SCRANTON, JULY 8, 1896.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

NATIONAL. For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, of Ohio. For Vice-President, GARRET A. HOBART, of New Jersey.

STATE.

Congressmen-at-Large. GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna. SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT, of Erie.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

1. Tariff, not only to furnish adequate revenue for the necessary expenses of the government, but to protect American labor from degradation to the wage level of other lands.

Where are the great men of Cleveland's cabinet whose names frequently made headlines in the daily papers two or three years ago?

Situation at Chicago.

Intelligence from Chicago indicates that the war between the gold and silver elements of the Democratic party is fairly on, and will be fought to the bitter end.

Suppress the Flasher.

Certain newspapers have seen fit to ridicule what they term the "good-goodsness" of Atlantic City.

But this is no reason why modest and refined young ladies should not be protected from the impudent advances of strangers which to them are nothing short of insulting.

resort should be free at all times to the occupancy of ladies, young or old, without danger of insult from the conceited and brazen fellows who plume themselves as "mashers."

Great Britain does not seem to interfere in behalf of the Cretan Christians, who are liable to suffer the fate of Armenians before the Turks are through with them.

"The money of the United States, and every kind of form of it, whether of paper, silver or gold, must be as good as the best in the world."

Coxey, the famous tramp organizer, it is said, is publishing a paper out at Massillon, Ohio, entitled "Sound Money."

Our Battle-Ships.

Strange as it may seem in spite of all the improvements of this age it has been demonstrated that the modern battleship has but a short life as compared to the vessels of other days.

Political Gossip.

From the Washington Post. The presidential campaign this year will be a little shorter than that of four years ago.

Creton War Cloud.

Another war cloud is rising in the East which may involve the great powers before it is finally settled.

Whitney has informed a Chicago interviewer that he is "very tired."

Mr. Whitney has informed a Chicago interviewer that he is "very tired." A great many are of the opinion that Mr. Whitney made a mistake in postponing his vacation until after the convention.

Becher Stowe would be necessary to check the rising enthusiasm of the descendants of the "Lost Cause" party.

Quite a little favorable comment has been called forth by Verdi's gift of $30,000 as the first installment toward the building of an asylum for broken down musicians.

An exchange asserts that modern surgery with the aid of the Roentgen rays might have saved the life of President Garfield.

A western girl who became infatuated with a married man, has just succeeded in purchasing the object of her affection by paying the wife $750 to consent to a divorce.

THE X RAY.

If you can penetrate a purse and "take" the coins without realising it, you can photograph one's bones inside the flesh.

Postmaster General Wilson.

Postmaster General Wilson, of tariff fame, has pointed out the path of honor and safety for the Democracy.

Political Gossip.

From the Washington Post. The presidential campaign this year will be a little shorter than that of four years ago.

He never tells a story in his speeches; he is the personification of seriousness and earnestness. He quotes no poetry, he strives for no merely oratorical effects; he never abuses his political antagonists or the opposition party.

CANNOT ALTER THE VERDICT.

From the Pittsburgh Times. While the nation will look with indifference upon the reunion of the old rebel soldiers, it will not view with such indifference the laying of the corner-stone of a monument to the arch-rebel, Jeff Davis.
