MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.
New York, July 15.—The Stock market was demoralized at one time today and the liquidations were on a wholesale scale. The break in prices which extended to 75 per cent. in the case of Lackawanna was the result of increased activity on the part of the bear leaders who are temporarily unopposed by the bulls, the engagement of $500,000 gold for shipment to Europe tomorrow and a belief that about two millions more will be exported on Saturday, the slight advance in sterling exchange and the illness of Cornelius Vanderbilt. A drop in United States bond prices of 1/2 cent of nearly two per cent., which is something very unusual, added to the nervousness which prevailed. The shrinkage in the gold reserve, however, gave the most concern and the withdrawals of the metal for shipment were used with good effect by those operating for lower prices. There was an entire absence of support and the friends of the Grangers, anti-trust coalers and industrialists stood by while the prices for their erstwhile favorites were cut down one and two cents between sales. The depreciation naturally uncovered a great number of stop loss orders and the selling for the account of holders whose margins had been exhausted reached large proportions. London was attracted by the low range and bought probably ten thousand shares, but this was a drop in the bucket and proved unavailing and far from heaving the downward movement is concerned. A number of the prominent issues touched the lowest figures of the year and notwithstanding this they were better disposed of than they were until now. This led to a general rally and the market left off steady in tone. Net changes show losses of 1/4 to 1/8, with a few exceptions. Total sales were $1,420,000.

WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Burglars Enter the Stores of Kresky, Bunnell & Co., and J. B. Doyle & Co.—Two Bellevue Weddings.
Amateur burglars plied their trade on this side during the early hours of yesterday morning when the stores of Kresky, Bunnell & Co., and J. B. Doyle & Co., both of Main avenue, were visited.
Mr. Doyle's loss is about $80. The thieves carried away two dozen razors, three revolvers, $5 in cash, two dozen table knives, five pen knives and other articles kept in hardware stores. The entrance was made through the back door which was forced open. There were four bolts on the door but a gas pipe in the hands of a strong, lusty man, evidently did the business. The losses were discovered when Mr. Doyle reached his store at daylight.
Police Officer Lowry discovered the raid on the Kresky store. At about 2 o'clock he noticed four men sitting on the steps in front of the establishment. The officer went around to the rear to watch their movements, but they suddenly disappeared. Afterward Lowry found the back door slightly ajar. Going into the store the evidence of a burglary was general. Things were topsy turvy and the condition of the firm's private desk was anything but private. Letters, bill heads and all else had been disarranged by the thieves.
The loss at this store is about $20. Most of the articles taken were of the dry goods order, but there is a dearth of cuff buttons in that particular case. About $1.25 was taken in money.
No clue to the burglars has been obtained. The Kresky job savors of juvenility. The entrance was made through the open window which was battered in at the recent fire and which was not afterward repaired. The window has bars but the spaces would admit a small body.

TWO BELLEVUE WEDDINGS.

Bellevue Heights had two marriages this week, one Tuesday night, another last night. The first was the wedding of Mrs. Mary Ann Jones, of Roland avenue, to Evan Lewis, of Avenue D. Rev. J. T. Morris, pastor of the Calvinistic Methodist church, performed the marriage ceremony. Both people are well known to the residents of the Heights. Miss Kathryn Morgan, of Roland avenue, and Edward Weeden, of the Heights, were united in marriage last evening by Rev. Morris. The event took place at the home of the bride's mother. Miss Morgan has a large circle of admiring friends. Mr. Weeden is a popular young man.
The engagement of Jenkin Jenkins and Mary Ann Thomas is announced. The marriage is an event of the immediate future.

PERSONAL AND NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Benjamin Evans, of Twelfth street, left Sunday for a western trip. Watson Morgan, David Harris, Will Collins and James Davis is the latest formed quartette for singing purposes. They will call themselves "The Tenors."
Judge and Mrs. H. M. Edwards are at the seaside.
The New club defeated the Browns yesterday by a score of 7 to 5. The next game will be on Friday. The opposing team to the News has not yet been selected. A challenge is hereby issued to any local amateur team.
St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday School will hold its picnic today in Weber's Grove. Free conveyance for the school and friends to and from the grove. The wagon will leave the church at the corner of Fourteenth and Washburn streets every hour in the forenoon and at 1:30 in the afternoon, and sail towards evening. Dinner and supper will be served on the grounds at a small cost. The public is invited.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Camp 323, Patriotic Order Sons of America, conducted a public installation of officers last evening in Mearns' hall, which was well filled with members of the order and men from the Patriotic Order True Americans. District President David J. Davis, of Eynon street, was in charge. The officers installed were: Charles E. House, president; J. W. Griffin, vice-president; J. D. Truebody, master of ceremonies; J. P. Harris, financial secretary; W. A. Harris, recording secretary; H. H. Hazlett, treasurer; A. B. Hazlett, inspector; William Lyman, outside guardian; Wilbur Busby, chaplain; Archie Busby, past president. Previous to the installation an entertainment was given, at which William Morgan, a real Welsh comedian, was given an ovation for his efforts and humorous singing. Other numbers on the programme were: Selection by the Cambrian Glee club, Sydney Hughes, soloist; John Evans, who recited Bruce's address; William Evans, who sang "The Sailor Boy"; A. B. Hazlett, author; descriptive selection, Professor Johnson, pianist. The last named number was one of the most pleasing of the evening. Professor Johnson showed great skill in his musical panorama of the battlefield of Manassas Junction. Professor James R. Hughes made a patriotic address during the evening. The sentiments of the speaker found ready resting place in his auditors. After the installation refreshments were served, with a generous department on the part of the Sons.
