provement Society.

There is talk on this side that number of well known young men with sher will speak on "The Harvest of business ideas are about to form a stock company for the purpose of purchasing all the land close to Lake Winola. It is intended to build cottages around the lake for rental. MRS. DAVIS BURIED.

The funeral of the late Mrs. D. M. Davis took place yesterday from the family home on South Hyde Park avenue. Many friends of the family from points up and down the valley attended the obsequies. Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, and Rev. H. H. Harris, of Calvary Baptist church, of Taplor, officiated. The ser-mons were eulogistic of the character of the deceased. The best tribute of all was the large concourse which followed the corpse to the grave and in the many handsome floral tributes, some of which were: a pilliw, by Miss Louisa Davis; a star and crescent, John Ludwig; anchor, D. M. Davis; wreath, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Raught; bouquet, Mrs. Roscar; bouquet, Miss Maggie Walters; bouquet, Mrs. Leah Williams, basket of flowers, Mrs. Jenkin Harris, of Taylor; The pall bearers were: Thomas Reese. Joseph Reynolds, Henry P. Davles, William W. Reese, of Taylor; Daniel Thomas and William Johns. Among the out-of-town people at the funeral were; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reese, and daughter, Ida, Morgan Thomas, of Carbondale: George Price, of Olyphant: Evan Thomas, Mrs. Griffiths, Jones, of Kingston; Mrs. Maddock, Thomas, of Plymouth; David Davis, John Griffiths, of Manticoke.

LEGISLATIVE CAMPAIGN.

The legislative campaign is not very exciting at the present time. People seem to seldom think about it and the candidates for the Republican nomination-the only ones in sight-are doing only a little work and that is thought ineffective owing to the low condition of the public pulse. In conversation with one of the West Side candidates yesterday he said that the county ticket is now the foremost topic. The leaders now seem to be E. E. Robathan. Isaac Jones, M. E. Sanders, and there is a feeling that Hon. John R. Farr' is also working for the nomination. Others mentioned are H. A. Hatton and H. D. Jones.

Twentieth Ward Republicans Will Make a Fise Showing in Ratification

Parade---Band Wants Pay. Imbued with the spirit with being second to none in the parade in enthusiasm if not in numbers, the Republicans of the Twentieth ward have proceeded to have everything in readiness to join in the ratification of Mc-Kinley and Hobart next Tuesday evening. There are about 250 Republicans in the ward, and every man of, them will be out, judging from indica-Hon. Alex. T. Connell will have the caps at Philips' hall Monday evening and each man will call around and get ne, so that it will not be necessary to have any delay in fitting men the evening of the parade. The request is made that all who can will be around on Monday evening to get fitted with a cap. Announcement will be made later as to the time the Twentleth ward club will assemble on Tuesday evening at the hall.

THEY WANT THEIR WAGES. Somebody hired the Forest band to play for William Connell Hose company in the firemen's annual parade or September 26, 1895. The band charges $50 for the services on such occasions. They are still whistling for the money earned on that day. One says that Dan Battle hired the band, another that John Gibbons did, and another that the company did. The delinquency caused a good deal of gossip in fire men's circles, and rather than see the bill outlawed a collection was taken up to defray it. Ex-chief of the fire department, H. F. Ferber, gave $10 out of his own pocket, and others contributed various sums, until the total reached $60. The band has not received it yet.

They have recently purchased new uni-forms and could apply the $50 very readily at the present time. INJURED AT THE STEEL MILL. William Yanko, of South Washington avenue, was injured at the North works yesterday afternoon, by being struck on the lower part of the back with a bar of iron. He is in a serious condition, but his recovery is expected. The ambulance conveyed him to the Moses Taylor hospital. He is a young man, 24 years old, and unmarried.

HEWITT WOULD NOT TAKE IT. The first thing Sanitary Officer Burke did Saturday morning after reaching his office was to telephone to Hewitt's bone factory and order the carcass of John Myers' horse removed. He was promised that the matter would be attended to, but when Mr. Hewitt's teamster reached the scene he refused to take the animal away. After today the residents will have reason no longer to complain. A scavvenger will remove the carcass to the crematory, and disinfectants will be used at the barn.

He came to this country from Lianelly, Wales, about 25 years ago and has resided in this Pacific Mall section since that time. During that time he made many friends and became widely known.
