SUNSTROKE TREATMENT.

Timely Instructions Which May Be of Real Value During the Present Era of Torridity.

A very timely little circular has been prepared by the Philadelphia board of health, giving the treatment to be used in cases of heat prostration and precautions to be observed to avoid sunstroke. Two forms of sunstroke are recognized by medical practitioners—heat exhaustion and heat stroke—and in dealing with these the circular says: "Heat Exhaustion.—Prolonged exposure to high temperature, particularly when combined with physical exertion, is liable to be followed by great prostration, collapse, restlessness and in severe cases by delirium. Unlike heat stroke, the surface of the body is usually cool, the pulse small and rapid, and the temperature below normal—no less than 98 degrees Fahrenheit or 37 degrees Fahrenheit. It is not necessary that the person shall have been exposed to the direct rays of the sun, as the condition may come on when working in close, confined rooms during midsummer, and when exposed to artificial heat, as in laundries, bake-shops and engine rooms. "Sunstroke or Heatstroke.—This is chiefly confined to persons working very hard while exposed to the sun. It is common in our large cities, but is not known in the country. Those habituated to the use of beer and whiskey, and the debilitated, are especially predisposed to attacks.

SYMPTOMS. "The attack may be sudden and the patient be struck down and die within an hour with symptoms of heart failure, difficult breathing and loss of consciousness. The usual form comes on during exposure, with pain in the head, dizziness, a feeling of weakness and sometimes nausea and vomiting. The loss of consciousness may be only transient or it may be complete. The face is flushed, the skin pungent, the pulse rapid and full and the temperature very high, from 107 degrees F. to 110 degrees F. The breathing is labored and deep, sometimes loud. It is important to note that in heat-exhaustion the skin is moist, pale and cool; the breathing easy, though hurried, the pulse small and soft, and the senses entire; while in heatstroke there is usually insensibility and great heat of skin.

PRECAUTIONS. "On very hot days one should drink frequently of cool water in moderate quantity. It is injurious to drink a large quantity of ice water, cold beer, soda water or other mineral waters or iced drinks. Cool water, in which oatmeal has been stirred, is a safe and refreshing drink. Immediate death is sometimes caused by 'ice cold' drinks. The immoderate use of alcoholic beverages is also dangerous.

TREATMENT. "Remove the patient to a cool and shady place, where there is plenty of fresh, pure air. Strip the clothing to the waist and place the sufferer in a recumbent position. Pour cold water (ice water) upon the head and chest and wrists until consciousness returns. Apply ice to the head and rub the body with it, but if the skin is cold no ice should be applied. When practicable the patient should be put in a bath at 70 degrees F. to reduce the temperature. "In heat exhaustion stimulants should be given freely, and if the temperature is below normal, as shown by the skin being cold and clammy, the hot bath should be discontinued. Ammonia and water may be given if necessary."

TAYLOR IS AMBITIOUS. Wants to Annex the Pyne, Continental and Archbald Settlements. There is a sentiment in Taylor in favor of having the settlements about the Pyne, Archbald and Continental mines become a portion of that borough instead of having that portion of Lackawanna township erected into a separate borough as is proposed. At the meeting of the borough council of Taylor last Friday night a committee consisting of Messrs. Jones, Gibbons and Davis was appointed to ascertain if it was not possible to come to an agreement by which this territory would be annexed to the borough.

TWO TROLLEY CARS COME TOGETHER

Both Were Going Down Grade and Met at the Sag.

NUMBER OF PASSENGERS HURT

Wreck Car Drawing a Trailer from Pittston Collides with a Minooka Car in the Hollow Near the Meadow Brook Breaker and Six of the Eight Passengers on the Latter Car Sustained Injuries.

Just about midnight two trolley cars collided near the Meadow Brook breaker causing injury to a number of passengers.

At the point where the accident occurred, the grade rises in either direction. One of the cars which was being pulled into the breaker by the other car was filled with passengers, the majority of them women. The Minooka car which left the central city at 11:40, was flying down the grade towards the breaker when the wreck car and trailer came rushing down on Minooka hill. Each car was going at such a rapid rate that when they came in sight of one another it was impossible to stop them and they crashed together with terrific force.

The people on the inward bound trip could not see the oncoming Minooka car until they were within a few feet of the danger into which the wreck car had taken the passenger car. The Minooka car took the brunt of the collision and as a consequence they escaped with nothing more than bruises and a severe shaking up.

On the outward bound car there were eight men and all received some injury or another with the exception of two men who were drunk and who escaped without a scratch. Charles Honeysager was on the front end smoking and jumped off against a fence injuring his leg and hand and sustaining severe cuts and bruises. John T. Brown, of the Tribune jumped from the rear platform and injured his arm. Michael G. Cusick, of Minooka, sustained an injured hip. Three other men who also jumped sustained cuts and bruises.

The women in the incoming car were thrown into a great state of excitement and several of them fainted. The head ends of both colliding cars were wrecked and the road was blocked for several hours.

WILL BE KNOWN AS CAMP DARTE.

Circuit Commander Beardley Has Issued Regarding Encampment. The commander of the Seven-County Veteran organization has issued the following concerning their annual encampment: "Comrades—For your information I publish the following: The arrangements of our quarterly centennial encampment and 'silver wedding' anniversary, August 19, 20 and 21. The camp will be known as 'Camp Darte' in honor of our department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic."

Afternoon and evening of 19th will be "Grand Army Day," and Commander Darte will be with us in the evening. August 20 will be "Old Soldiers' Day," with a "silver wedding" camp fire in the evening. The department commander will have headquarters in camp, and desires to meet and greet all members of the county, and especially representatives from all the posts in the county, for this will doubtless be his only visit in an official capacity. In the afternoon and evening, Commander Darte, E. J. Colborn, esp. ("Our Jack"), Colonel C. E. Campbell, Hon. D. W. Seale and others will talk to the "boys."

At 4:30 Company G, under command of Captain McCausland, will give an exhibition skirmish drill with blank cartridges. In the afternoon and evening, Commander Darte, E. J. Colborn, esp. ("Our Jack"), Colonel C. E. Campbell, Hon. D. W. Seale and others will talk to the "boys."

POLITICAL JOTTINGS.

William G. Howells, of Taylor, has already announced his candidacy for Burgess of that borough. The election will not be held until next February.

Chairman W. S. Miller, of the Second District Republican legislative committee, has issued a call for a convention which will be held in the Arbitration room of the court house on Tuesday, August 12, at which a candidate for legislature will be nominated. The primaries will be held at the regular polling places between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, August 15.

This evening the Central Republican club will meet at headquarters to attend the convention of the Republican State league at Erie in September.

Saturday afternoon the Republicans of the Third legislative district held primaries to elect delegates to a convention to be held Tuesday in the Arbitration room of the court house in this city to nominate a candidate for legislature. The convention will be called to order by John McCrindle, of Moosic, the chairman of the committee. The candidates for the nomination are Frank Grover, of Moosic, the present representative; R. H. Holgate, of LaPlume; Dr. W. C. Mackey, of Waverly; Burgess W. P. Griffiths, of Taylor, and J. W. Cure, of Greenfield.

The indications at present are that about sixty Scrantonians will go to New York Wednesday to attend the Bryan-Sewall ratification meeting in Madison Square Garden.

A CURB-STONE SERVICE.

The Heat Drove the Rescue Missionaries to the Sidewalk.

It was unbearably hot in the Rescue Mission last night, but this did not deter Superintendent Sanborn from holding the regular Sunday evening service. He moved his organ, organist, choir and choir benches out on the ten foot reservation and there held forth for over an hour, attracting an audience that filled the sidewalk and pavement to the middle of the street.

It was the largest crowd that has attended the service since the hot weather set in and the plan will likely be followed as long as the extremely hot weather continues.

TOWN TOPICS TONIGHT.

Entertaining Farce-Comedy at the Frothingham Theatre.

This evening a bright and entertaining farce comedy entitled "Town Topics" will be produced at the Frothingham Theatre. The farce is in three acts, the first of which takes place in Mrs. Quick's boarding house, where the semblance of a plot is incubated, but comical situations intervene leading up to the sensational comedy climax. On Broadway, New York, opposite the Hoffman house, the second act is worked out and in the third act the hatching of the plot is again tried, but the bright and high salaried specialties overwhelm the story to the delight of the audience. "Town Topics" was written to entertain.

SECTION HAND RUN DOWN.

Engine Plunges Into a Gang and Seriously Injures One of Them.

A Delaware, Lackawanna and Western engine with a train of empty cars coming towards Scranton, ran down an Italian section hand near the Nay Aug station yesterday, crushing his right leg and inflicting two gashes in his head. The injured man was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his leg just below the knee. He was resting easily last night and the chances are that he will recover. As near as could be learned his name is Giovanni Frisco and his home is in Sport Hill. He is 48 years old and a married man with a family. Three other section hands who were working with Frisco narrowly escaped his fate. The train came upon them suddenly, the engine evidently not seeing them in time to give them warning.

JOHN M'DONOUGH DEAD.

Son of Martin McDonough, the Prominent Merchant, of Minooka.

John McDonough, son of Martin McDonough, the prominent Minooka business man, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been sick, unable to leave his room, just three weeks, but an accident happened to him last fall to which his death may be attributed. He was holding baled hay from the ground floor of the stable to the second story. The rope of the pulley broke with a bale on it, and he was struck in the breast by the bale, which was near the upper floor when the rope broke. Since that time he was not able to do any work, although before he was a strong, muscular young man.

He was born in Minooka on December 20, 1863, and lived there nearly all his life. He was in the employ of his father. He had a pleasant, cheery disposition and made a friend of almost every one with whom he came in contact. He is survived by his father and mother and the following members of the family: James J. McDonough of Montana; Thomas F., of the South Side undertaker and livery man; Martin H., and Misses Maria, Anna, and Laura of Minooka. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from the residence on Main street, Minooka. High mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. Joseph's church and interment will be made in Minooka Catholic cemetery.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Open air services were conducted at Nay Aug Park yesterday afternoon by Rescue Mission workers.

Rev. John B. Wood, D. D., of Danville, Ky., preached at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church to-morrow.

Rev. Joseph L. Howell preached at the Washburn street Presbyterian church yesterday morning. There was no preaching in the evening. "Self-Denial—What is it?" and "The Church for the Times" were the subjects of Rev. D. M. Kintner's morning and afternoon discourses at the Providence Christian church yesterday.

The pulpit of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church was filled yesterday by two eloquent preachers, Rev. George Sanborn preaching in the morning and Rev. Jonas Underwood in the evening.

The First German Methodist Episcopal church, Vine street and Adams avenue, will have an annual excursion to Lake Ariel Wednesday, August 12. The train will leave the Erie and Wyoming Valley depot at 8:20 a. m.

S. P. R. Cocker spoke at yesterday afternoon's Y. M. C. A. service. A varied and interesting musical programme, consisting of piano and violin duets, vocal quartettes and the like was rendered under the direction of Prof. J. M. C. Chance.

Rev. F. A. Dony has started a new paper, "The Sabbath Defender," the purpose of which the title clearly defines. The first number is a very creditable one. The front page is adorned with the beautiful prize symbol of journalism recently printed in the Fourth Estate.

Yesterday afternoon and evening two most interesting topics were presented at the Tabernacle, on South Main avenue, between Eyon and Elm streets. The afternoon subject was "Our Nation's Crisis," and in the evening "Bible Temperance" was the theme. Services are being conducted there every evening but Saturday and will be continued until further notice.

Rev. George J. Lucas, D. D., who during the past four months has been assistant to Rev. M. B. Donlan at St. Mary's church, Dunmore, has been appointed by Bishop O'Hara, rector of the church at Honesdale, which position was made vacant by the death of Rev. J. A. Connolly. Dr. Lucas is one of the most scholarly priests in the diocese and Scranton is loth to lose him.

THE RAIN WAS A WELCOME RELIEF

Hailed with Joy by Perspiring, Fagged-Out Humanity.

MERCURY DROPPED NINE DEGREES

Rain Was Preceded by a Wind Storm and a Brilliant Electrical Display. Weather Today Will Not Be So Warm as During the Last Week and There Will Be Thunder Storms.

Suffering humanity heaved a sigh of relief when last evening's storm broke over the city and simultaneously with it the thermometer fell nine degrees. The day was oppressively warm, one of the warmest of the last week of scorching days. The mercury in the thermometer did not climb as high as on some of the preceding days, but there was more humidity in the atmosphere and in consequence there was more suffering and more perspiring than on days when the thermometer had several more degrees to its credit.

At noon it was 93 degrees at Phelps' drug store and the mercury remained stationary at that point until 2 p. m. Then the mercury began to fall and at 5 p. m. was down to 90. It did not get below that point until the storm broke soon after 8 o'clock and then it fell once to 81 degrees and then to 78. Gradually the wind died out, the flashes of lightning became less frequent and the downpour of rain more steady. At midnight the ground was thoroughly soaked and the atmosphere cooler than it had been for days.

There was a great desire on the part of thousands to get outside of the city yesterday. The streets in the central part of the city were unusually deserted, even for Sunday, but Nay Aug andConnell parks, the Round Woods, Tripps' Woods and every cool spot in or adjacent to the city had a multitude of visitors. The trolley cars were all crowded, the number of passengers carried during the day running up into the thousands.

There was a big demand for cooling drinks and the effect of the thriving side-door business done by a number of hotels was apparent in different sections of the city last night.

The predictions for to-day are to the effect that the weather will not be quite so warm and that we will have thunder showers this morning. The storm did little damage in this city, but was very severe down the valley. Lightning struck in various places in Luzerne county and the wind leveled trees and fences, blew down signs and broke in windows in Pittston and Wilkes-Barre. A bolt struck the iron work of the North street bridge in Wilkes-Barre, traveled along the Traction company's wires and set fire to the toll house and a crowd of onlookers were gathered during the day running up into the thousands.

WILLIAM CAMPBELL KILLED.

His Neck Broken Saturday in the Von Storch Mine.

William Campbell, of Blume avenue, was killed at the Von Storch shaft Saturday afternoon. Mr. Campbell had finished his day's work and was on his way out of the mine. A trip of cars with a mine attached to the road made a short distance from where he had been working.

Campbell was on the narrow side of the road and desiring to get on the other side, he started to climb over the cars, when he was suddenly started, he was standing erect and before he could save himself his head was brought in contact with a piece of timber sup-
