Exciting Runaway in Keyser Valley Henry Ibsen Badly Injured-Yesterday's Funerals.

Keyser Valley witnessed an exciting and serious runaway yesterday morning when rienry Ibsen, a Swede, the driver of a horse, was badly injured. Ibeen is a huckster. He was selling his truck in the settlement above the Continental breaker when his horse became unmanageble and ran down toward the railroad whin passes under the breaker. Ibsen stayed in the wagon holding to a single rein.

Just before reaching the track the horse swered from the road and ran into a gondola which stood on the switch. A stop was thus made. The driver was thrown out and received a bad cut on the head just over the left ear. His right arm was also bruised. The horse was uninjured and the wagon escaped with a single smashed wheel Ibsen lives on Luzerne serect.
