JOHN BROWN BURIED.

Laid at Rest in St. Rose's Cemetery. Sermon by Rev. J. J. Griffin.

Yesterday morning the remains of John Brown were buried from St. Rose's church. The body was taken from the home on Cliff street to the church at half past nine, where Rev. J. J. Griffin celebrated requiem mass. He also preached the sermon and took for his text the thirteenth verse of the twenty-fifth chapter of St. Matthew: "Watch ye and pray for ye know not the day nor the hour." The sermon was a very able one and many tributes of respect were paid to the deceased.

Many people were present at the services and followed the remains to the grave. Two societies, the Catholic Mutual Benefit association and the Pioneer Father Mathew society of which the deceased was a member attended in a body.

The pall bearers were: Patrick McCabe, John McCawley, Richard Kilpatrick, James Farrell, James Conner, James Lynady, John Morrison, and James Mannion.

SINGERS TO MEET.

A Mixed Chorus to be Organized for the Grand Festival.

Those persons who are interested in the organization of a choir to compete for the first prize in the grand festival to be given by the Welsh Baptist church on August 22, are invited to meet this evening at the church where the matter will be talked over, preparations being getting down to work. It is hoped that a large number of people will be present as it behooves us to uphold the reputation of the city in the contest. The choir will be drilled by a competent person who has had experience as a leader.

The festival will undoubtedly be very successful as the number of choirs who have signified their willingness of competing is quite large.

She was in her bedroom on the second floor, ready to retire, and had been using a large bottle of medicine for rheumatism. In attempting to place the bottle on a shelf, the bottle fell, striking a burning lamp that was on a stand directly beneath the shelf. The lamp fell to the floor and exploded. The burning oil rapidly spread over the carpet and ignited the bedclothes. Mrs. Paatz grasped a part of some of the burning material to throw it out, and while descending a flight of stairs she fell. She managed to reach the porch with the flames, but not until she was enveloped in them. An alarm of fire was sounded, and both hose companies responded, but their services were not needed, as the flames in the bedroom had been smothered. That Tired Feel- Hood's Sarsaparilla. Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people work on their nerves, and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired feeling is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists, SS. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. 25 cents.
