NO FAITH IN THE SULTAN'S PLEDGES

Promises of the Turkish Government Are Regarded with Suspicion.

THE CRETAN SITUATION DISCUSSED

Cretan Christians Hope to Bring About a Conflict That Will Overthrow Turkish Rule on the Island. The Czar in His Capital--Other News from the Old World.

London, July 5.—The statement made in the house of commons yesterday by the parliamentary secretary to the foreign office that the Turkish government had agreed immediately to apply the measures which the powers demanded for the purpose of restoring tranquility in the island of Crete is not accepted inside or outside of parliament as assuring a settlement of the troubles between the Turks and Christians there. The events in the island have been such as to render futile mere diplomacy.

The concert of the powers does not impress the Christian insurgents, who, no doubt have in mind the much-heralded concert in the case of Armenia, which was laughed to scorn by the Sultan. The Cretan Christians have no faith in diplomatic promises, having had experience of their worthlessness through many years of Turkish misrule, and they mean to bring about, if possible, a decisive conflict that will overthrow the Turkish regime.

A conference of the Christian leaders, held yesterday at Kampos, resulted in a determination to disregard the offers of Georgi Pasha Berovitch, the new Christian governor, unless the reforms promised are solidly guaranteed by the powers. If the governor convenes the assembly, only about a dozen deputies are likely to respond.

The debate on the Cretan situation in the house of commons last night showed that the dominant sentiment among the Unionists and the unanimous feeling of the Liberals were in favor of a strong British policy, even should it go to the length of armed intervention. Mr. Curzon said, however, that the government would not imperil the peace of Europe by taking isolated action, and that it would go only as far as the other powers were willing to go.

The Speaker today voices the Liberal policy in an article urging the government to use the fleet to prevent Turkish troops from landing in Crete, and to insist upon the neutralization of the island under European control.

CZAR IN HIS CAPITAL.

First Visit of Imperial Couple to St. Petersburg Since the Coronation.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The emperor and empress made their entry into St. Petersburg yesterday. The buildings along Newski Prospect were gayly decorated with flags, flowers, etc., but the crowds in the streets were not large, and there was very little suggestion of a holiday. Their majesties arrived at 11 o'clock and were welcomed by the grand dukes, delegates from the zemstvos, the city corporation, the provincial nobility, etc., who presented them with bouquets and bread, the latter upon splendid silver salvers.

The mayor also presented a resolution passed y the corporation founding a children's hospital and remitting the arrears of 14,000 rate-payers in commemoration of the coronation of the emperor at Moscow.

The imperial couple drove to the Kasan cathedral between two lines of troops. From the cathedral they proceeded without a guard to the fortress and thence to the railway station, where they took a train for the imperial residence at Tearskoe Selo. The czar and czarina will return to St. Petersburg on July 7. The report that the czar is suffering from jaundice is untrue.

An imperial ukase has been issued which forbids the private production or sale of alcohol in twelve provinces of Russia, including Poland, and orders the establishment of a state monopoly of the manufacture and sale of such product.

RUSSIA IN THE ORIENT.

It Is Not Believed That She Has Ordered Japan to Leave Formosa.

Washington, July 5.—The state department officials don't credit the dispatches from Hong Kong which assert that Russia has intimated to Japan that she must withdraw from Formosa.

The department's latest advices are that a perfect understanding exists between the two countries with reference to Formosan and Corean affairs. Although it was Japan's original intention to maintain a practical protectorate over Corea when the war with China ended, it was found that this was impossible, owing principally to Russian interference and intrigue. It is now learned that Russia and Japan have reached an agreement which leaves the control of Corea in their joint possession. Each is to keep a certain number of troops in the kingdom, and neither is to increase its forces without notifying the other. It is only in this way, the department advices say, that the weak dynasty in Corea can be kept alive, and the kingdom prevented from drifting into political chaos.

COLORADO POPULISTS.

Plan to Support the Chicago Nominee and to Follow Teller's Advice.

Denver, July 4.—The state convention of the People's party today selected a delegation to the St. Louis convention that will favor a union of all silver forces while maintaining the party organization and platform. They will work to secure an endorsement of the Democratic party nominee in Chicago if he is known to favor free silver at 16 to 1.

The complexion of the delegation is such as to secure the counsels and advice of Senator Henry M. Teller, whose wishes will be consulted before the delegation goes to the national convention.

The platform endorsed Senator Teller's course as consistent to the last, advised the adoption of a plank favoring direct legislation, and is explicit on the financial question, claiming the "glory of the silver issue" as coming first from the People's party. The platform says, among other things:

"Realizing that the settlement of the financial question is the paramount issue now before the American people, we favor such action by our national convention as will unify the support of all parties upon a candidate for the presidency who is unqualifiedly in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for action by any other nation."

MARYLAND LYNCHING.

Sydney Randolph, a Negro Charged with Having Made an Assault, Is Taken from Jail and Hanged.

Gaithersburg, Md., July 5.—Sydney Randolph, the negro charged with a brutal assault on the Buxton family in this place on May 25, which resulted in the death of little Sadie Buxton, was taken from Rockville jail, where he was confined awaiting the action of the November grand jury, about 2.30 o'clock yesterday morning by a mob of thirty or forty masked men and hanged near Rockville. He went to his death without saying whether he was guilty or not of the horrible crime, his only utterances being cries of "Murder!" as he was carried by the resolute body of men from the jail. The lynching seems to have caused little excitement. Everybody believed him guilty of the horrible crime of which he was accused.

About 1 o'clock the jailer, an aged man, who has served in that capacity for years, was awakened from his sleep by knocks on the front door. He opened the door and was confronted by two masked men on the threshold, who demanded the keys. The jailer, taken completely by surprise, attempted to close the door, but the men gained an entrance, followed by as many as could crowd into the small structure, all being heavily masked.

At the points of revolvers the now thoroughly frightened jailer was compelled to give up the keys. The mob at once proceeded to the cell where Randolph was confined and unlocked the door. The negro, hearing the confusion in the corridor, suspected at once what was about to happen, and, seizing a stool, attempted to defend himself, but with little effect. Strong arms soon had the frightened wretch bound and outside the jail, where a wagon was waiting to take him away. The drive to the previously selected place, about two miles west of Rockville, on the Frederick pike, was quickly made, and the rope was placed around his neck. Then he was asked if he had anything to say, but not a word could be drawn from him. Many efforts were made to make him confess, but to no avail. The rope was thrown over a limb and the man drawn fully twenty feet from the ground. The lynching party, which, it is understood, was composed of the best citizens of the community, who were perfectly sober and orderly, then quietly dispersed. The leaders are not known and the affair was kept so secret that no one except the participants knew of it until after it was all over.

The Buxton family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Buxton and their two daughters, Sadie and Maude, were awakened early in the morning of May 28 by an intruder, who first struck the children, sleeping in a room adjoining that of Mr. and Mrs. Buxton. The groans of the injured girls awoke Mr. Buxton. He started to get up, but was struck down. Mrs. Buxton called to her husband, and was herself felled by an ax. Little Sadie, one of the victims, died at the Garfield hospital, in Washington, never having recovered consciousness. Mr. and Mrs. Buxton and their elder daughter recovered after remaining at the hospital several weeks. The elder daughter was taken to her home only yesterday. Suspicion of the crime was directed to Randolph, who was found on the day of the crime near Gaithersburg unable to properly account for himself. He had been the companion of a negro named Neale, just released from a term in the penitentiary. Neale's conviction having been secured chiefly through the testimony of Mr. Buxton. At the time of his conviction Neale threatened to kill Buxton after serving his term. Randolph was supposed to have served Neale in the execution of that threat.

OHIO IN THE CONVENTION.

Senator Brice May Not Attend the Meeting--McLean's Wishes Rule.

Chiago, July 5.—It is altogether probable that Senator Brice, the member of the national committee from Ohio, will not attend the convention at all, despite his assertion in Washington some weeks ago that he would be here. George Gillett, his political secretary, is now here, and is understood to have Mr. Brice's proxy in his pocket.

The personnel of the Ohio delegation is dominated absolutely by John R. McLean, and his slightest wish meets with the unanimous approval of the delegation. Although individually the delegation contains a few gold men, it will vote as a unit, the state convention having adopted the unit rule. Ex-Congressman Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, although an ardent anti-silver man, is bowing to the superior authority of the instructions of the state convention with respect to the action of the delegation, is personally doing what he can to advance the candidacy of Mr. McLean for the presidency. Although few members of the delegation from Ohio have arrived, it is said to have been practically agreed that Allen W. Thurman, of Columbus, the son of the "Old Roman," Allen G. Thurman, will be the member of the committee on resolutions.

MAJOR M'KINLEY'S FOURTH.

He Spends the Day Reading and Answering Letters.

Canton, July 5.—Major McKinley spent the Fourth very busily, but very quietly. He conscientiously insists on reading and signing personally every one of the replies to the thousands of congratulatory letters and telegrams which he has received. Yesterday morning Private Secretary Boyle laid before him over 3,000 letters. These Major McKinley read carefully and signed. The task consumed the greater part of the day. In the early evening Major McKinley took a long drive accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Heistand.

MUSICAL ARGUMENT CAUSES A RIOT

Blood Flows Like Water at a Russian Picnic on Long Island.

FIFTY-NINE RIOTERS ARE ARRESTED

The Question as to Whether Dance Music or Drill Music Should Be Played the Origin of the Difficulty. Fifty Deputies Are Obliged to Fight an Hour to Quell the Row--Two Officers Fatally Stabbed.

New York, July 5.—An argument as to whether dance music or drill music should be played at the picnic of the Independent Order of the Late Soldiers of Russia, held in Sewell's park, in Mispeth, L. I., yesterday, caused a fight which resulted in the arrest of fifty-nine of the rioters and the probably fatal injury of two constables. It is estimated that 100 persons were more or less hurt. The organization is divided into two factions, the regulars and the independents.

Both factions were marching to the picnic, attended by their families and the fight began just as they reached the grounds. The men took sides with their leaders and a wild conflict ensued. The cries of the women and children only seemed to make the men fight harder and they continued to cut and slash each other until becoming weak from the affray, sank to the ground and were stepped upon by the men in the rear, who took their places.

OFFICERS ARRIVE.

Mr. Sewell, proprietor of the park, called Sheriff Dohl on the telephone and notified him that a riot was in progress in the park. The sheriff summoned fifty deputies and hastily sent them to the park. By the time the officials arrived, the majority of the men had gone outside the inclosure. Others were still fighting inside the gates. Everyone who passed by in the street was lunged at by enraged men. The fight waxed hot for nearly an hour after the deputies arrived, but then the clubs began to tell. The deputies were all cool and felled many of the rioters to the ground, and in a short time had the upper hand. Then they arrested a number of men.

It was after the fight in the park had been brought to a close that the two constables were found to be injured. Constable Sherry has a very bad stab wound in the abdomen, which is thought will kill him. Officer Bowman has several stab wounds, and but slight hopes are entertained for his recovery.

WOMEN DELEGATES.

Four Will Sit in the Convention from Utah, and Three Are Mormons.

Chicago, July 5.—Utah will present the convention with a novelty. Four women will sit in the convention as alternate delegates at large from the newly admitted state, and they will also lobby in the hotels among the politicians, shouting for free silver and their candidate for the presidency when the time comes. Three of these women are from Salt Lake City and are Mormons. They are as active in politics as men, and the statement was made yesterday by a Utah man that the new state will show the world that a really good chance a woman has there.

Mrs. Emily Richards, of Salt Lake City, heads the list of women alternates. She is a Mormon and the wife of an attorney. Her husband is a son of one of the Twelve Apostles and prominent in Mormon church affairs. Mrs. Dr. Ferguson, of Salt Lake City, is second on the list. She is also a Mormon.

Mattie Hughes Cannon, wife of the president of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, Angus M. Cannon, presents a peculiar picture of the result of politics in Utah. She is a Democrat of enough prominence to be sent to the national convention of the party as a delegate at large from her state, and her husband is a stanch Republican. He is of the famous Cannon family that cut a figure in the senatorial fight in Utah upon the admission of that state to the Union a short time ago.

The fourth alternate at large is Mrs. Jessie Knight, of Provo. She is a Mormon and is prominent in church and politics.

Fred J. Kissel, ex-mayor of Ogden, will be here as a delegate at large in the place of Moses Thatcher. The latter was formerly one of the Twelve Apostles in the Mormon church. The question of the right of the church to dictate political affairs was being agitated, and when a manifesto, declaring the effect in that direction to be unquestionable, he held out and was the only one of the twelve refusing to sign it. For this he was deposed from his apostleship. He was selected as a delegate at large as a rebuke to the men who opposed him. He was ill, and a resolution was passed giving him the right to name his own alternate, a thing unprecedented in Utah politics. He selected ex-Mayor Kiesel, of Ogden, and he will arrive with the delegation on Sunday.

BIG FIRE AT JOHNSTOWN.

The City Is Visited by a Forty Thousand Dollar Conflagration.

Johnstown, Pa., July 5.—A destructive fire broke out at 509 Main street in the millinery store owned by A. D. Anges & Co. in the business part of the city yesterday morning, and for a time it looked as if Johnstown's most prosperous business center was doomed. The flames soon gutted the store and then enveloped the home of James Williams, Mr. Williams and his family barely escaping with their lives. Stephenson's jewelry store adjoining, next caught, but the fire was checked there and little damage was done to the store except by water.

The losses will aggregate between $30,000 and $40,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from a smouldering firecracker.

Pleurisy and Heart Trouble.

"I was afflicted with pleurisy and heart trouble and was helpless. My doctor did all he could for me and though he helped me, I did not gain strength and could not work. I was very nervous. Finally I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it helped me wonderfully. I have taken a number of bottles and I am now able to do my own work. I have also tried Hood's Pills and they are the best I ever had in the house." Mrs. J. Meffley, Newfoundland, Pa.
