WANTED TO KNOW.

Mr. Vidaver Asked Some Pointed Questions at the Organization of a Bryan and Sewall Club.

A gathering of Democrats met in the Sunday Free Press office last night and organized the first Bryan and Sewali club of the campaign in this city. Richard J. Beamish. esq., called the meet-ing to order and City Treasurer C. G. Boland was chosen temporary chairthe old rolling mill yard, was held at 2 man, and Attorney D. J. Reedy, temporary secretary.

P. W. Gallagher enjoys the distinction of being the first to enroll his name. Secretary Reedy then took the names of the others. It was resolved that the 'organization be known as the Bryan and Sewall club, and on motion Messrs. Boland and Reedy were elected permanent officers. Messrs, Beamish, Burke and Baylor were appointed a committee to secure a permanent place of meeting. Speeches were called for by Chairman Boland. He set the example by urging Democrats to rally together in this issue. Mr. Merrifield made a two-minute speech, during which the took occasion to remark that Democracy will win the battle in November, Col. Fitzsimmons made one of his eloquent addresses, and a call for Comegy's and Newcomb failed to bring either of these gentlemen to their feet.

Nathan Vidaver created a scene at this juncture. He wanted to know what were the regulaites for membership in the club. "Can a man join it if he was a Republican but wants to be a Democrat now?" "I guess so," ans-wered Mr. Boland. "Will you take a man who, while passing off as a Democrat, helped to defeat the ticket; will you take such kind of men?" persisted Mr. Vidaver.

There was-what would you call it. ominous silence?—well, there was a whole lot of that for a minute. It was Glynn, a sister of the groom, acted as lawn. As making his way out, and then by the voice of Mr. Boland stating that if there at the home of the bride's parents to a a liberal patronage is desired. If the was no further business before the meetfew friends. Mr. Glynn is very popular weather is unfavorable it will be held ing a motion to adjourn would be in order. A motion was put and carried that the meeting adjourn to Friday, tomorrow, night at 408 Spruce street upstairs. A Tribune reporter followed Mr. Vidaver out and asked him who he was al-Inding to in his pointed questions. "I Omaha 34 meant Mayor Balley, that's who," said Phil. & Read 104 he, "and you can quote me as saying it, too: I don't want to belong to any Bryan and Sewall club that he is a member Tenn., C. & Iron... 16 and Sewall club that he is a member of, because he's no Democrat. I'd tell who I meant but for he went out, you bet you, but I didn't want to talk be hind his back. I wish he had the courage to stay. I'd tell him what's what.' ST. THOMAS' COLLEGE.

Three Xaverian Brothers Will Assist Rev. Father MacGoldrick.

Important changes in the faculty of St. Thomas' are announced for the coming year. Rev. Father MacGoldrick, president of the college, will be assisted by a corps of trained teachers from the congregation of the Xaverian Brothers, whose parent house in this country is situated at Carroll Station, Maryland. Right Rev. Bishop O'Hara desirous to place on a permanent footing the magnificent institution he was at such pains in building and recognizing that this end could be best secured by calling the aid of one of the religious teaching orders of the church, commissioned Rev. Father MacGoldrick to negotiate with the superiors of the Xaverian Brothers for a corps of teachers who should help in building up St. Thomas' on the lines of its original foundation and make it what from the start it was intended to be: a model Catholic school. The result of the negotiations has been that the Rev. Brother Alexius, provincial superior of the order, has sent three brothers this year and agrees send from year to year as many brothers as are called for by the in-crease of students until the full quota of the college faculty is filled. Among the brothers sent to St. Thomas' this has an experience of twenty years' teaching in the Xaverian schools, and he has been principal of the schools of his order at Lowell, Mass., Baltimore, Md., Louisville, Ky., and Norfolk, Va. The Latin and Greek classes will be ontinued by Father MacGoldrick and Classes in type-writing and stenogra-phy wil be formed under the direction of the brothers, and strict attention will be paid to the preparation of pupils for commercial life. Classes will be esumed on September 10. Pupils seeking admission may apply at the college to the Brother Director of studies from September 1 to September 19,
