with his family It is said that the Democratic leaders are greatly disappointed in the executive ability of Mr. St. John, their treasurer. He has a suite of rooms in a New York hotel and his clerical force consists of an outfit of Eroadway dudes. headed by the famous Oilie Teall. Teall is the youth that broke into the "Four Hundred" by means of an English accent, and which he has considerably broadened of late. Berry Wall and Ollie Teall were rivals in immaculate manners, dress and Anglicized accent, but they have fallen pretty low of late, judged by their former standards. Wall was arrested and lodged in jail over night for drunkenness and refusing to pay his cab hire, and Ollie Teall has accepted a clerkship under free silver St. John Polities and liquor certainly make strange bed fellows.

There is a row brewing in the Democratic National committee, and it would not be at all surprising to those on the inside if Chairman Jones were forced to vacate the head place on the committee to make room for a more discrect person. Senator Jones has been talking too much, and he lacks that finish and adroitness in conversation which makes wise leader. Mr. Jones has always been a free talker, but just now he has overstopped his usual gauge. He has not been able to conclidate the sound money Democrats at all, and at the same time he has imperilled the ticket by abusing the Populists, from whom
