Conductor Fox Assaulted at Taylor. Struck on the Leg with a Large

Stone by Hoodiums.

Conductor Fox, of the Taylor line, who is one of the most rigid rule followers in the Traction company's employ, was stoned last Friday evening a host of the young element of Taylor. It was about dusk and the car of which Mr. Fox is in charge, was standing at the middle switch in Frogtown the northern extremity of Taylor. There was no one on the car except the conductor and motorman, and the surrounding did not seem to forebode any trouble.

When the down car passed, Conductor Fox gave the signal go ahead. His car, which was an "open" one, had just begun motion, when a fusilade of stones suddenly from the bank on the roadside. It was necessary to do some expert dodging, and the two employes did it. One large cobble, however, hit Conductor Fox on the leg. The motorman put on full speed, and the assaulting party were soon out of harm's reach.

Anothony Weinschenk, of Cedar aveue, has resigned as foreman at the foundry of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, after having been in the continuous employ of the company for forty-four years. He has decided to enjoy a rest for the remainder of his life. The men under his supervision always had the greatest of respect for

of their appreciation. The presentation was made at his home and the occasion was one of pleasure. Edward Whitlock made the presentation speech on the part of the sixty men over whom the retiring foreman had charge. Mr. Weinschenk served the people of the Eleventh ward on the board of control in a most creditable manner, and after his term withdrew from politics, . He was many times besought to enter the field for other honors, but preferred to busy himself with his work. His daughter, Mrs. D. L. Chicago Live Stock.

Wall Street Review. New York, Aug. 1.-The tendency of prices at the Stock Exchange at the open-ing was upward, a fair inquiry prevailing for the standard issues and the Industrials. In the case of the last-named, Sugar and Chicago Gas were in the best de-mand, the former rising to 106, the best of the week, while Chicago Gas advanced P4 to 54. The strength of Sugar was again ascribed to buying for Havemeyer-Keene account. The improvement in the Standard stocks outside of Lake Shore was unimportant, save ha% per cent, with the stock named, howover, rose 11/2 to 1431 Between 11 and 12 o'clock the smaller bulls were inclined to take profits, and their offerings brought about a declin of 2% per cent, in Sugar and 1sal per cent in the usually active list. Manhattan was weak throughout and fell W_2 to $5 on the old reports that the statement for the June quarter will be unfavorable and that the dividend will be reduced. The Grangers were influenced in the closing hour by the reported demoralization in rates at the west, but the bulk of the selling was for professional account. Spec ulation on closed weak in tone and gen erally 1% to 1%, per cent, lower on the day,
