AT HYMEN'S SHRINE.

Miss Flora Mitchell Becomes Mrs. William J. Thomas.

A quiet wedding, witnessed only by the immediate friends of the contracting parties, took place Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Addley, No. 42 Brook street, when their daughter, Miss Flora Mitchell, became Mrs. William J.

The bride was attended by Miss Nellie Mitchell, a sister, and both young ladies looked charming. Lewis Thomas, a brother of the groom was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Beecher, of the Second Presbyterian church. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served, and then the newly married pair left for the prettily furnished house in Simpson, where they will take up housekeeping. Both young people possess a host of friends, who wish them much happiness. Mr. Thomas is employed as boss at the Northwest colliery and has the respect and esteem of his fellow workers. The bride is a young lady of many good qualities, and is well known about the city.

GOSPEL MEETING.

Evangelist Moore and His Tent Will be Here Next Thursday.

Evangelist Moore, who has been working with such great success in this vicinity, will be here with his tent pext Thursday and will hold a series of meetings at upper Belmont street. The tent will be pitched near the Second Presbyterian church, under whose auspices the evangelist comes.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been located for some time in Jermyn, where their work has done much good. The district in which they will now hold the meetings is much in need of something which the evangelists can labor. They will bring with them a singer who will lead the music at the meet

COHEN'S CONDITION SERIOUS.

Was Injured on the Railroad a Week Ago.

List Monday Ruben Cohen, of Pike street, was injured in an accident at the Ontario and Western freight house and his condition is now very serious. He is attended by Drs. Niles and Jenkins, and they fear that the lungs have been affected

At the time of the accident Cohen was engaged in loading scrap iron in a box in one of the cars. An engine and several cars were backing down the switch and the brakes failing to work in time struck the car with great force, wrecking the car and throwing Cohen heavily forward. He fell on the scrap iron and sustained internal injuries.

William Walker Injured.

William L. Walker, of South Terrace street, who is employed in the Erie mines, was quite badly hurt while attending his duties Saturday. A large mass of rock and coal fell upon him, and while no bones were broken, his escape is wonderful. His arm and leg were terribly bruised, and the injuries are of a very painful nature.

The Democratic Chairman and the Nominee to Confer. Louis, July 26.-Senator Jones chairman of the Democratic National committee, left for the home of William Bryan in Lincoln tonight. Senator Jones wishes to talk with Nominee Bry-an as to the best methods of recognizing the nomination which the Populist convention has given to Mr. Bryan for president. In view of the fact that Arthur Sewall of Maine, the running mate of Bryan on the Chicago ticket. was defeated for the nomination in the Populist convention, the complications that confront Senator Jones and Nomince Bryan demand a personal conversation between the Arkansas statesman and the Boy Orator of the Platte. It is the general opinion here tonight that Bryan in some way will make it known that he appreclates the nomination of the Populist convention.

All stories to the effect that Bryan for an instant has been personally interested in the case of Arthur Sewall are nonsense. He never met Arthur Sewall until the day after the Chicago convention. He has prayed and hungered for the Populist convention's nomination, and he has never for an instant thought about how Sewall would fare here. It has not been a question of Sewall with him, but it has been one of Bryan and for Bryan all the time.

While bulletions of both the Democratic and Republican conventions were posted regularly here, the only bulletin put out this week was the one tonight announcing the nomination of Bryan. Mr. Sewall has had no special service, and has depended largely upon the newspapers for his information regarding the convention. When he was asked how his rejection by the Populists would affect him, he replied that he was not aware that any other national Democratic convention had taken place, and that of course the proceedings of other po-litical parties could not affect his candidacy:

Mr Sewall certainly has no idea that the failure of the Populists to nominate him as well as Bryan need cause him to withdraw from the campaign. When asked if it was true that he had Workingmen, have we had enough of such rash and custly experiments? (Cries of "We have.") Do not all of us wish for the return of the economic policy which for more than a third of a century gave the government its highest credit and the citizen his greatest prosperity?
