organizations.

tions or any other legitimate enterprises, but in view of the fact that legislation affecting railroads and other corporations was continually before congress, he did not deem it proper to accept favors either great or small. He returned from congress after this long and very conspicuous service a comparatively poor man. On his farm in Laclede county he is trying to earn an honest living in a modest way. He never said or did anything to which any man being could point that indicated the least unwillingness to the industrial masses of the country; but he has said and done a great many things to the contrary.
