HUNGARIAN STABBED.

Wounded in the Abdomen by a Fellow Countryman.

A stabbing affray took place at White's on the gravity on Sunday afternoon in which John Wetowich, a Hungarian, residing at Simpson, was badly wounded.

Wetowich had gone to spend the day at the Polish colony, and in the afternoon became engaged in a discussion with John Herman, a fellow countryman. Both men became very heated and finally Herman stabbed Wetowich in the abdomen and fled.

With the assistance of two men Wetowich managed to reach the city, where much time was spent in hunting up a doctor. Dr. Gilles was at last found and he dressed the wound which is about five inches in length. As the man was very weak from loss of blood and his long walk the doctor advised him to go to the hospital, where he now is. The man who did the stabbing has been arrested.

ADAM C. MILLER DEAD.

Passed Away at the Home of His Daughter.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Shannon, on Wyoming street, occurred the death of Adam C. Miller, a prominent Greenfield man. His death was due to paralysis, from which the deceased has suffered for many years. Last January he came from Greenfield to visit his son, who was suffering seriously ill. From that time he has gradually grown weaker until the end.

The deceased was born in Greenfield township March 16, 1828. Greenfield was his home and here he has grown up one of the most prominent and progressive men of the section.

He leaves a son, C. E. Miller, of Clifford, and three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Shannon, Grace G. and Maud E. Miller, of this city. The body will be taken to Greenfield for interment.

JERMYN.

The Fourth passed off very quietly in Jermyrn, with the exception of the usual cannonading and fireworks set off by the juveniles. Several parties went to the numerous lakes in this section, where they spent the day fishing and boat-riding, but by far the large number went to Carbondale where they witnessed the parade.

In the afternoon a good sized crowd from Jermyrn went to Parkview where they spent the remainder of the day picnicking. In the evening, despite the drizzling rain, a large number took the street cars for Carbondale where they saw the display of fireworks from the head of No. 28 street, which was part of Carbondale's celebration. The general opinion of all who witnessed Carbondale's celebration seemed to be that it was the best that they had seen in years.

The funeral of Griffith Ellis, who died at the home of his uncle, Richard Stevenson, on L street, Friday, was held Sunday afternoon, services being held in the Methodist Episcopal church. The services were conducted by Rev. Francis Gendall, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church and Rev. William Leslie, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church. The Sons of Veterans, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body, and the pallbearers were chosen from this organization, who were William Whitely, Lafayette Matthews, Clarence Wally, J. Nicholson, William Dimock and Howard Elmore. Among the floral gifts were two handsome pillows, one being presented by the Sunday school class, of which the deceased was a member, and the other by the Sons of Veterans. Interment was made in Shady-side cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. John Hennessey, of the East Side, who died Thursday morning, occurred Sunday afternoon. Services were held in the Sacred Heart church. Interment was made in the Archdiocesan cemetery. The pallbearers were P. M. Collins, Matthew Leslie, John Muldon, John Loughney, John Stanton and Charles Meehan.

The funeral of the late David Evans, of Mayfield, was held Sunday afternoon, services being conducted in the Congregational church. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. Interment was made in Shady-side cemetery.

John R. Jones and son, Willard, have returned home from Scranton, where they spent several days. Rev. W. H. Post, of Lewistown, preached in the St. James' Episcopal church both morning and evening Sunday.

The revival meetings to be held by the Methodist Episcopal, First Baptist, Congregational and Primitive Methodist churches will commence on Thursday evening, July 4.

Miss Mattie Knapp will leave for her home at Prompton tomorrow evening, where she will spend several weeks.

PRICEBURG.

The ever glorious Fourth was celebrated here in a most fitting manner. The parade held in the morning was one of the largest processions ever held in the borough. One of its chief features was the impersonating of the Darktown Fire Brigade by the members of the Eagle, No. 1, Hose company. After parading the principal streets the procession proceeded to the F. M. Grove to picnic with the Priceburg Citizens' band.

Undertaker E. J. Burke, who acted as aid to the grand marshal in Saturday's parade, narrowly escaped serious injury while performing that duty. When the parade reached a slight turn in the road a few hundred feet above his horse became frightened by the music of the band, and in attempting to run away stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. Burke under its feet. He sustained a fractured finger.

George Mumford spent the Fourth at Erie.

Miss Matilda Smith, of North Main street, returned yesterday after a week's visit with friends in Plymouth.

Rev. J. L. Shanley spent Saturday as the guest of Rev. T. J. Comerford, of Archbold.

The grand ball held at Smith's Music hall by the Polish band on July 4 was largely attended.

Miss Mary Hughes, of Main street, was a visitor in Olyphant Sunday.

M. F. Fadden was in Scranton last evening.

MOOSIC.

George, the oldest son of C. S. Snyder, who has been quite ill, is slowly recovering. Dr. S. S. Watson is the attending physician.

The joint excursion of the Moose and Langcliffe Presbyterian Sunday schools will go to Lake Ariel on July 24, 1896. This is the largest and most popular excursion held during the summer.

Mrs. S. M. Snyder, of Aveca, was a caller in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robertson were callers in Scranton yesterday.

LERATSVILLE.

Mrs. Mattie Gregory, of North Oa-swell, was a visitor in town a short time last week.

Rev. E. A. Quinby, pastor of the Methodist church, accompanied by his wife, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at his former home in New Jersey. John W. Coddling, esq., of Towanda, accompanied by his son from Duluth, Minn., Dr. Charles Coddling, was a guest of relatives and friends in town last week.

E. M. Pitcher is reported quite ill at his home above town. Mrs. E. W. Gaylord is suffering from a sprained arm.

The following were late visitors at Wyalusing for a few days and attended the celebration there also: H. A. Wilson and wife, G. B. Buser and wife, W. T. Morris and wife, Rev. E. J. Davis, E. W. Gaylord and William Miller.

Rev. C. N. Tilton, of Newmarket, N. H., will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at the usual hour.

Miss Emeline Bosworth has been a late visitor with her sister and other friends in Wyalusing.

Mrs. P. C. Moore has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Gregory, at North Orwell.

P. J. Miller was doing business in Towanda, last Wednesday, supplying his clear trade.

A stabbing affray occurred at the Cogswell house in Skinner's Eddy last Friday evening, which resulted in the death of Ben Carter, of Auburn, a few miles up Tuscarora Creek. It seems Mr. Carter, who was considered and respected man, was in the hotel, when the assailant, known by the citizens throughout as "Jumbo," entered and without any words attacked his man with a knife; the first striking his forehead, the second in the side; the third in his breast and the fourth in the back, being found to be his victim's life if possible. The man lived about thirty minutes, the murderer was at once captured and landed in the jail at Tunkhannock. He was a stonecutter and has a wife and two children, besides brothers, who all live in the vicinity of Scranton.

The deceased was about thirty years of age, unmarried and resided on a farm at the above named place.

Hose company, No. 1, of Wyalusing, should well feel proud of their efforts to give the people of their vicinity one of the grandest celebrations ever witnessed in that town.

The Steventown Cornet band arrived at 9:30 and discoursed its grand music, and at 10:30 came the fire department parade, which was commended very highly, after which Chairman Stowell announced the speakers, a gentleman from Pittston, who gave a short address, after which Rev. M. L. Cook, of Mennell, held the large audience, which numbered about 1,000 people. The ladies served an excellent dinner in Brown's opera house, of which it is said that 700 partook. At 2:30 o'clock the firemen's parade attracted the people's attention, and the ladies, about forty in all, made an attractive appearance with their new hose cart and hook and ladder truck, this was followed by a female hose company, headed by the Pink Sisters. The parade was headed by William Mack, formerly of Towanda, who is an excellent drum major. The two sections of the company next had a hose race, making the dash of 100 yards in 31 and 38 seconds respectively.

The next on the programme of the day was the ball game witnessed, Sayre and Leratstville teams; in account of rain only three innings were played and the score was 2 and 4 in favor of the former team. A minstrel entertainment was given at the opera house in the evening, after which a fine display of fireworks was witnessed.

A Reading was called to Atlantic City, N. J., last week on account of the serious illness of his mother.

A large delegation from this place attended the celebration at Wyalusing last Saturday. Only a few were in Towanda.

Mrs. A. E. Payson and little son, of Hazleton, made a visit at A. B. Payson's last week.

George Manning, of Aurora, was in town last week.

V. B. Payson, of Wilkes-Barre, made a brief visit with his parents in town last week. His little daughter accompanied him.

G. W. Moore, who has been carpentering at Towanda, has returned to Wilkes-Barre, where he will work at his trade.

Landlord Brown is suffering with a felon on his hand.

Mrs. S. A. Mathews, our popular and fashionable milliner, with her daughter, have been recent visitors with their relatives and friends in Nichols, N. Y., their former home.

MONTRÖSE.

Louis Heller and Fred Mitchell, of Binghamton, who have been at Heart Lake camping, were in town on Friday. They have since broken camp and returned to Binghamton.

Miss Bushnell, of Auburn, spent July 4 with Montröse friends.

Horace E. Hand, of Scranton, accompanied by his family, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mulford. Mr. Hand returned to Scranton yesterday.

Miss Josephine McNeer, of N. W. M'ford, spent the Fourth of July with friends at this place.

Miss Mabel Baldwin, of Elmira, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Scott. Colonel E. S. Warner, accompanied by his guests, Van G. Mungor and Daniel A. Watrous, left this afternoon for a week's sojourn at Lake Carey.

Eddison W. Avery, who has for the past few days been spending a short vacation at Lake Carey, is expected home today.

William Erlenburger, who spent the Fourth of July with kinsfolk at Mansfield, Pa., has returned to Montröse.

Attorney Charles Post and W. S. Mulford and family went fishing yesterday at different points on the Wyalusing Creek.

Among those who spent the national holiday at Montröse were C. Howe, A. Gray, W. Purdie, M. Daniels, J. Kilroy and Monroe Brown, all of that pretty town of Hallstead.

Mrs. P. Marks, of Tunkhannock, accompanied by her little child and Miss Loewens, of Towanda, were here July 4 as the guests of our enterprising merchant, M. Sussman.

The Montröse band was augmented on the "Fourth" by three young musiclans from Hallstead, John Coddington, Walter Burton and Frank Gruslam. They made an acquisition which was a worthy manner.

C. T. Bates, of Binghamton, is a guest at the Montröse House.

Among the sad fatalities which were made present on the Fourth was the death of William Hillis, of Rush township, which occurred yesterday.

Mr. Hillis was passing the home of Mr. McMannus and his horse became frightened, dashed to the side of the road and threw him out. He struck on his head and from that moment until Sunday morning, when he breathed his last, he did not regain consciousness.

Mr. Hillis was a bright and enterprising man, just entering upon middle age, and to his friends his death will mark a deep cross of sorrow.

OLYPHANT.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Thomas J. Jones, of Third street, were held Sunday afternoon in the Welsh Presbyterian church on Susquehanna avenue. Many friends attended. ## Clearing Sale of Furniture

To-day, July 6th, while others are still selling furniture at regular prices, we begin our half-yearly clearing sale with heavy cuts in prices throughout the stock. This sale means business. It isn't gotten up to order. "Clearing" isn't an excuse for a sale, like fire, or water, or removal. It's a real live clearing sale—a sale to clear our stock. It's not a compulsory sale. We "don't have to." We are not loaded up with undesirable goods. Our stock is in good order, but "good" isn't good enough here.

SMALL LOTS, ODDS AND ENDS

Odd patterns, all must be perfectly weeded out. There is much to be sold; the sale will continue for some time—but there are many opportunities which will make it especially interesting for those who can come early in the sale. The most taking things are taken first—remember that.

The lounge department is the first to be invaded, and we find about 18 odd patterns, most of which are upholstered in Moquet. Good, substantial, well-made goods, but the patterns have been discontinued. Odd end prices will range from $5.98 to $7.85 until all are sold.
