A PRETTY WEDDING.

Miss Elvira Duncan and Glen Richey United.

A pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan on Garfield avenue, where their youngest daughter Elvira Cook Duncan was united to Glen Richey of Hornellsville, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Beecher, of the Second Presbyterian church, and was only witnessed by returned to South Gibson. the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The couple were attended by Master William Duncan and Miss Grace Warden, of Pittsburg, a niece of the bride. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served and the guests made merry until the departure of the newly wedded petr on the Eric flyer. They will at once take up their residence in Hornellsville.

Among the out of town guests who witnessed the marriage were Mrs. G. J. Warden, of Pittsburg, sister to the bride, Miss Mary S Rogers, of Utica, O., and Mrs. Seeley, of Hornellsville.

There is no doubt but what the new arrangement will meet with favor on all hands, and though it is but an experiment, it will probably be a permanent fixture.

SHIPPED BACK.

A Poverty-Stricken Family Turned Over to Proper Authorities.

The poor department of this city succeeded in getting rid of a burden yesterday when Lois Bailey and her seven children were shipped to Deposit, N. Y., where they will be sup-ported by the proper authorities.

The family have been supported by the city for several months. Part of the time they have been sick and in a very wretched condition.

They originally came from Deposit and were accompanied by an uncle. The uncle being arrested and sent to iall soon after their arrival, they were left without support and were obliged to apply to the city for aid.

In the last two days over $250 has been sent in and there is no reason why the amount should not reach $2,000. Carbondale has always had a reputation for generosity and she should not fani in this time of need. There is talk of having a benefit entertainment for the relief of the sufferers.

Land turtles are said to attain an age of one hundred years and more.

WHY WE REFJOICE. Susquehanna county rejoices and is exceedingly glad on account of the new coal fields recently discovered over in Choconut township. Edward O'Connell, the happy discoverer, who is a descendant of the great Irish orator, Daniel O'Connell, will join the coal combine at once. About the best news in connec tion with the find is, that the coal "will burn." This is quite excitable. Mr Keeley's motor will do almost everything except mote; the Wyoming county oil well gave up several things, but no oil, Starraucca's coal mine produced salt water and bluestone, the latest designed air ship will not fly; and the will burn. Sound the newgag and beat of Philadelphia, are visiting his parents | the tom-tom.

VETERANS MEET. The tenth annual reunion of Batteres F and G. First Artillery, Pennsylvania Reserves Volunteer corps, was held in this place on Friday and Saturday last. Quite a number of the veterans were present, including the president, Colonel R. Bruce Ricketts, of Wilkes-Barre. On Friday evening there was a business meeting in Knights of Pythias hall, when all of the old oficers of the association were reelected. The reunion of '97 will be held in Wilkes-Barre. A banquet followed the business meeting.

MINOR MENTION.

The funeral of John Doolittle, of anesboro, occurred on Monday afternoon, Rev. C. C. Voorman, pastor of the Lanesboro Methodist Episcopal church, daughter Florence, of Elmhurst, spent officiating.

A PASSING GLANCE.

A Starrucca man who has no faith in banks, hid a role of bills in an old trunk. The other day when he wanted to pay the tax collector, he discovered that the rats had eaten up his wealth He is now a rabid silverite.

Bicycles are becoming cheaper-every body said they would. We received a circular from a Boston firm, the other day, offering to send a bottle of killyou-outck medicine and a high grade $75 bicycle for $1.25. We wired the firm, Politician Kilrow, of Great Bend, was at their expense, to sell its wheels for $75, and, after deducting the $1.25, to send us the balance-and give the medicine to the purchaser of the wheels. He will probably need it. One never loses anything in the end by being generous.

Montrose still hopes to be connected with the proposed Binghamton and Williamsport road. It is quite as likely to be connected with the road running from Jappa to Jerusalem.

Scott Harris, of Owego, an old-time Erie passenger conductor, is visiting Susquehanna relatives. Scott conducted first-class trains in the halcyon and vociferous days when a milk ticket would be accepted from a friend for transportation. Those good old days are past and gone.

The Erie anticipates a big excursion season. It is booming Shohola Glen, which is no great starter.
