WILL MR. CARLISLE BOLT THE TICKET

Unless Signs Fail He Will Support Mc Kinley and Hobart.

AN INTERVIEW WITH LOGAN CARLISLE

The Son of the Secretary Does Not Hesitate to State His Own Position on the Currency Question -- Will Vote for a Sound Money Ticket, Even if It Is a Republican Ticket.

Bureau of the Tribune, 501 Fourteenth street, N. W. Washington, August 4. If Secretary Carlisle does not come out squarely and bolt the Chicago ticket all signs fail. Up to the present writing the secretary has maintained a dignified silence on the question. So has President Cleveland and the members of his cabinet with the single exception of Hoke Smith, who has openly mongrel tickets nominated at Chicago and St. Louis. But that does not say they will continue to remain silent. Their hope for defeating Bryan and the Anarchistic-Populistic platform upon which he stands lies in the placing of a third or sound money Democratic presidential ticket in the field. If that is not done the chances are largely in favor of Mr. Cleveland and his entire official family, with the exception of Secretary Smith, walking up to the polls on November 3d next and casting their ballots for Ex-Governor McKinley and son of the secretary today. He is an out and out gold standard advocate, and has no hesitancy in saying that if he had a vote this year he would cast it against Bryan, Sewall and Watson. (By way of explanation I might say that the reason Mr. Carlisle will not vote at all this year is because he has no legal residence.) To begin with Mr. Carlisle does not regard Mr. Bryan as a very good Democrat. He says the Nebraskan and the platform upon which he stands saver too much of Populism and Anarchy to suit him. During the conversation Mr. Carlisle very adroitly dodged all questions which were calfor himself; his father could do likedifference between father and son, Fol-Chicago ticket and the platform, and he no doubt reflects the sentiments of

made sound money, low tariff speeches lieve that free silver will do otherwise than seriously add to the present business and commercial situation and I do not believe the people will endorse it at the polls in November. I do not consider the Chicago convention as a Demoits nominees. I am for a sound money Democratic ticket. If not that then the ound money Republican ticket, McKinley and Hobart.

'I do not pretend to deny that a business depression prevails, but free silver, in my opinion, will create even worse conditions. If a patient be stricken with diphtheria should his physician expose him to small-pox? That, it unlimited coinage of silver would emthat Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, speaks ducted by the "League of Love," a of in his campaign.

"I do not believe free silver will win and I think reports as to the extent of lance. the craze have been exaggerated. Reports I receive from Kentucky indicate the election of McKinley and Hobart men do not even rate the state as doubtful. In one Kentucky county 644 men. Democrats, who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, have signed a statement pledging themselves to vote and I think on election day there will be thousands of Kentucky Democrats who will go to the polls with clothes-pins on their noses and cast their ballots against have heard much talk of Kentucky Republicans bolting their party's ticket for free silver, but I have been unablé to secure identification of such bolters. Names are never given. The managers of the Democratic campaign assert that they will carry the state for Bryan by 40,000, but they do not tell how they will accomplish the political revolution.

The men who would debase the currency point to the fact that the present business depression exists under the gold standard,, 'the standard of England,' as they term it. True, but does it not exist also under other standards? We have the English language, for instance, as well as the English monetary standard. They seem to overlook the fact that we have enjoyed something like sixty-four years of almost uninterrupted and marvelous prosperity under the gold standard. I cannot but believe that by November 3 political conditions will have so adjusted themselves that victory for a safe and secure currency over an unsafe and insecure one will b assurred." W. R. B.

MURDER IN A GEORGIA CHURCH.

Shot Down by an Old Enemy. Thomasville, Ga., Aug. 4.-At Metcalfe, ten miles below here, the services of the Baptist church were interrupted by a horrible murder and attempted suicide. John T. Rushin, a prominent man of this section, shot and killed Colonel James F. Lilly and then cut his victim's throat. As soon as he was sure that he had completed his work Rushin swallowed four ounces of laudanum and rushed from the church, with the men of the cougre-

Rushin entered the little building and declared his intention of supporting the stood by several minutes watching Colonel Lilly. Suddenly Rushin seemed to go wild with rage. He threw his hat to the floor and pulled out a pistol. As Colonel Lilly ran Rushin began fire ing. Three bullets entered the body of the fleeing man, and he fell on the outside of the building fatally shot.

Rushin held his pursuers off and drank from the bottle four ounces of laudanum. He was so thoroughly nauseated that he was unable to retain sound money. That is the way things induce him to come out but he has persistently refused, declaring that he worry over it caused his mind to become unbalanced.
