The couple were met by man and wife standing under a beautiful arch and gate of festooned evergreen and roses. The house was artistically decorated with wreaths of evergreen and potted plants. At 8:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the room and at once proceeded to the arch, where they were met by the pastor, who pronounced the words that made them man and wife. The bride was attired in an exquisite dress of cream satin with silk ermine and carried a bouquet of bridal daisies. The flower girls were Misses Ethel Soby, Gladys Soby and Florence Nicholson. They carried baskets of flowers which were showered upon the happy couple. After the nuptial rites were performed about two score of invited friends partook of the wedding supper. That Tired Feeling

Makes you seem "all broken up," without life, ambition, energy or appetite. It is often the forerunner of serious illness, or the accompaniment of nervous troubles. It is a positive proof of this, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is therefore apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember
