REV. MR. PARTRIDGE
IN HIS OLD PULPIT

Preached Morning and Evening in the Penn Avenue Church.

GREETED BY BIG CONGREGATIONS

With Mrs. Partridge and Their Son He is En Route to the Seashore on His Vacation--His Morning Sermon--Dealt with Sanctification and Justification--Outward and Inward Growth.

Rev. Warren G. Partridge, who until ten months ago was pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, is in the city while on vacation from Cleveland, where he is pastor of the Ninth Street church, to the seashore where he will spend a vacation of five or six weeks. Yesterday he occupied the pulpit of the church morning and evening and was greeted by audiences which completely filled the big auditorium and gave testimony of their regard for the former pastor.

Mr. Partridge, accompanied by Mrs.
Partridge and their son, Phillip, reached here Saturday night and will leave the city tomorrow. They are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Halestead, of Millin avenue. "This evening they will meet a few of their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
M. W. Lowry on Clay avenue.

From here Mr. Partridge goes to New York city, from where he will travel by ocean steamer to Kennebunk Beach, on the Maine coast, and near his birthplace, Portland.

HIS MORNING SERMON.

In the morning Mr. Partridge preached from I Thessalonians v: 23: "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." He said:

"Sanctification has two parts. Justification and sanctification. In our salvation, God begins the work of redemption in our justification, but the work is continued in sanctification. Sanctification is the continuous operation of the Holy Spirit in a regenerated heart.
In justification a holy disposition is imparted to a sinner. In sanctification this holy disposition is nourished and cultivated. Justification is the work of Jesus for us, and sanctification is the work of Jesus in us. One sees reconciliation between God and the sinner. The other secures the fruit of this new relation. One receives a condemned sinner into the state of grace; the other secures the consummation of the life of God daily and hourly to the soul of the believer.

"Many people talk as if their salvation was complete when they receive forgiveness. The young convert is prone to think that his joy indicates that his salvation is now finished, and the great object of his life is to just to keep this possession. Forgiveness is not the re-establishment of health; it is the crisis of convalescence. If God thinks fit to declare the sinner righteous, it is in order that he may by that means restore him to holiness. The health of the soul consists in holiness. There is an outward and an inward sanctification. In the olden times things and persons were said to be sanctified when they were set apart for the service of God. The vessels of the temple were made holy in this way. The vessels were first uncleaned and then sprinkled from day to day according to need."

SAVED, BUT NOT SOUND.

"The great statement, the St. Paul, was recently stranded on the New Jersey coast. It was thought that it would be a total loss. All means were tried in vain for a long time to float the great ship. But at last with tugs and with both wind and tide helping, the immense ocean liner was rescued. She was pulled into harbor and made fast to the dock. She was saved, but was not sound. It might require many months to have her repaired. Jesus intends to make us both safe and sound. 'Justification' gives the first-- safety. 'Sanctification' gives the second-- soundness.

"This sanctification must be thorough.
It must be thorough and thorough.
It is just as important as justification.
We must have burden for souls, but our anxiety must be as great to have men made holy as it is to have them saved. Jesus is not honored by a great many of sinners who are forgiven, but are making no progress in the divine life.

"Unsanctified church members are among the greatest hindrances of the church of Jesus Christ. No nation could fight its battles with raw recruits. We must have volunteers, but we must have men who are disciplined and trained. Old veterans are the best soldiers.

"Now Jesus has a power to keep us as well as to save. The way to keep is not to stand still. The only way Christ can keep a man is for him to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Father and Son Jesus Christ. The Apostle gives three divisions of human nature that must be sanctified--spirit, soul and body. This holiness involves the whole spirit, and the whole soul, and the whole body.

In Heb. 4:12 it is said that the "word of God is likened even to the dividing of soul and spirit." There seems to be a distinction between spirit and soul. A man whose spirit is sanctified is called in the Scriptures a spiritual man. The spirit of man is the highest part of his nature. It is that part that is touched by the Spirit of God in regeneration.
It is called the 'pneuma.' It is a sublime thought that there is a divine pneuma and also a human pneuma.
Has any man yet utilized all his opportunities of developing his spirit by communion with God? God is a pneuma, and he must be worshipped in the pne-ma of man. The soul must also be sanctified.

APPLICATION OF MIND.

"Does your mind wander in prayer?
Can you hold your attention for a long time upon the word of God? Can you think hard and long upon divine things? We must discipline the mind to prolonged investigation of divine things. We must cultivate the concentration of the student, the tele-grapher, the accountant, the bank clerk. Business to-day demands the most intense application and concentration. The whole soul must be sanctified and set apart to the service of God.

"This complete consecration involves the body. The Anchorites despised the body. God honors our body by making it the temple of the Holy Ghost.
The spirit must be sanctified, and the body is next to holiness, or it is a result of godliness. A lazy man cannot be a good Christian. Physical laws are God's laws and it is a sin to break any of our Maker's laws. Intemperance, gluttony, impurity, laziness, sloth, idleness, lethargy and dirt are enemies of the Christian religion.

"Now these three parts of human nature must be guarded blameless until the second coming of Jesus Christ.
We must so live that we cannot be censured by our own conscience. 'If our own heart condemn us,' etc. We must so live that we will not be condemned by Jesus. We should expect his approbation. 'Well done, good and faithful servant,' ought to be said to each of us by our well-pleased Saviour.
We like the approval of our own conscience, and of our fellowmen. Just think of the joy of having the son of God speak to His Father in praise of you? Jesus can keep us every hour, as well as save us. We must be kept blameless until Christ comes for us.
'Faithful is he that called us who also will do it.'

"We cannot be sanctified by our own efforts any more than we can be sanctified by our own efforts. There are four great means of growth--rayer, study of the word of God, association with believers and earnest efforts to win the ungodly to Jesus Christ. We must have the indwelling Christ and the baptism of the Holy Ghost. There is a germ whose nature is to grow; regeneration is the crisis of a disease; sanctification is the progress of convalescence.

OUTWARD AND INWARD GROWTH

"Every man must grow, as trees do, downward and upward at once. The visible outward growth must be accompanied by an invisible inward growth. A babe needs more care than a little lamb. It is wonderful how little birds and animals are left to shirk for themselves. But the higher we ascend in the scale of life the more helpless becomes young life. Your little infant son must have constant care.
The soul at regeneration receives the new birth. How will you guard that infant life? The new birth is the beginning of the life of God in the soul.

REV. DR. DIXON COMING.

Will Positively Be Pastor of the Penn Avenue Church.

Rev. Dr. Joseph C. Dixon has confirmed by letter a recent telegram accepting the call to the pastorate of the Penn Avenue Baptist church. He will begin his duties here in September, as until then he has been engaged to fill the pulpit of Rev. Dr. Eddy's church in Brooklyn, the First Church of the Eastern District, which made an effort to engage Dr. Dixon as its permanent pastor.

The old parsonage on Millin avenue will not be occupied by the new pastor. A house will be obtained on the hill and the old parsonage will be rented.

While the congregation is elated over its success in engaging Dr. Dixon, many persons outside the church share the congregation's elation because of the well-known energy, push, eloquence, independence of the new pastor. He is comparatively young, 40 years of age, and is considered one of the kind whose work and character aid in advancing the interests of cities like Scranton. Apparently, the city will share with the church the benefits of Dr. Dixon's pastorate.

Characteristic of Dr. Dixon's Christianity was his telegraphic acceptance of a week ago which referred to Romans, xv, 29, 30, 32, 33: "And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the spirit that ye strive together with me in our prayers to God for me. That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen."

After his graduation from the Boston university, Dr. Dixon was for six years pastor of the Baptist church at Auburn, N. Y., where he was instrumental in building a new and house of worship. From Auburn he went to Philadelphia to become pastor of Epiphany church. He was there six years, until two years ago, when he became ill and traveled in the west. Recently he has been filling the pulpit of Rev. Dr. Eddy's Brooklyn church.

REV. STUBBLEBINE WILL RESIGN.

Has Accepted the Pastorate of Salisbury, N. C., Reformed Church.

Rev. W. H. Stubblebine will resign as pastor of Calvary Reformed church at a meeting of the congregation tonight. He has accepted a call to the Reformed church in Salisbury, N. C.
Mr. Stubblebine is one of the city's most active pastors in general church matters. He is vice-president of the Pastors' union, president of the Christian Endeavor union, chairman of its press committee for the October state convention, and editor of the Journal.
Under his pastorate the Calvary congregation has grown to be large and prosperous. Largely through his efforts the church has built its handsome stone chapel on Gibson street as a step toward a new and completed property.

SABBATH NEWS NOTES.

Rev. Dr. John B. Worrall, of Danville, Ky., occupied the Green Ridge Presbyterian pulpit.

In the Second Presbyterian church the pulpit was occupied by Rev. W. H.
Swift, of Honesdale.

Rev. B. Hickey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., preached in the Gospel tabernacle, Adams avenue, Dunmore.

In the evening Rev. F. H. Bullon, of Keystone academy, preached in the Green Ridge Baptist church.

Pulpits were exchanged in the evening by Rev. Foster U. Giff, of Grace Lutheran church, and Rev. W. H. Stub-blebine, of Calvary Reformed church.

Secretary F. W. Pearsall, of the Railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian association, preached in the morning in the United Evangelical church on Capone avenue.

Secretary George G. Mahy, of the Young Men's Christian association, addressed the Rescue Mission open air meeting at Day Aug park in the afternoon, and Superintendent Sanborn, of the mission, spoke at the Young Men's Christian association services.

A Christian Endeavor rally was held in the evening in the Providence Christian church. Rev. D. M. Kinter, pastor, Rev. George E. Guild, of the Providence Presbyterian church, was among those who told of the recent national convention at Washington.

Olyphant Injunction Case.

In the hearing in the equity suit of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company against the Lackawanna Valley Traction company and the Olyphant Suburban Street Railway company to restrain the defendants from crossing the railroad tracks at grade on Dun-more street, Hudson street, A. H. Dunnink, jr., was on the stand Saturday and was cross-examined. His testimony in chief was given Friday. He says that the routes proposed by the plaintiff are impracticable.

DELEGATES CHOSEN
ON SATURDAY

Will Meet in Music Hall Tomorrow to Nominate a County Ticket.

PRIMARIES QUIETLY CONDUCTED

Lively Contests Waged in a Number of Election Districts but the Rivers Generally of a Good-Natured Character--Names of the Men Who Will Have Seats in Tuesday's Gathering.

The Republican primaries, held throughout the county Saturday, were very quiet. In many districts spirited fights were waged for the honor of a seat in the convention, but in the great majority of cases these contests were good natured and created no disturbances.

The delegates elected Saturday will convene in Music hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and nominate one candidate for congressman; two candidates for congressman; two candidates for congressman; and two candidates for county auditor. Delegates elected Saturday are:

COUNTRY CLUB OFFICERS.

They Were Chosen at a Meeting Held Saturday Morning.

A meeting of the Country club promoters was held Saturday morning in the board of trade rooms and, as predicted by The Tribune, N. G. Robertson was elected president, J. Ben Dim-mick vice-president, Major James W.
Oakford secretary and Albert G. Hunt treasurer. They were chosen by the following board of directors, which was elected by the members: C. S. Weston, W. W. Scanton, J. B. Dimmick, A. G.
Hunt, N. G. Robertson, G. B. Smith, James W. Oakford, E. B. Sturges and T.
H. Watkins.

The club has its beginning with about 175 members. A charter will at once be obtained by the board of directors and a contract made for the erection of a club house on the proposed site situated on land to be purchased of the Pennsylvania Coal company, a short walk beyond the termination of Washington avenue. The club house plans have already been informally adopted.

George Sanderson presided over Saturday's meeting. Among those present were E. B. Sturges, J. Ben Dimmick, H. W. Kingsbury, James W. Oakford, N. G. Robertson, A. G. Hunt, T. H.
Watkins, H. P. Simpson, H. E. Hand, W. J. Hand, R. M. Scanton, Russell Dimmick, Paul Bellin, W. D. Russell, A.
B. Hunt, C. S. Weston, W. W. Scanton, G. B. Smith.

The club house site is on a plot of ten acres, which will be laid out according to the plans of a landscape architect, who will be brought here from New York city.

THE MCCLAVE GRATES.

Ordered for Swift & Co.'s Chicago Meat Packing House.

Ten sets of the McClave grates and ten sets of blowers manufactured by McClave & Brooks, have been ordered for the Chicago fertilizer plant of Swift & Co., the beef and packing company. The McClave grates and blowers were selected by the company in tests with other makers.

It is possible that the whole Chicago plant of Swift & Co. will be equipped with the McClave grates. Within a few months the Illinois Steel company, after a competitive test, has ordered sixty sets of the grates and others will be placed in the company's Joliet mills.

A Famous School in a Famous Location AMONG THE MOUNTAINS OF THE noted resort, the Delaware Water Gap.
A school of three to four hundred pupils, with no over-crowding classes, but where teachers can become acquainted with their pupils and help them individually in their work.
Modern improvements. A fine new gymnasium, in charge of expert trainers. We teach Physical Training, Class Modeling, Free-hand and Mechanical Drawing without extra charge.

Write to us at once for our catalogue and other information. You gain more in a small school than in the overcrowded schools.
