

The Scranton Tribune

Daily and Weekly. No Sunday Edition.

Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company, Second Floor, Commercial Building, South 4th St., Scranton, Pa.

S. P. KINGSBURY, Pres. and Gen'l. Mgr.
E. H. RIPLEY, Sec'y and Treas.
LIVIE RICHARD, Editor.
W. W. DAVID, Business Manager.
W. W. YOUNG, Asst. Mgr.

Entered at the postoffice at Scranton, Pa., as second-class mail matter.

"Tribune" is the recognized journal for advertising in Scranton. It is the best advertising medium in Northeastern Pennsylvania. "Tribune" is known.

For Weekly Tariff, Issued Every Saturday, Contains Twelve Handmade Pages, with an Abundance of News, Fiction, and Well-Edited Material. For Those Who Cannot Take This Daily Edition, the Weekly is Recommended as the Best Bargain Going. Only $1 a Year, in Advance.

The Tribune is for Sale Daily at the D. L. and W. Station at Hoboken.

SCRANTON, JULY 14, 1906.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

NATIONAL.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY, of Ohio.
For Vice-President,
GARRETT A. HOBART, of New Jersey.

STATE.

Congressmen-at-Large,
GALUSHA A. KNOWL, of Susquehanna.
SAMUEL A. PAVENPORT, of Erie.
Election Day, Nov. 3.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

1. Tariff, not only to furnish adequate revenue for the necessary expenses of the government, but to protect American labor from degradation to the wage level of other lands. 2. Reciprocal agreements for open markets and discriminating duties in favor of the American merchant marine. 3. Maintenance of the existing gold standard and opposition to free coinage of silver except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world. 4. Pensions and preferences for veterans of the Union army. 5. A firm, vigorous and dignified foreign policy "and all our interests in the western hemisphere carefully watched and guarded." 6. The Hawaiian Islands to be controlled by the United States; the Nicaraguan canal to be built; a naval station in the West Indies. 7. Protection of American citizens and property in Cuba. 8. Reassertion of the Monroe doctrine. 9. Eventual withdrawal of European powers from this hemisphere and union of all English-speaking people in this continent. 10. The United States actively to use influence to restore peace and give independence to Cuba. 11. Enlargement of the navy, defense of harbors and seacoasts. 12. Exclusion of interests and immoral immigrants. 13. Repeal of the civil service law. 14. A free ballot and an honest count. 15. Repeal of the law of 1890. 16. Repeal of the law of 1890. 17. Approval of a free homestead law. 18. Admission of the remaining territories, representation for Alaska and abolition of corporate federal officers. 19. Sympathy with legitimate efforts to lessen intemperance. 20. Sympathetic reference to "the rights and interests of woman."—Concluded by the Times-Herald.

Despite Bryan's loquacity it is money that talks, and the Bryan style of dollar is 47 cents shy.

Tonight's Ratification.

It is desirable that every Republican living within convenient access to Scranton should attend tonight's ratification of the nomination of McKinley and Hobart. As the first formal recognition locally of the importance of the approaching presidential campaign, tonight's celebration should be as enthusiastic and as largely attended as possible. It will be, in itself, an occasion of unusual interest. The oratory, the parade, the music and the fireworks will combine to give it many features of a grand public entertainment, so that wholly apart from its political significance it will merit the observation of every admirer of pleasing and picturesque spectacles, and every lover of wholesome excitement.

But it will especially appeal to Republicans and to those who intend this year to co-operate with the Republican party, because it will be in commemoration of the most popular presidential candidacy upon the grandest declaration of political principles in the recent history of American politics. If there is any locality in the United States which has reason to feel an especially warm interest in the present platform and nominees of the Republican party it is the Lackawanna valley. The workers in our mines and mills, the tradesmen who do business with the families of these wage-earners, and the employers and investors whose possessions are represented in the industries of this valley, each and all have real and palpable interest in the success of Major McKinley's candidacy and in the restoration at Washington of the ideas which he and Colonel Hobart so brilliantly represent.

During the past three years every one of these men has consciously suffered loss, and that loss has rapidly diffused itself throughout the whole community. It may have been through compulsory wage-reduction under the stress of Democratic manipulation with the tariff; or through curtailed profits or through lessened sales and a restricted volume of cash receipts, but in some way, clearly defined and painfully felt, the loss has pressed itself home, and it has been a loss which would never have occurred had the prosperous conditions of the McKinley tariff remained undisturbed by the advent to national power of an administration pledged to overthrow that tariff and substitute in its place the doubt-breeding, debt-creating, deficit-producing monstrously which Democratic incapacity subsequently spawned.

The march of events is rapidly bringing to the people of this region an effective opportunity to pass judgment on their maltreatment by the present free trade regime; and at the same time to express their opinion of the new connection of anarchy, repudiation and solicited disaster which the Democratic successors of the free trade wreckers have just dished up at Chicago. That opportunity will not be reached in fullest amplitude until the 2nd day of next November; but the demonstration of this evening will give to the voters of Lackawanna county a good chance to practice in the direction of their anticipated activity on that final day of political judgment. Therefore, every friend of Protection, every believer in Sound Money and every admirer of prosperity in these parts should make sure to be on hand tonight, ready for business.

Both Bryan and McKinley are of Scotch-Irish extraction. But just about there the marked similarity ends.

"The money of the United States, and every kind of form of it, whether of paper, silver or gold, must be as good as the best in the world. It must not only be current at its full face value at home, but it must be counted at par in any and every commercial center of the globe. The dollar paid to the farmer, the wage-earner and the pensioner must continue forever equal in purchasing and debt-paying power to the dollar paid to any government creditor."—McKinley in His Speech of Acceptance.

Mr. Bryan may be a glib talker, but what the people want in the White House is a safe and sound thinker.

Foreign Ignorance of America.

In the light of last week's developments at Chicago it is exceedingly droll to follow M. Paul Leroy-Beaulieu, the French economist, through the article which he has contributed to the July Forum on "The Presidential Outlook as Europeans View It." M. Beaulieu apparently takes his knowledge of American politics from the New York Evening Post or some other equally delusive Mugwump source; for the whole burden of his argument is that if McKinley is elected, Europeans will suffer first from a renewal in this country of the high tariff of six years ago, and secondly, from the free coinage of silver. He swallows the whole Mugwump fiction that McKinley favors unbound money and makes the basis of eight pages of doubtless sincere but certainly ludicrous philosophizing.

The Frenchman's first grievance is that "if, under the lead of Mr. McKinley, the United States shall increase decidedly the import duties on European merchandise, it will unquestionably give a strong stimulus to European protectionism." And he adds: "No one can deny that this would check the progress of the United States," a statement to which we take direct exception, for the sufficient reason that what Europe buys from us she has to buy, and will not, therefore, be so self-punitive as to tax it by the imposition of import duties which her own population would, in the long run, have to pay.

The second article in M. Beaulieu's creed of discontent is that "Mr. McKinley passes for a partisan of silver. His election would appear as a triumph of bimetalism." That belief evidently causes the French economist grief because he declares, with the next breath, that the re-establishment of bimetalism, if it could be brought about—a contingency which he thinks impossible—"would plunge all civilized nations into one of those profound monetary crises that throw exchange and production into confusion for a long series of years." "If Mr. McKinley attains the presidency of the United States," our Paris friend adds, "he may be able to disturb his country, to break up the steady current of its business, to bring on a credit crisis; but it must not be thought that he would have the slightest chance of securing an international agreement for the restoration of bimetalism."

All of this, of course, sounds irresistibly funny to the American who knows that the candidacy of Mr. McKinley stands for none of these perils, but, on the contrary, is daily receiving the endorsement of thousands of Democratic business men who view it as the country's one alternative from a disastrous panic. Yet funny as it undoubtedly is as an exhibition of foreign ignorance concerning American conditions, it also has a more serious aspect. The man who wrote the Forum article, who thought he knew enough about our politics to instruct us concerning them, is one of the leading economists of Europe, and the editor of the most influential journal of economics in the world. It is his business to study the politics of the leading nations and to comment upon them. Not only foreign thinkers in the various learned professions but also foreign statesmen and foreign financiers draw their conclusions largely at second hand from the writings of such men as M. Beaulieu. When he shows such radical ignorance in a comment designed for American perusal, how can they be expected to have rightful views of us who receive them through the medium of his more careless and presumably still more ignorant ordinary comments upon American themes?

Since it has apparently come to pass that prosperity in the United States is conditioned to a considerable extent upon the state of foreign opinion respecting our legislation and our securities, it is devoutly to be wished that foreigners might learn the truth about us and not be led through false information to make our prosperity their foothill.

"Our trouble is not with the character of the money that we have, but with the threat to debate it. We have the same currency that we had in 1892—good the world over and unquestioned by any people. Then, too, we had unexampled credit and prosperity. Our difficulty now is to get that money in circulation and invested in productive enterprises which furnish employment to American labor. This is impossible with the distrust that hangs over the country at the present time, and every effort to make our dollars or any one of them worth less than one hundred cents each only serves to increase the distrust."—McKinley to the Foraker club.

The Newspaper Bolt.

The following Democratic and Independent papers refuse to support the Chicago platform. In the East—Boston Herald, Ind. Dem. Boston Globe, Sun, Dem. Providence Journal, Ind. Hartford Times, Dem. New Haven Register, Dem. Manchester, N. H., Union, Dem. New York Sun, Dem. New York Times, Dem. New York Herald, Ind. Dem. New York Post, Ind. Dem. New York Staats Zeitung, Dem. New York World, Dem. Philadelphia Record, Dem. Philadelphia Times, Dem. Buffalo Courier, Dem. Buffalo Inquirer, Dem. Syracuse Courier, Dem. Elizabeth, N. J., Herald, Dem. Trenton Times, Dem. Trenton American, Dem. Brooklyn Eagle, Dem. Utica Observer, Dem. Newark News, Dem. New Haven News, Dem. Troy, N. Y., Press, Dem. Hartford Telegram, Dem. Pawtucket Post, Dem. New York Sunday Call, Dem. Bridgeport Evening Farmer, Dem. Buffalo Democrat, Dem. Eastern Express, Dem. In the West—Chicago Chronicle, Dem. Chicago Staats Zeitung, Dem. Detroit Free Press, Dem. St. Paul Globe, Dem. Sioux City Tribune, Dem. Davenport, Ia., Democrat, Dem. In the South—Petersburg Index-Appal, Dem. Baltimore Sun, Dem. Baltimore News, Dem. Richmond Times, Dem. Charleston News, Dem. Louisville Courier-Journal, Dem. Louisville Post, Dem. Louisville Times, Dem. Richmond Star, Dem. St. Louis Anzeiger des Westens, Dem. Nashville Banner, Dem. Memphis Scimitar, Dem. Chattanooga News, Dem. New Orleans Picayune, Dem. Galveston News, Dem. Dallas News, Dem. Austin Statesman, Dem.

THE POPOCRAT PLATFORM.

From the Times-Herald.
Down with the national government.
Down with the Supreme court!
Down with national banks!
Down with national credit!
Down with civil service!
Down with statesmen and statesman-chief!
Down with the wisdom of the fathers and the traditions of the past!
Hurrah for "states' rights!"
Hurrah for repudiation and dishonest money!
Hurrah for free coinage of the world's silver at our expense!
Hurrah for public general bankruptcy and irreparable disaster!
Hurrah for plunder, for "to the victors belong the spoils!"
Hurrah for the degenerates and the conspirators against stable government and established order!
N. B.—If you don't like the platform you may go to —!

THE REAL ISSUE.

From the Times-Herald.
There is no question of the west against the east or the east against the south. The issue is between honor and dishonor, the debt-paying classes everywhere against the repudiators wherever found.

SHOULD RECIPROCATE.

From the Philadelphia Record.
The Chicago platform extends sympathy to Cuba; and enlightened Cubans will reciprocate when they shall have read the whole document.

READY FOR WAR.

From the Washington Post.
The next bulletin from Hon. J. Sterling Morton's department will advise that this is the time to dig up the buried hatchets.

THEY WILL OBJECT.

From the Times-Herald.
The 750,000 pensioners have a chance to say whether or not they want their monthly stipend cut in two.

THE DIFFERENCE.

From the Times-Herald.
Bryan was the whim of a reckless choice of the people. McKinley the deliberate choice of the people.

HIS FATE FORECAST.

From the Times-Herald.
Mr. Bryan will be known in history as the man who ran against McKinley.

VERY MUCH EASIER.

From the Philadelphia Record.
It is easier to stampede a convention than to stampede "all the people."

WHO NEVER WON.

From the Philadelphia Record.
Bryan magnetic? Undoubtedly. So was poor Blaine!

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Aja chus The Tribune Astrologer.

Astrological cast: 3:23 a. m., for Tuesday, July 14, 1906.

It will be apparent to a child born on this day that chronic debaters on the currency question seldom convince anyone beside themselves.

If "Boy Orator" Bryan fulfills Mr. Boland's predictions about "sweeping the country," it is to be hoped that he will send sprinkler ahead before he arrives in Scranton. The street commissioners' gang raises all the dust required in this city.

It is a pleasure to note that the Patton boom returned from Chicago in good condition with none of the varnish knocked off.

Democracy seems now to be in the state that would be characterized on Professor Coles' calendar as the "low ebb."

"The Pennsylvania farmer is in doubt as to whether it is the army worm or the 'gold bug' that is most to be feared this season."

The Scranton Times in free silver garb looks very much like a man with his coat on wrong side out.

All men are created equal in the eyes of every one save the tax collector.

Ajanechus' Advice.
This is a good year for the prudent Jeffersonian to be "out of politics."

NO JOINT DEBATE.

Major Handy, in Times-Herald.
Personally Bryan is a winsome man on a first acquaintance, but there are those who say that he does not wear well, and others who predict an immediate enlargement of his head. He will, no doubt, make a picturesque and rather effective campaigner. Nothing indicates his sublime confidence in himself more than his already expressed determination to challenge Major McKinley to take the stump with him. He thinks it would be a fine thing for him to play David with the Goliath of protection and sound money. No doubt the performance would be interesting, but it is not at all likely that Major McKinley would lend himself to any such scheme to magnify the boy orator and his cause. Major McKinley is many years past the boy orator stage of existence, and is out of practice in moot courts and young men's debating societies. The contrast of their candidacies will be sufficient. The old soldier has little time or inclination for going through the manual of arms. I think Mr. Bryan will have to do his campaigning without the advertisement of McKinley's presence on the same stump.

IDEAL CANDIDATES BOTH.

McKinley and Hobart are the highest types of American citizenship. They stand for honesty, for integrity, for loyalty to every American interest, for the protection of every factory, every farm and every freckle. They stand on a platform which means that every industry in the land will receive the protection necessary to its existence and extension; a platform that declares in unmistakable terms for a currency based on an unvarying standard; a platform that promises re-enactment of reciprocity; a development of our sugar industry; an adequate duty on wool and woolsens; a platform that discriminates in favor of American shipbuilding, just pensions, a vigorous and dignified foreign policy, a sympathy with down-trodden people of less fortunate nations; for a free ballot; for arbitration; for temperance and morality.—From President George E. Green's Address to Republican League of New York.

JUSTICE AT LAST.

From the Pawtucket Post.
The coal barons of Pennsylvania are a distinct class in themselves and they are not in business simply for the fun of it. Great coal interests are concerned that require master minds in the handling, and many thousands of accounts are open on the books of the coal companies. It means very much when there is even but a slight rise in coal prices and when the basis figures are reached then is the time when the miner begins to receive some fair return for his labor. It is merely the truth to say that the coal barons, so-called, are the very life-blood of the great anthracite coal fields, and as they find room for investment and the development of their territory, they are engaging in enterprise that give employment to very many thousands of people.

It is a fact that in any material increase in coal prices the miner has a share, even though it may not be a large one, but the 200 rate is, as a rule, a fair one, and the fair thing to do in matters of this kind is to give the coal baron his due.

THE POPOCRAT PLATFORM.

From the Times-Herald.
Down with the national government.
Down with the Supreme court!
Down with national banks!
Down with national credit!
Down with civil service!
Down with statesmen and statesman-chief!
Down with the wisdom of the fathers and the traditions of the past!
Hurrah for "states' rights!"
Hurrah for repudiation and dishonest money!
Hurrah for free coinage of the world's silver at our expense!
Hurrah for public general bankruptcy and irreparable disaster!
Hurrah for plunder, for "to the victors belong the spoils!"
Hurrah for the degenerates and the conspirators against stable government and established order!
N. B.—If you don't like the platform you may go to —!

THE REAL ISSUE.

From the Times-Herald.
There is no question of the west against the east or the east against the south. The issue is between honor and dishonor, the debt-paying classes everywhere against the repudiators wherever found.

SHOULD RECIPROCATE.

From the Philadelphia Record.
The Chicago platform extends sympathy to Cuba; and enlightened Cubans will reciprocate when they shall have read the whole document.

READY FOR WAR.

From the Washington Post.
The next bulletin from Hon. J. Sterling Morton's department will advise that this is the time to dig up the buried hatchets.

THEY WILL OBJECT.

From the Times-Herald.
The 750,000 pensioners have a chance to say whether or not they want their monthly stipend cut in two.

THE DIFFERENCE.

From the Times-Herald.
Bryan was the whim of a reckless choice of the people. McKinley the deliberate choice of the people.

HIS FATE FORECAST.

From the Times-Herald.
Mr. Bryan will be known in history as the man who ran against McKinley.

VERY MUCH EASIER.

From the Philadelphia Record.
It is easier to stampede a convention than to stampede "all the people."

WHO NEVER WON.

From the Philadelphia Record.
Bryan magnetic? Undoubtedly. So was poor Blaine!

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Aja chus The Tribune Astrologer.

Astrological cast: 3:23 a. m., for Tuesday, July 14, 1906.

It will be apparent to a child born on this day that chronic debaters on the currency question seldom convince anyone beside themselves.

If "Boy Orator" Bryan fulfills Mr. Boland's predictions about "sweeping the country," it is to be hoped that he will send sprinkler ahead before he arrives in Scranton. The street commissioners' gang raises all the dust required in this city.

It is a pleasure to note that the Patton boom returned from Chicago in good condition with none of the varnish knocked off.

Democracy seems now to be in the state that would be characterized on Professor Coles' calendar as the "low ebb."

"The Pennsylvania farmer is in doubt as to whether it is the army worm or the 'gold bug' that is most to be feared this season."

The Scranton Times in free silver garb looks very much like a man with his coat on wrong side out.

All men are created equal in the eyes of every one save the tax collector.

Ajanechus' Advice.
This is a good year for the prudent Jeffersonian to be "out of politics."

NO JOINT DEBATE.

Major Handy, in Times-Herald.
Personally Bryan is a winsome man on a first acquaintance, but there are those who say that he does not wear well, and others who predict an immediate enlargement of his head. He will, no doubt, make a picturesque and rather effective campaigner. Nothing indicates his sublime confidence in himself more than his already expressed determination to challenge Major McKinley to take the stump with him. He thinks it would be a fine thing for him to play David with the Goliath of protection and sound money. No doubt the performance would be interesting, but it is not at all likely that Major McKinley would lend himself to any such scheme to magnify the boy orator and his cause. Major McKinley is many years past the boy orator stage of existence, and is out of practice in moot courts and young men's debating societies. The contrast of their candidacies will be sufficient. The old soldier has little time or inclination for going through the manual of arms. I think Mr. Bryan will have to do his campaigning without the advertisement of McKinley's presence on the same stump.

IDEAL CANDIDATES BOTH.

McKinley and Hobart are the highest types of American citizenship. They stand for honesty, for integrity, for loyalty to every American interest, for the protection of every factory, every farm and every freckle. They stand on a platform which means that every industry in the land will receive the protection necessary to its existence and extension; a platform that declares in unmistakable terms for a currency based on an unvarying standard; a platform that promises re-enactment of reciprocity; a develop-

GOLDSMITH'S GREAT BAZAAR.

GREAT MID-SUMMER CLEARING SALE

THE BULK OF OUR IMMENSE STOCK OF

Dry Goods and Carpets

—AT DEEPLY CUT PRICES.

Some at One-half, Some at Two-Thirds Early Season's Prices.

Lots Once Sold Out Cannot Be Replaced. Never

Could You Make a Little Money Go So

Far as Now. Take Advantage of

This Great Slaughter Sale

While the Stock Is Full and the Selection Best.

THE NEW WOMAN'S SHOE MUST BE SEEN TO BE APPRECIATED

The Most Perfect Fitting Shoe Made. All Full

Line in All Widths at

BANISTER'S

Don't Swear

FANCY HOME-GROWN BLACK RASPBERRIES RED RASPBERRIES CHERRY CURRANTS

First Pickings Always Best for Canning. Order Early.

W. H. PIERCE, PENN AVE. MARKET

PENNSYLVANIA ROOFING CO.

326 Washington Ave., SCRANTON, PA.

TELEPHONE 553.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Dentists.

C. C. LAUBACH, SURGEON DENTIST. No. 115 Wyoming Street, Scranton, Pa.

R. M. STRATTON, OFFICE COAL EXCHANGE.

Physicians and Surgeons.

DR. A. TRAPOLD, SPECIALIST IN Diseases of Women, corner Wyoming and Spruce streets, Scranton, O. office hours, Thursdays and Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

DR. KAY, 204 PENN AVE.; 1 to 5 P. M.; call 202. Dis. of women, obstetrics and all dis. of child.

DR. W. E. ALLEN, 512 NORTH WASHINGTON AVENUE.

DR. C. L. FRY, PRACTICE LIMITED, diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat; office 125 Wyoming ave. Res. 125 1/2 Vine street.

DR. L. M. GATES, 125 WASHINGTON AVENUE. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. Residence 309 Madison avenue.

DR. J. C. RATTSON, TUESDAYS and Fridays, at 505 Linden street. Office hours 1 to 4 p. m.

DR. S. W. LAMEREAUX, A SPECIALIST on chronic diseases of the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys and genito urinary organs, will occupy the office of Dr. Howe, 22 Adams avenue. Office hours 1 to 5 p. m.

W. G. BROOK, VETERINARY SURGEON. Horses, Cattle and Dogs treated. Hospital, 121 Linden street, Scranton. Telephone 287.

Loans.

THE REPUBLICAN SAVINGS AND Loan Association will loan you money on real estate and pay you better on investment than any other association. Call on S. N. Callender, Dime Bank building.

Wire Screens.

JOS. KUETTEL, REAR 11 LACKAWANNA AVENUE, SCRANTON, PA. Manufacturer of Wire Screens.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 125 and 127 FRANKLIN AVENUE. Rm. reasonable. P. ZEIGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. Passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

WESTMINSTER HOTEL, Cor. Sixteenth St. and Irving Place.

Rates, $2.50 per day and upwards. (American plan). R. N. ANABLE, Proprietor.

Merchandise Tailoring

Spring and Summer, from $3.00 up. Trousering and Overcoats, foreign and domestic fabrics, made to order to suit the most fastidious in price, fit and workmanship.

D. BECK, 337 Adams Ave.

CLOSING OUT SALE

OF HANAN & SON and E. C. BURT & CO.'S Goods.

$5 and $6 Shoes

For $3 and $3.50

AT THE

Standard Shoe Store

FINE REPAIRING.

BROADHEAD & HANKS

Lawyers.

WARREN & KNAPP, ATTORNEYS and Counsellors at Law, Republican building, Washington avenue, Scranton, Pa.

JESUPS & HAND, ATTORNEYS AND Counsellors at Law, Commonwealth building, Washington avenue.

W. H. JESSUP, MORRIS E. HAND, W. H. JESSUP, JR.

PATTERSON & WILCOX, ATTORNEYS and Counsellors at Law; offices 9 and 11th floors, 221 Washington ave., Scranton, Pa.

ROSEWELL H. PATTERSON, WILLIAM A. WILCOX.

ALFRED HAND, WILLIAM J. HAND, Attorneys and Counsellors, Commonwealth building, Rooms 11, 12 and 13.

FRANK T. OKELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Room 6, Coal Exchange, Scranton, Pa.

JAMES W. OAKFORD, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Rooms 8, 9 and 10, Commonwealth building.

SAMUEL W. EDGAR, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Office, 317 Spruce st., Scranton, Pa.

L. A. WATERS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 21 Lackawanna ave., Scranton, Pa.

URIE TOWNSEND, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Dime Bank Building, Scranton. Money to loan in large sums at 5 per cent.

C. R. PITCHER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Commonwealth building, Scranton, Pa.

C. COMEYOS, 221 SPRUCE STREET.

D. H. REPLEGUE, ATTORNEY-LOANS negotiated on real estate security. 40 Spruce street.

B. F. KILLAM, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 126 Wyoming ave., Scranton, Pa.

JAS. J. HAMILTON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, & Commonwealth Bldg., Scranton.