WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Two Visitors Who Are Booming Eisteddfods to Be Held in Utica and Shamokin---Gle: Club Formed.

Two men are in the city in the interests of two coming eisteddfods, one at Shamokin and one at Utica, T. J. Griffiths, of the Uties Deych, who represents the eisteddfod at the New York town, is at the Wyoming. The Uticz eisteddfod will be held on New Year's Day. It is an annual event and always attracts attention among Welsh-Americans the country over, Mr. Griffiths is not here carticularly in behalf of the cisteddfod, as the mission would be well nigh useless as Scranton is many miles distant from Utica, and the expense to local competitors makes the prizes to be won shrink into more baubles. No large body of singers could attend the eisteddfod with any lucerative results. Nevertheless Scrantonians read with avidity of the eisteddfod.

The other gentleman here is D. J. Lewis, of Shamokin. At that place an eisteddfed will be held on Labor Day, Sept. 5. Mr. Lewis is a direct representative of the committee. His business is to beem the affair. He wants competitors and for several days past be has labored in this valley. At Taylor Mr. Lewis secured a male party of forty voices to compete on the prize of $250, offered for the best singing of "The Young Musicians" and "The Cru-The Taylor party will be under the direction of Mine Foreman Thomas, of that place. Some months ago a party was organized among West Side male singers, but after a few rebearsals the organization disbanded from lack of vitality. The West Side ught to have a representative. Lewis day, The school will meet at the church Wateyn, who lead the disbanded party. is a young man capable of success. Mr. Lewis leaves for home at noon today.

TALKED ON PRISONS.

S. B. Watson delighted a large audience at the Simpson Methodist Episconal church with a talk on "Robel Prisons," told from personal experience in the southern prisons. Mr. Watson has lived a miserable existence in Libby, Belle Island, Castle Thunder and avenue, left yesterday for a ten days' Salsbury. Of these he told with the fire of an old soldier, and the audience was at once thrilled and delighted. After the lecture refreshments were served by the following young ladies of the church: Ethel Rinker, Jennie Fellows. Carrie Carr. Emmett Eilis, Margaret Hughes, Jennie Reese, Daisy Henry. Annie Wren, Edith Fowler, Dinah Lewis, Minnie Webster, Lulu Leader, Lizzie Butcher. Mattie Davis and Bertha

NOT THE JENKINS.

Jenkin Jenkins, the man for whom a wedding announcement was printed in a recent issue of The Tribune, is not the Jenkin Jenkins, of Bellevue Heights, who is already married. The latter wishes this distinction made. He has been much troubled with this confusion in Jenkinses, and, as an evidence thereof he shows a letter from a New York tirm telling of their desirable routes to other lands at prices "reasonable to a There is also a price list honeymoon."

MR. DAVIS LEAVES FOR WALES. Thomas D. Davies, assistant inside foreman of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, will leave today for New York, from whence he will embark for Europe on the steamer Umbria. Mr. Davies will go for the benefit of his health and for pleasureable purposes. He will be accompanied by his wife. Mies Margaret Duvies is now in Europe.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review. New York, July 23,-The Stock Market today was influenced by the deposits of gold at the sub-treasury, the reduction in exchange and to an extent by the advices from St. Louis regarding the convention of the Populists. was the surgeon. Frichtel, who is a | At the opening and closing the market was rather weak, but in the interim it displayed a great deal of strength. The opening was disappointing owing to the receipt of lower cables from London, it having been expected that the foreigners would buy our stocks in view of the efforts making to keep the government on a gold basis. The contrary proved true, and in fact, the London houses took advantage of the high prices to turn their paper profits into cash. The early decline was equal to 1 per cent. in A new division of the Ancient Order Sugar and about ¼ to % per cent. In the of Hibernians will be organized at St. general run of active issues.
