BRYAN IS SELECTED

Famous Orator from Nebraska Is Nominated for President of the United States.

ON THE FIFTH BALLOT

Amid Scenes of the Wildest Excitement the Favorite Son of Nebraska Passes the Veteran Champion of Silver, Richard Parks Bland, in the Race for the Presidential Nomination.

Chicago, July 10.—William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, was selected today as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in the campaign for the presidency of the United States.

There were no transparencies, no life-sized lithographs, no special bands of music to attract the eloquent young man, lawyer and newspaper man.

The battle of the ballots was fought with a doggedness that showed a firm determination on the part of those pledged to the service of the party.

When Missouri withdrew her support of Bland, the race had been won and William J. Bryan was the man.

CONVENTION IN DETAIL

Work at the Morning Session--Result of Ballots, Etc. Chicago, July 10.—The fourth day's session of the Democratic national convention opened in torrid heat untempered by any of the cooling breezes.

the same clergyman who officiated the last two days.

The chair immediately recognized Mr. Harrity, of Pennsylvania, who, standing in the main aisle was greeted with cheers.

He said: I desire to say that in obedience to the instructions given by the Democratic state convention the Pennsylvania delegation presents the name of Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, as a candidate for the presidency.

Other simply said "not voting." Minnesota brought Mr. Stevenson's name before the convention, but not a solitary cheer greeted it.

The state of New York adopted the same course as the state of New Jersey. Mr. Flower rose and said: "In view of the platform adopted by this convention, I am instructed as a delegate from the state of New York, to say that the delegates have agreed not to participate in the selection of a candidate for president and vice president and therefore they decline to vote."

When the state of Wisconsin was called a contention arose among its delegates some of the silver men claiming that the unit rule did not govern the action and the gold men contending that it did.

A copy of these instructions was sent to the chair and was read by one of the secretaries. It directs the delegates from Wisconsin to "vote a unit on all subjects and candidates as the majority may determine."

The chair ruled on the point of order raised by the discussion. He first read again the instructions of the Wisconsin delegation and said: "The chair rules that these are not instructions to abstain from voting."

The vote of Wisconsin was then announced: Declining to vote, 19; Bland, 4; Blackburn, 1.

The second ballot was begun at 12.35. As soon as it was started Senator White vacated the chair, placing the gavel in the hands of Mr. Richardson, of Pennsylvania.

Result of the first ballot as follows: First vote: Bland ..... 223; Bryan ..... 150; Boies ..... 36; Blackburn ..... 32; McLean ..... 27; Matthews ..... 24; Pattison ..... 15; Penney ..... 9; Russell ..... 2; Tillman ..... 2; Teller ..... 8; Absent and not voting ..... 185; Hill ..... 1.

The third ballot was then begun at 1.30 p. m. New York on the first ballot, as on the second, remained mute when the name of the state was called and the clerk repeated the call in his loudest tone, but without result.

Result of the third ballot was announced at 1.50 p. m. as follows: Bland ..... 291; Boies ..... 36; Matthews ..... 34; McLean ..... 27; Bryan ..... 219; Blackburn ..... 27; Pattison ..... 15; Stevenson ..... 9; Hill ..... 1; Absent or not voting ..... 162.

The result of the fourth ballot had only been partially announced when it was interrupted by another intensely dramatic scene. When Bryan's big gain from 219 to 280, heading Bland and all the other candidates, was announced, were raised on the standards of several states and big shouting was indulged in with a view of stampeding the convention to his support.

THE NEW YORK MEN LIABLE TO BOLT

They Refuse to Discuss the Nomination of W. J. Bryan.

MEMBERS ARE RETURNING HOME

Ex-Governor Flower is Left Behind to Act as Spokesman--Hickley States That They Require a Little Time for Action.

Chicago, July 10.—"I was a Democrat before this convention, and I am a Democrat still." These were the words of Senator David B. Hill, when, he was asked by a representative of the United Press late this afternoon to express an opinion upon the selection of Mr. Bryan.

Without waiting for the nomination of vice president by the Hon. ex-Secretary William C. Whitney and Jas. W. Hickley, the chairman of the New York Democratic State Committee, left Chicago and returned home.

Mr. Flower when asked his opinion of the nomination of Bryan, said: "The nominee fits the platform. There can be no doubt what one or the other means. Both go together and neither is better nor worse than the other."
