He who would his wealth increase. Must use either brains or elbow grease: And he who would make his home look bright Has got to use SUBURBAN LIGHT.

Young Pierson's courage in his fight with the bright light was worthy of all praise, but how much better it would have been if he could have instantly lighted the house by a little switch in his room. That's just the business of SUBURBAN ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.

BIG CAKE WALK AT LAUREL HILL PARK

Conducted by the Hotel Jermya Waiters' Social Club.

TWENTY-THREE COUPLES CONTEST

Cake Was Won by J. C. Foster and Miss Lizzie Brian--It is an Immense Affair, Weighing Twenty-two Pounds, and a Fine Example of the Confectioners' Art. Scranton had had a real cake walk. It took place last night in Laurel Hill park and completely overshadowed anything of the kind held in the city in the days of the Montezuma. The Hotel Jermya Waiters' Social Club was responsible for the walk, which was a pronounced success, socially and, it may not be out of place to chronicle the fact, that it netted a number of "bones" which will go into the club's treasury.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Man Who It Is Thought Tri d to Enter Radin's Pawnshop Is Placed Under Arrest. Early yesterday morning an attempt was made to enter Radin's pawnshop on Penn avenue. The probably guilty person was arrested last night and will have to answer a charge of attempted burglary in this morning's police court. When the pawnshop employes opened the place yesterday morning, they found the panels broken in the door opening into a private hallway which leads to living apartments on the upper floors. The contents of the place were not disturbed, but the burglar evidently having been frightened away before he could gain entrance.

MR. BANKS, THE ORATOR.

As Mr. Banks described the good qualities of the cake he grew really eloquent. What if he did speak of the "ingredients" of the cake and another thing who were about to enter the contest that they would be disgusted if they did not turn good angels and comfort themselves as becomes good cake eaters. These only added picturesque-ness to Mr. Banks' fervid oratory which made it all the more enjoyable. After announcing that all contestants would have a field and a favor Mr. Banks said the regular cake walk would be preceded by a fancy walk. This was participated in by Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Mosely, of New York, professional cake-walkers. They were led by another professional, the late Rev. Edward Walsh, of this city.

SHE HAS HIGH AMBITIONS.

An Eleven-Year-Old Girl Defendant in a Criminal Case. Mrs. Celia Chester came to Alderman Millar's office yesterday and had a warrant issued for Nellie O'Boyle, 11-year-old daughter of John T. O'Boyle of 416 Elyon street. The prosecutrix lives on the same street, a few doors away, and alleged that her little daughter was riding a tricycle on the sidewalk past the O'Boyle residence when Nellie came out and deliberately upset her into the gutter, the fall inflicting severe injuries.

PICKING THE WINNERS.

Gradually the ranks of the walkers were thinned out by the judges until only three couples were left. They were Jivan Emory and Mrs. Wye, J. C. Foster of Scranton and Miss Lizzie Brian of Williamsport, E. T. Hasbriek and Mrs. Harvey Austin. By this time the spectators had grown very enthusiastic and were cheering their favorites with a will. Shouts of "Foster," "Hasbriek" and "Emory" were heard on all sides. As the walkers came in at the finish they were surrounded by an excited, eager crowd who shouted the name of their favorite to the judges. The time for the walk was limited to five minutes before Alderman Millar, the president of the board of judges, could get order and he then announced that while it was almost impossible to make a choice between the three couples the judges believed that Mr. Foster and lady had a shade the best of the contest and should be awarded the cake.

KILLED IN THE OLD ROLLING MILL YARD

Life Crushed Out of William Carpenter by a Locomotive. MARRIED AND HAD A LARGE FAMILY

Lived on Prospect Avenue--Two Boys, Charles Nimbley and Thomas Harris, of Dunmore Borough, Ate Rat Poison Thrown Out by Janitor of Oral School--One Is Dead and the Other Dying. William Carpenter of 218 Prospect avenue, a man 45 years old, married and having seven children, employed as carpenter by the Lackawanna Iron & Steel company, met a terrible death at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the old rolling mill yard above the blast furnace. He was run over by one of the small locomotives and his left arm and both legs were cut off. He was dead when help reached the spot. The deceased was at work putting a floor in a scale on which cars of pig iron are weighed. The place is close to the abutments of the Roaring Brook bridge. Every time the cars passed he had to step to one side, and when the engine came this time he moved away from the track a few feet. The engine passed him and stopped a few feet below where he was standing. He saw it reversed and move back toward him, and he was about to step a few feet farther away from the track when he stumbled and fell across the rails. The engine was moving at a slow rate of speed, but before the engineer realized what had happened the wheels passed over Carpenter. Coroner Longstreet gave permission to remove the body and Undertaker G. A. Miller took it to his establishment on Cedar avenue. The dead man's wife and two boys, Charles Nimbley and Thomas Harris, came from the west pocket at 7 o'clock in the evening. At 8 o'clock the body was taken to the late home, to the sorrowing family. The deceased was twice married. He had two children by his first wife. They are grown up. The five by the second wife are young, the oldest not being over 14 years. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Coroner Longstreet will empanel a jury this morning.
