The slander suit of Mrs. Mamie Twining against Mrs. Cora Evans was to have been heard before arbitrators in the court house yesterday, but just before the hour for beginning the hearing the suit was withdrawn.

Alderman Howe discharged Fred Wyant yesterday, who was arrested at the instance of Roger S. Harlow for forcible entry and detainer. The prosecutor had no cause of action, according to the alderman's view of the case.

A pet canary bird sought and found a refuge at the home of Rev. F. A. Dony, at Green Ridge, yesterday morning. The little stranger seemed very glad to find a home. The owner can have him by calling and identifying his property.

Simpson, of the county jail, with reference to Mary O'Neil, of Dunmore, who was committed to the county prison some time ago, court yesterday made an order for her removal to the insane department of the H. The Delaware and Hudson Canal company yesterday brought an action in ejectment against Jacob and Mary Milot to compel the specific performance of contract with reference to the payments on a lot in Archibald purchased by the defendants from the company. A similar action was brought against Joseph Shany, of Olyphant, by the same company.

The family of the late Thomas Murtha, who died Monday morning at the Hillside Home, will arrive in Scranton this afternoon from Philadelphia, to take charge of the remains. The family did not know the whereabouts of their father for a long time until they were notified by a friend here in Scranton of his death. He will be interred in the Philadelphia Catholic cemetery beside his wife, who died recently.

SCRANTONIANS AT OCEAN GROVE.

Large Number Will Spend the Summer Months There.

Possibly the most popular seashore resort in the State, Ocean Grove, N. J., is attracting a large number of Scrantonians this season. This resort is the quietest and most homelike on the Atlantic coast, and at the same time offers as much amusement as any of the others. The unique and world-famed board walk promenade is the chief characteristic of the resort. This pier is often literally covered with hopeful followers of Ike Walton. During the band concerts in the evening, it is no uncommon sight to see thirty thousand people congregated in the immediate vicinity of the board walk and pavilion. Motion pictures are the order of the day. Everybody moves, and the steady tread of the thousands on the surface of the board walk sounds like the passing of a vast army.

W. H. Stevens and G. R. Clarke, of this city, have been instrumental in making the trip to Ocean Grove. They own several cottages there, which they rent, mostly to Scranton people for different periods during the season. Among the well-known Scrantonians now at Ocean Grove are: P. B. Finley, Tallie Morgan and family; Wade M. Fin and family; H. T. Campbell and family; E. T. Black and wife; S. C. Heaster and family; Mrs. Frances Vall. Colonel Hitchcock and family will spend the month of August at the Grove.

MAY HAVE BEEN REGAN.

Report Reaches This City to Effect That He Was Killed.

The relatives of John C. Regan, whose home is at 265 Railroad avenue, are worried over a report that he died this week while in Philadelphia. The information reached here in a roundabout way and was to the effect that Regan was injured in a railroad accident last Sunday night and that he died a few hours afterward at a Philadelphia hospital. Upon hearing the report telegraphic messages were sent by the family to the chief of police at Philadelphia asking for information. No answer had been received last night when a Tribune reporter called upon Mrs. Hannah Regan, mother to the supposed victim.

She stated that the report is unlikely as the last heard of her son was at the Brocton city. Regan is a machinist and was 38 years of age. He worked at the Dickson works and is quite well known in this city.

There is a possibility that the "Frank McCann," who was killed Sunday at Emporium, Pa., and who is supposed to have relatives in this city is none other than John C. Regan. Friends of the Regan family are of this belief. The message telling of the McCann death was printed in Monday's Tribune.

REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION PARADE, SATURDAY NIGHT, JULY 1.

Organizations Intending to take part are reminded that notice should be sent to Major J. W. Oakford, chief of staff, at once, in order that they may have a place assigned them in the line, and that the line may be properly formed. The parade will undoubtedly be a large one, and the necessity for this will be apparent. Prompt action will avoid confusion and will contribute greatly to the success of the occasion.

RUN DOWN BY AN EXPRESS TRAIN.

Four-Year-Old Blooden Jones Fatally Injured Last Night.

HER MOTHER SAW THE ACCIDENT.

The Jones family was returning home from a picnic in the Brishin Grove when the accident occurred. Little One's skull was fractured and her left arm broken near the shoulder.

Passenger train No. 14, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, which arrives in this city at 8.30 o'clock p. m., while rounding the curve near the Cayuga breaker last night, run down a four year old girl, Blooden Jones, who with her parents was crossing the tracks on their way home from the picnic of Cayuga Accidental fund in Brishin Grove.

The little one's skull was fractured and her left arm broken near the shoulder. She was alive at midnight, but there is little or no hope of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their children were standing beside the track waiting for a north bound freight train to pass and as soon as the last car had gone by little Blooden ran across ahead of the others. She had just reached the opposite track when the passenger train, which none of them had noticed, came thundering along down the grade, and striking the child hurled her high in the air and landed her bleeding and crushed almost at her mother's feet.

The little one was picked up, and being still alive was hastily carried home, where Drs. W. D. Donne and W. W. Jenkins were summoned to attend her. They thought there was no possibility of her recovery.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Warrant Sworn Out for Fred Kellerman for Striking John Boland with a Stone.

Fred Kellerman, of the South Side, was committed to the county jail yesterday afternoon, charged with aggravated assault and battery upon John Boland, the result of which is said to be that Boland is in a dying condition. The warrant was sworn out by the wounded man's wife before Alderman J. W. Miller, of the Sixth ward. Kellerman was taken to the central police station and was given a hearing by Alderman Millett, who committed him without bail to await the result of Boland's injuries.

On the Fourth of July the Bolands and the Kellermans had been drinking and in the evening a fight started. Stones were thrown, and one of them struck Boland on the forehead, felling him to the ground. The latest report does not make the case a serious one, although the warrant sworn out by Mrs. Boland sets forth that her husband is dying.

Kellerman denies that he threw the stone which struck Boland, and blames it on his brother, Peter, who has left town.

HEPTASOPHS WILL CELEBRATE.

Joint Excursion to Harvey's Lake on Heptasoph's Day.

Committees from the various conclaves of Heptasoph in this city and vicinity met last evening to hear reports from committee's appointed at a preliminary meeting last week, when it was decided to celebrate Heptasoph Day by running a joint excursion to Harvey's Lake, Aug. 28. It was announced that the transportation arrangements had been made with the Lehigh Valley railroad company, and that a train will leave Carbondale on the morning of that day connecting with the regular excursion train at the Delaware and Hudson station in this city, and take on Heptasoph and their friends all along the line to Wilkes-Barre.

The fare has been placed at the low rate of one dollar for the round trip from Scranton to the Lake, which is much less than has heretofore prevailed, the idea being to give the members of the order a chance to hold a reunion. The committee in direct charge of arrangements is Frank Thompson, George F. Weeks and Edward D. Jones, who expect to take even a larger crowd than that which accompanied the Heptasoph two years ago on their great Glen Onoko excursion.

TONIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT.

At the Academy of Music in Aid of the Pittston Sufferers.

The entertainment at the Academy of Music tonight for the benefit of the Pittston sufferers will contain one feature that will amply repay for the price of admission. The song "The Miner's Dream of Home" will be rendered, and special scenic effects have been painted by Artist James Gaurand, of New York city, to be used while it is being sung.

The programme has been made up of the best local talent of the city, as well as professional people from elsewhere who have been engaged to give services for the occasion. Admission to all parts of the house is only 25 cents, and tickets can be purchased at the principal business places of the central city, South and West sides and North End.

ANOTHER M'KINLEY CLUB.

Sixteenth Ward Republicans Organize to Take Part in Ratification.

The vacant store-room in the Windsor block last evening and organized a club to take part in next Tuesday's ratification. The organization was named the Throp McKinley club.

Permanent organization was effected by the election of Dr. B. H. Throp as president and W. E. Davis, secretary. W. E. Davis, William Dawson and Silas Finne were chosen as a soliciting committee and adjournment was then made until next Friday night. The club will have the fragrance band to head it in the parade and also promise a novelty in the way of torches that will distance anything that may be in line.

AFRICAN M. E. CHURCH FAIR.

Opened Very Auspiciously Last Night in the Chapel.

The fair in the African M. E. chapel opened last night. The chapel was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and in the center were three booths. Booth No. 1 was looked after by Mrs. E. Lane, and at No. 2 Miss Mag-

HER CHILDREN TAKEN FROM HER.

Terrible Condition of Affairs Revealed Before Alderman Miller.

MRS. JENNIE ROUGHT SENT TO JAIL.

Her Daughter of Ten Allowed to Live Amid the Most Debasing Surroundings—Asked to Be Taken From Her Mother—Other Cases That Were Heard Before City Aldermen Yesterday.

One thing which the child saving committee of the Associated charities will not permit if it can be helped is to have the keepers of disorderly houses bring up their children amidst the contaminating influences of their dives. These women must either give up their sinful life or their children. The law allows the board to insist on this and it intends to take full advantage of the law.

Last night a woman who is base enough to keep her two young children in one of the worst hotbeds of crime in this city, was sent to the county jail and her children placed in a charitable institution. She is Mrs. Jennie Rought and her place is on lower Lackawanna avenue.

The children were in Alderman Miller's office last evening and told a story that is difficult to believe. One of them is a girl ten years of age and the other a boy of eight. Both of them carry their mother's name, Mrs. Jennie Rought. She is a native of England and her father works on a farm in Nicholson and an effort will be made to have him care for the children. If he refuses they will be placed in some charitable institution.

DATE OF THE CONVENTION.

Decided Upon by the Members of Republican Standing Committee of the Third District.

The first preparatory step for next fall's local campaign was taken yesterday by the Republican standing committee of the Third legislative district which met in the arbitration room of the court house in the afternoon and selected a date for holding the convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature.

It was a quiet, harmonious, business-like meeting with no outcropping of feeling such as might be expected where a half dozen aggressive men are looking for a nomination, and each is watching that one of his competitors obtains an undue advantage over him in the selection of some particular date for a convention.
