TRIED TO KILL REV. JOE JONES.

Temperance Advocate Assaulted by a

Friend of the Liquor Setters. Mammoth Springs, Ark., July 28 .--An attempt to assassinate Rev. Joe Jones, brother of the famous Sam, was made here last night. During Saturday the evangelist addressed a large erowd drawn by a picnic under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance union, and in his discourse he scored the whisky sellers in his usual plain and vigorous style.

Last night after the services John Steinaman, a citizen of Missouri and a sympathizer of the whisky element, struck him a terrible blow over the head with a loaded whip. Fortunately some of the force of the blow was lost so that while the victim was knocked senseless he was on the road to recovery today, and proceeded with his meetings. Steinaman is under arrest.

A HEN WITNESS.

Two men were lately apprehended in this county on suspicion of having stolen sixteen hens and nine chickens. Hand bills were issued to find the owners. On Monday a farmer who had nine chickens stolen appeared at the justice's office, bringing with him the hen which had reared the brood. She was set down in a room with the other hens and chickens, and the moment she gave one chirp, the whole of the chickens flew to her. Upon this the thieves confessed, and were held for their appearance before the grand jury.

THE BUTTON RETURNED. While William W. Cummings, of

Cascade, was laboring in the field a few days ago, he felt something press hard from the inside of his nose into his mouth, which he immediately spit out. Upon examination it proved to bea brass button about half an inch in diameter. His mother recollects when it entered his nose, fifty years ago, he being then six years of age. From that time for-ward it caused him no trouble until last winter, when he had a fall, which jarred his head considerably, and he thinks, partly dislodged the button and was the ultimate cause of its finding its way out, after being a tenant of his nose for half a century. The button is covered with a kind of bony substance which gives it a rough, jagged appearhe had for years persistently refused to ance. It has been carefully preserved.

DANCED THE MIDWAY IN CHURCH.

Young Georgia Women Break Up the

Services at Dahlouega. at the little church here last Wednesday there was an interruption. Julia Townsend and Mary Postell, both handsome young women, inspired with mountain dew, began a terpsichoreau imitation of the Midway, singing simuitaneously the weird Midway air. The country congregation was thrown into great consternation and services were concluded at once. Warrants were sworn out for the irreligious dancers. but when Sheriff Pruitt attempted to The annual reunion of the Lamb and execute them he found the young women surrounded by admirers who defled the law. After a display of courage, tact, knives and shotguns, arbitration followed. The next day while the trial was in progress there came a violent hiatus in the court proceedings. "Hi" Walton, a desperado, enamored of the Townsend girl and influenced by love and bad whisky, started in to annihilate all in court and then the remainder of the community. The judge fled, carrying the code but relinquishing his dignity. When quiet was restored Walton was sent to jail under a $500 bond and the young women were bound over in the sum of $100 each, and are now in jail. The young women say that they drank the whisky "for fun, strength and the results.

DR. J. C. HEARNE WINS HIS CASE.

San Francisco Paper Must Pay Him

$10,000 for Alleged Libel. San Diego, Cal., July 28.—The jury in the Hearne libel case, which has been on trial for several days past, came into court shortly after noon today after being locked up all night, announcing a verdict for the plaintiff, assegsing his damages at $10,000. The action had been tried once before, the jury then falling to agree. The plaintiff in the case is Dr. J. C. Hearne of this city. The defendants are M. H. De-Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Coronicle, and J. F. Blunt, formerly that paper's San Diego correspondent, The article which formed the basis of the suit was sent from this city in Taylor-August, 1894. It was construed by Dr. Hearne and some of his friends as implicating the dector in the murder of Ames J. Stillwell at Hannibal, Mo., in December, 1888. Subsequent to the publication of the article Hearne was indicted for the murder, tried and acquitted.
