Tonight will close the fair at the Africar Methodist Episcopal chapel for this week. The principal feature will be a cake walk, which will take place at 10 p. m. A stormy afternoon prevented the committee from having the baby show. It will take place on next Tuesday afternoon. The ladies are well pleased with the success they are having and solicit the liberal patronage of the public.

The teachers' committee of the board of school control held a meeting last night to complete its report which will be pre sented at Monday night's meeting. On account of the changes made in the high school and the work of rebuilding others that will be in progress next term the committee has found some difficulty in so arranging the schools as to provide places for all of the teachers without havpinces for all of the teachers without ing more than is absolutely necessary.

Mrs. Catherine Steinle died very suddenly of apoplexy at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. H. A. Kaufhold, 1423 Pine street, at 10.30 yesterday morning. She was 66 years and 8 months old and is survived by a son and two daughters, Charles Steinle, of New York city; Mrs. H. A. Kaufhold and Mrs. Leopold Johler, of this city. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be held in the German Methodist Episcopal church on Adams avenue and interment will be made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Miss Vida Johnson, of Nicholson, gave a plano recital last evening before an au-dience comfortably filling Mr. South-worth's spacious studio. With the exception of the first and last number, which were arranged for plane and organ. Miss Johnson played the entire programme without notes. This added to a charming manner at the plane made the rendering of the various numbers pleasing indeed, All presnt were delighted with the event and many were the congratulations received by both Mr. Southworth and his pupil. Miss Johnson was ably assisted by Relph Williams, whose singing was a surprise to all. Mr. Williams has a beau tiful voice and bids fair to make a fine future showing. Last but not least, Miss Black, well known among musical cir-cyles, added not a little to the occasion with her clear bird-like voice.

His love for Mary had grown cold. The invitations were recalled and the marriage was declared off. For a time she was prostrated at the cruel turn of fortune, but Time, the great healer, son wore her grief away, and she determined to prosecute her fa.se lover for breach of promise.

About a week or so after the interrupted wedding, Mary and her guard-Mulberry, Linden and Spruce streets ian came to the office of Attorney John F. Murphy in Liberty Hall and stated the case to him. The papers were finitely arranged the line of march yet forthwith drawn up and a suit for $10-000 damages for breach of promise was instituted in court against Phillips.

Deputy Prothonotary John F. Cum-Stanton represented the defendant. Evidence was taken before the arbitrators to show that Phillips had called on her steadily and that all arrangements of their marriage had been made, but that at the last moment for no other reason than wanting to marry some one else with whom he became smitten, Phillips refused to marry her. The arbitrators agreed that she was entitled to $1,000 for the trick played upon her and they gave their award in her favor about two weeks ago, and It was entered as judgment against Phillips. During the trial of the case before the arbitrators Mary swore that she is not over 17 years old, and that statement did not coincide very well with the oath she took when the license was obtained, hence the warrant on which they were arrested yesterday. Attorney Murphy secured a bondsman for them in the evening and they were liberated from fall.

Immediately upon the passage of this resolution the mayor of the city shall enforce the law prohibiting the occupation of the city streets with such vehicles or obstructions."

Not a single vote was cast against the resolution, the councilmen apparently having arrived at the unanimous conclusion that the "street cafe" is not troducing the resolution Mr. Flanaghan said to a Tribune reporter that the lunch wagons were playing sad havoc with the trade of restaurant keepers, who are compelled to pay a heavy tax and heavy rent. Furthermore there was no good reason why these wagons should have the right to occupy the streets when the humble banana merchant will not be allowed to let his push cart stand on any of the thoroughfares of the city.
