SENATOR FAULKNER'S ROSY PICTURES

Predicts the Success of the Populist Democracy.

GOLD BUGS ARE ALL IN THE WOODS

He Has Received Encouraging Word from Ohio and Pennsylvania--Will Soon Flood the Country with Dry Silver Speeches in Pamphlet Form.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, returned this morning from his home in Martinsburg, Va., where he had gone to escape the heat over Sunday. He takes a very rosy view of the situation and predicts the triumphant success of the ticket for which he is doing such energetic work.

"It is the fashion in these days," said the senator, "to point to straws to show things are moving, and if they may be taken as an indication of the actual condition of affairs, I have only to point to existing conditions in my home county of Berkeley. This was the only county in my state that sent a sound money delegation to the convention to select delegates to the Chicago convention. This was only a month or so ago, and at that time the sentiment appeared to be all on the side of gold men. How is it today? A man could not be nominated and elected to the position of constable," said Mr. Faulkner, "unless he stood squarely on a free silver platform."

"In my mail this morning," said the senator, "I received a letter from Canton, O., announcing the organization, right at the home of McKinley, of a Republican Bryan Free Silver club, and the election of a prominent Republican and wealthy manufacturer as its temporary president. From another county I have received advice that after a Bryan club had been organized thirty Republicans and thirty-seven Populists enrolled themselves as members, and are doing good work for the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania. I have received word that the silver sentiment is spreading with great rapidity, and in the Eleventh Congressional district, one that has always been heavily Republican, we are assured that we have an even chance of carrying the district for the Democracy."

ELOQUENCE IN RESERVE

Asked when he thought the campaign would be formally opened Senator Faulkner stated that he did not think it wise to begin the speech making until about the middle of September. "It takes some little time," said he, "to organize a corps of speakers and arrange for the canvass. I do not myself approve of too long a campaign, but that matter, during a presidential year, is left to the national committee."

Speaking of the alleged revision of the Chicago speech of Mr. Bryan, Senator Faulkner said: "The changes made by Mr. Bryan are immaterial and consist of a word here and there. The stenographers had no means of knowing—taking the speech as it fell from the lips of the speaker—where he had used quotations, and in the revision it will be found that Mr. Bryan has almost a speech made around the whole sentence referring to the 'crown of thorns, and the cross of gold.' The criticism of this passage has been hypercritical and it was but fair to Mr. Bryan that this speech should be printed properly in every particular. I have ordered a revision of the speech to the extent of 25,000 copies. Altogether our copies of speeches will aggregate upwards of many millions. Bryan's money speech, made in 1895, when the repeal of the Sherman act was being debated, has had an unusual demand. It makes three pages and weighs just half a million copies printed, or Mr. Teller's speech in the senate we have ordered a quarter of a million for a starter and 100,000 of Mr. Bailey's speech at Sherman, Texas. The sixty-page speech of Senator Daniel during the last session, a speech intended to answer all the arguments advanced by Senator Sherman and others, has been condensed to sixteen pages and an issue of 200,000 printed."

"The speech of Senator Cockrell of Missouri dealing with statistics and overloading with data on the financial question, together with the speech of Senator Jones of Arkansas on the same subject, are in great demand, and we have endeavored to have them printed by the hundreds of thousands so as to meet the call upon our committee for this literature. It would be difficult to say how many copies we have issued of the speech of Congressman Towne, representative of Minnesota, on the silver question. It is one of the speeches most in demand. The same may be said of the speech of Representative William L. Terry of Arkansas, which deals with the subject succinctly and presents forty-five propositions with respect to the silver question."

SENATOR JONES AT WORK. Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, was closeted with the officers of the congressional campaign committee most of the day, it having been his first opportunity of getting acquainted with the work that has thus far been done by that committee, and the plans it has mapped out for the future. Among his callers at headquarters were Senator Gorman of Maryland, and ex-Clerk of the House Kerr, of Pennsylvania.

A committee representing the local campaign committees, the various state organizations and the clubs in the District of Columbia, called upon Mr. Jones this afternoon to persuade him to arrange for Mr. Bryan to deliver a speech here. No conclusion on the matter was reached and will not be until after Mr. Bryan has been notified in New York on Aug. 12, and the arrangements have been made for his subsequent movements.

Ex-Clerk of the House of Representatives Kerr will be given charge of the campaign in Pennsylvania owing to the retirement of Mr. Harris, who is not in sympathy with either the ticket or the platform. This afternoon Mr. Jones reiterated the statement that he would not decide upon the location of the national headquarters nor name the members of the national committee until he reached New York nor until Mr. Bryan had been formally notified. Representative Pearson, of North Carolina, at Republican headquarters, reports a very satisfactory condition of things in his state.

SCHUYLKILL CONVENTION. Nominations Made by the Republicans at Pottsville Yesterday. Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 3.—At the Republican convention held today nominations were made as follows: For congress, Hon. C. N. Brumm; for treasurer, Elias Davis, of New Castle, an ex-member of the legislature; for prothonotary, James R. Deegan, the present incumbent; for clerk of the court, Hon. J. T. Shoemaker, of Oriskany; for recorder, Emanuel Jenkins, of Joliet; for register, Frank Reese, of Shenandoah; for commissioner, Frank Rentz, present incumbent and Charles Myers, of Cressona, the latter defeating Charles Allen, of Tanama; for postmaster, Fred H. Throspold, of Foster township. The convention was one of the liveliest and largest ever held by the Republicans. It adjourned at midnight.

RALLY OF SOUND MONEY MEN

The Chicago Platform Repudiated All Over the Land--Prospects of a Large Gathering at the Coming Convention at Indianapolis.

Chicago, August 3.—Four national committee members were added to the list to-day of sound money Democrats who will attend the Indianapolis convention. W. B. Haldeman, of the executive committee, sent word from Georgia that T. B. Neal, president of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, would represent that state. Lynde Harrison, a delegate to the late convention, telegraphed that David F. Wells, of Norwich, the original free trader, George G. Root, of Waterbury, and Joel Sherry, of New Haven, would represent Connecticut at Indianapolis. Ohio's national committee is ex-Congressman J. H. Orthwaite. Texas will be represented by George Clark, M. L. Crawford and J. H. Smith. Indiana will be represented by William T. Cheney, chair of the Young Men's Democratic club, of Boston, stating that the club, which already had a membership of 1200, had repudiated the Chicago platform and candidates and was engaged in active campaign work for the proposed ticket. J. M. Falkner, of Montgomery, Alabama, who will represent that state at Indianapolis, wrote to say that a sound money club would be organized in Birmingham this week and that a conference of the sound money men of different parts of Alabama, would be held Tuesday next.

DEMOCRATIC LIE NAILED.

Ex-Secretary Foster Refutes the Statement That the Treasury Under Harrison Was Bankrupt.

Canton, O., Aug. 3.—Charles Foster, secretary of the Treasury under Harrison, came to Canton about two weeks ago to consult with Major McKinley concerning a letter, copies of which have since been made public and sent to Canton. Mr. Foster's object is to point out to Mr. McKinley, industriously circulated through Democratic circles, that General Harrison turned over a bankrupt treasury to Mr. Cleveland. An attempt has been made to prove this assertion by reference to the fact that Mr. Foster had consulted money on the dates prepared for a new issue of bonds in the closing months of the Harrison administration.

Mr. Foster explains that he had at no time ever considered the matter of issuing bonds to meet current expenses, but always had in mind the money on hand which he had succeeded in turning over to Mr. Cleveland an unbroken gold reserve, together with a comfortable working balance. The real purpose, he said, of partially arranging for an issue of bonds, was to carry out his idea of increasing the gold reserve from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000. His judgment on this point was overruled, and the contemplated issue had no bearing whatever on the condition of the treasury.

W'KINLEY'S REST.

IN THE DAYS OF QUIET HE IS PREPARING HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

Canton, O., Aug. 3.—Major McKinley has had a few days of quiet and he is turning over in his mind the points which he thinks of discussing in his letter of acceptance. He will not, however, attempt to have it ready for publication for three or four weeks. Ex-Senator I. K. Rice, of Mississippi, was one of the callers on Major McKinley today. He is familiar with the political situation throughout the south and thinks McKinley will carry Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and Kentucky.

There is ample reason for the belief that Mr. Bruce, himself a representative colored man, has not overestimated the interest of his race in Major McKinley. A mass of correspondence from the southern and middle states, which has been received in Canton since the St. Louis convention, indicates with clearness that the colored voters are disposed to be loyal supporters of the Republican ticket. Most interest in the opening meeting of the campaign, which has been announced for Aug. 15, is manifested here. Many active McKinley men in both parties talk of going to Columbus and it is likely that a large delegation from the country will attend. Senator Conaker and Senator Sherman will be the chief speakers and some orators of prominence from the West will also be heard. Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, wants to be present at the opening of the Ohio campaign, but he has written Major McKinley that he has business engagements which make it impossible for him to leave the east at this time. He will speak in Ohio later in the campaign.

EIGHT MORE FUNERALS.

Victims of the Atlantic City Railroad Accident Buried. Bridgeton, N. J., Aug. 3.—Eight more victims of the Atlantic City railroad accident were buried to-day in the tomb here. John Griner was buried at Woodruff's and Benjamin W. White in the tomb in Broad street cemetery. The latter was a member of the Grand Army post in Cape May. William Prickett, Miss Tillie Leads, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lopez and Harvey Hughes were buried this afternoon.

STEP TOWARD ANARCHY.

Charles Dudley Warner's View of the Free Silver Movement. Chicago, Aug. 3.—Charles Dudley Warner, who was at Yellowstone park is quoted as saying: "I regard the silver agitation as a step toward anarchy. What I fear is that the result of the discovery that the adoption of the silver standard will not better existing social and political conditions, but the masses of workmen out of employment would mean a revolution and rioting in our great cities."

INSANE CONVICTS ESCAPE.

Washington, Aug. 3.—The alleged insane convicts named Cheney and Caldwell, have escaped from the government insane hospital on the outskirts of the city. They were members of the notorious Dalton gang of Arkansas. Cheney had been sentenced to twenty-four years and Caldwell to four years in the Kings county (New York) penitentiary.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

An Oysterman Has Been Arrested on Charge of Having Killed a Farmer. La Plata, Md., Aug. 3.—Charles county has been the scene of another mysterious and sensational murder, and it is possible that another lynching will follow.

Last Sunday night James J. Irwin, a farmer, was found murdered in his home at Albion, Md., a little more than two miles from this place. Two bullets had been fired at him while he was asleep, both of which entered his brain. George Matthews, an oysterman, who lives at Rock Point, ten miles distant from the scene of the tragedy, has been arrested, charged with the crime, and Irwin's wife is under police surveillance. It is said that Matthews has been paying marked attention to Mrs. Irwin and the authorities have letters in their possession containing endearing terms which Matthews wrote to the woman. Mrs. Irwin says she discovered that her husband was dead at 11 o'clock Sunday night. She ran to the house of her father-in-law, 100 yards distant, and gave the alarm. She asserts that she was in bed beside her husband, but did not see the coroner's inquest conflict with her statements. The entire community is incensed, and if positive guilt could be fastened on Matthews he would undoubtedly be lynched.

Mareline, Mo., Aug. 3.—The Fort Madison passenger train, No. 13, on the Santa Fe railway collided with the California and Mexican express, two miles east of Bosworth, Mo., at 11 o'clock this morning. Morgan, Emporia, Kansas, seriously injured internally; Lewis H. Taylor, Wells, Fargo messenger, Chicago, dangerously hurt; Curtis Barber, Pullman car porter, Chicago, slightly hurt; Charles Hickey, San Jose, Cal., badly hurt; John McCahn, news agent, Mareline, Mo., not dangerously; Fred Brady, engineer of the California and Mexican passenger train, will probably die.
