EASTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL GAMES

Rain Interfered with Only the Games at Buffalo.

ROCHESTER WON A SUNDAY GAME

Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Split Even Saturday and So Did Rochester and Syracuse--Providence Won Two from the Ponies--No Change in Positions.

Saturday's Results.

Scranton.....10 Wilkes-Barre.....3 Providence.....16 Springfield.....3 Rochester.....6 Syracuse.....5 Toronto at Buffalo, rain.

Afternoon Games.

Wilkes-Barre.....7 Scranton.....1 Providence.....6 Springfield.....3 Syracuse.....8 Rochester.....4 Toronto at Buffalo, rain.

Sunday Game.

Rochester.....10 Syracuse.....4

Two Fourth of July games were played by each of the clubs, excepting Toronto and Buffalo, rain, preventing the games in the latter city. Providence gained on Rochester by winning two games from the Ponies, but Rochester, after splitting even with the Stars Saturday, defeated them yesterday and gains a firmer hold on the leading position. The division of victory between Scranton and Wilkes-Barre keeps the two in the same position, sixth and seventh, but Springfield, by reason of two defeats, breaks the tie with Wilkes-Barre, and goes alone to the last on the list.

TEAMS SPLIT EVEN.

Pitchers Play an Important Part in the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Fourth of July Games.

The two clubs divided the honors Saturday. Scranton winning the morning game in this city and Wilkes-Barre bagging the argument, showing very brightly in the afternoon. About 3,000 persons, including a handful of Wilkes-Barreans, saw the game here, while at least 600 Scrantons were sprinkled among the audience of 3,500 at Wilkes-Barre.

Harper and Cokerley were pitted against each other in this city. The former could not be solved when hits were needed, and Cokerley, too, pitched good ball, barring his wildness, but the four errors of his mates made possible six of Scranton's ten runs.

Down at Wilkes-Barre, however, Johnson's light did not shine very brightly when compared to Keenan's brilliant box work. The Alligators deserved their victory, but there is no telling what the result might have been if two unfortunate errors by Hutchinson and a misjudged fly by O'Brien in the second inning had started the game under discouraging circumstances for Griffin's men.

The detailed scores are very good explanations of the two games:

PROVIDENCE HERE TODAY.

Brown or Gillen Will Be in the Box for Scranton.

Providence plays here today and tomorrow. The Grays are having a battle royal with Rochester for first position, and Scranton has by dint of hard, up-hill work, got out of the eighth hole and reached sixth place, so it is certain that each club will play to the limit to hold and maybe improve the advantage already possessed. Thus far Scranton has won two and Providence three of the five games the two have played together.

Brown or Gillen and Outcalt or Rafferty will be in the points for Scranton. Manager Griffin will play center field in place of Meany, who has been called to Philadelphia by the illness of his mother. Griffin's hand has not completely healed and may handicap him in batting, but will not interfere with his field play.

MEANEY WILL REMAIN.

Buffalo Made a Very Handsome Offer for Him.

The rumor that a deal was on to possibly trade Meaney to Buffalo for outfielder Goodenough and Shortstop Leevee has caused not a little comment among the cranks.

Yesterday the Buffalo club renewed its offer and agreed to pay $500 in addition. Manager Griffin, however, had decided not to consider the proposition on any basis and wired back a reply to the effect that Patrick will remain at the danger of a big, loud kick from the fans is averted.

While conversing with a Tribune reporter about the matter last night Manager Griffin expressed the opinion that the team, according to its present form, has an equal to landing in Scranton in any position at the end of the season, and that he would not take any chances on trading or selling any player for poorer ones.

TORONTO FRANCHISE.

Will Be Known as the Albany Club After Thursday.

Buffalo, July 5--Negotiations between Eastern League magnates and the manager of the Toronto club on behalf of the latter's transfer to Albany, have culminated to the satisfaction of Albanians and from next Thursday the Toronto aggregation will be known as the Albany team.

DIAMOND DUST.

Providence today. We have no further use for Horner-Bangor Whig. Outfielder Hill, of Reading, has signed with Syracuse.

Scranton has won the three games which Gillen played in the present series with Dan Brothers, of the Phillies, has been given notice of release.

Billy Nash, the Phillies' gentlemanly captain, will enter a Boston clothing store as a salesman at the end of the season.

Tommy Leahy had a day off yesterday and he deserved it. It was the first game he has missed this season--Springfield News.

Springfield plays here Wednesday and Thursday, and that ends Scranton's home visit, the club going away until the end of next week.

Meany received a telegram during the afternoon game informing him his mother was very ill at her home, in Philadelphia, and he left for that city on the 6:15 Lehigh Valley train.

Retzger, who played with Frank Ely in the Pennsylvania league years ago, and was tried and released by Cleveland, has taken a new lease of life, and is the winning pitcher in the present series with Charlie Morton, last year's manager of the Buffalo club, umpired the Syracuse-Rochester game at Rochester Thursday.

That he wasn't a winning success is indicated by the following from the Syracuse Courier: "But Mr. Morton, umpire, easily distanced the field. For crude, childish, immature, idiotic, impudic gueswork he takes the best of the best. He is an angel of light, a bright and shining light. Where the ball went was absolutely irrelevant so far as his decisions on the field are concerned. He was a matter of no moment whatever whether the ball got to the base ahead of or after the runner. Morton should be farmed to the Upper Sandusky City League."

AMATEUR BASE BALL.

Olympian Browns Won the $25 Prize at Farview.

The Olympian Browns succeeded in carrying off the prize of $25 offered by the Delaware and Hudson Canal company at Farview on Saturday by defeating the Harmonies of Scranton by a score of 10 to 3.

The Browns put up a fine game in the box and for three innings he was hit quite freely. In the fourth he was succeeded by Cleary. He pitched a remarkable game, preventing the Harmonies from scoring during the remainder of the game. Hurst pitched a steady game for the Harmonies up to the last two innings, when he was found for a total ten runs. Wheeler and Coleman put up a fine teaming game. The long drive of Cleary and the good umpiring of McGinnis were the features. The score:

BICYCLE ROADWAY ACROSS CONTINENT

Plan to Build One from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

OVER THE ROUTE IN EIGHTY DAYS

Chicago Members of the L. A. W. Has Proposed the Scheme--Legislatures Will Be Asked to Aid by Improving the Highways--Path Shoud Simply Be a Stretch of Good Roads.

A Chicago member of the League of American Wheelmen has proposed that a continuous roadway be built between New York and San Francisco. The "Inter-Ocean" has explained the scheme in the words of the promoter, thus: "I would start, say, at the Pacific coast and going north from San Francisco, would strike across Sacramento. Once in Nevada, I would keep pretty close to the railroads, to steer clear of the Santa Rosa mountains. The railroads have mapped out things pretty well along there, and I should hug the track, taking only excursions by the hour all through Nevada and Utah, until I reached Great Salt Lake. Here there is a very pretty chance for a run south to Salt Lake City, and another one north to Canada. Nowhere is the country more delightful than right here."

"Striking the railroad again at Salt Lake, I should continue east, keeping the locomotive constantly in eye. I should hit Wyoming in its southwest corner and steer through the lower part of it. If you want an interesting trip you can strike the Denver and branch aside to Cripple Creek. Here you will find it hard wheeling, but so varied that you are willing to put the wheel on train and ride part of the way over the mountains."

"The road is a very attractive and novel entertainment and should attract large crowds throughout the west. There are nine lady riders: Misses Vine, Dennis, Horton, Hewena, Lyall, Hart and Wildon and the Wells Sisters. All of them are competent, fast riders, and they ride to win. There is no hypodroming feature. Chadsey claims to hold the indoor half-mile bicycle record of 1.04. His exhibition mile Saturday was against a strong wind and was made in 1:18. The other riders are Max Kahler and Maurice Whitney. Of the elephants and their intelligence, too much cannot be said in commendation of them. Perhaps the fact that they come here direct from Proctor's New York theater is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of their performance."

Miss Purvis, the serpentine dancer, will be seen during the week. The programme opens at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon and 8:15 in the evening. The programme for this afternoon and evening is as follows: Event 1--Middle match race--Miss Vine, Miss Dennis, Miss Lyall, Miss Hoven. Event 2--One-mile match race, scratch--R. C. Chadsey, Waverly team; Ninth Regiment Wheelmen, New York; Max Kahler, Sagamore team; N. Y.; Maurice Whitney, Boston, Mass.

Event 3--One-mile race, under 18 years old, scratch--Entries received at Scranton Driving track up to the time of the starting of race. Event 4--Geo. Lockhart's elephant polo play of the world. Event 5--Max Kahler, clown burlesque cyclist. Event 6--W. H. Barber, champion bicycle trick rider of the world. Event 7--Miss Dennis, Miss Lyall, Miss Hoven. Event 8--R. C. Chadsey, Waverly team, Ninth Regiment Wheelmen, New York, exhibition half-mile for time. Event 9--W. H. Barber and A. D. Robbins will play any two men in the world a game of polo on bicycles. A. D. Robbins will play any one man a game of polo. W. H. Barber or A. D. Robbins will ride any one half-mile backward or one-fourth mile on one wheel. Miss Ella Vine, champion of the world, will meet any lady in a race from one-half to five miles.

YALE MEN ARE READY.

Are as Fit as Any of the English Crews.

Henley-on-Thames, July 5. The weather today was clear and very warm. No work was done by the Yale crew, all the men resting after their week's practice. They will go to the starting line as fit as any crew who start in the race for the grand challenge cup.

In the first trial held on Tuesday the Leander and Yale crews will contest against each other. There has been no betting of note on the event. Some of the Yale men are willing to take odds of three to two against the American's winning. The preliminary work of the crews has been practically finished and the men say that tomorrow they will only do a little light work to keep themselves in shape for the strain of Tuesday.

Many visitors arrived today and the usual fashionable Henley crowd will be present to witness the racing.

BICYCLE RACES AT PARK.

Interesting Contest That Took Place Saturday Afternoon.

A large audience witnessed the bicycle races among professional lady and men riders at the Driving park Saturday afternoon and applauded the performance of Lockhart's trained elephants. The night programme had to be abandoned on account of rain. The races and the elephants will be the attraction at the park every afternoon and evening during the week.

The lady riders participated in three events and the men in one. There was also an exhibition half-mile by R. C. Chadsey and a half-mile boys' race and a mile event for local contestants. Altogether the whole was an attractive and novel entertainment and should attract large crowds throughout the west.

There are nine lady riders: Misses Vine, Dennis, Horton, Hewena, Lyall, Hart and Wildon and the Wells Sisters. All of them are competent, fast riders, and they ride to win. ACROSS NEW YORK STATE.

"At Buffalo you start to cut New York state in two pieces. You go through it at Saratoga. From there you might keep on your way across New Hampshire and Vermont to the Maine coast, where Portland would be your nearest point. But if you do this you must cross the Green mountains of Vermont and the White mountains of New Hampshire, and run your risk of a rocky approach to Portland. It is less than 300 miles now to the sea, and as the roads are good you should fetch up in New York city in four or five days. That tours you from the Pacific to the Atlantic."

"Now," said the cycling gentleman, laying down the map, "you see the path is a feasible one. Personally I do not believe in the bicycle track. I think good roads are good enough for the wheelman. What I am aiming at, and what I do think possible, is a bicycle path across the country which shall be simply a good road. Each state can take care of its own roads, and the result will be one long stretch of good wheeling."

My aim is to get legislation through to make the roads good first; and, second, to connect the different paths. For example, there is one very fine stretch of road in Indiana. Every wheelman who goes there speaks of it. But approaching this good stretch, and leading from it, is a very heavy, rough piece of country. This could be easily fixed, as there are now only a few miles of it. Now, with bicycle legislation, we would get that attended to."
