He Says Bryan Is Just the Man to Lend a Crowd of Faddists.

London, July 12.-A reporter today had an interview with Mr. Chauncey M. Depew on the subject of the nomination of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Depew said: "I think that the nomination of Ma Bryan is the best the convention could have made. He represents all the irra-irrepressible conflict' has divided both tional, unsound, and absurd theories that the convention proposes to materialize in the laws if the party gets into power. Excepting his two terms in congress. Mr. Bryan has had no experience in legislation. He is eloquent, emotional, and sentimental. He belongs to the imaginative school, and is just the ma nto capture a crowd of impracticables and faddists.

"The convention cut loose from the time-honored principles of the Demo cratic party and pushed the old ship, al

The mails of yesterday and today have brought Major McKinley in the aggregate more than a hundred letters from sound money Democrats in varlous parts of the country. The writers make their communications in confidence, of course, but ninety-five per cent. of these latters contain direct promise of support, coupled with vigorous observations on the action of the Chicago convention. A significant fact in connection with this correspondence is that quite one third of these letters are from western states where the inflation sentiment is supposed to be overpowering.
