DR. N. C. MACKEY IS THE NOMINEE

Named by the Third District Republicans in Convention Vesterday.

GROVER WAS HIS OPPONENT

Other Aspirants for the Nomination Dropped Out of the Race--Names of the Delegates Who Made Up the Convention -- Resolutious Adopted by Last Week's County Convention Were Endorsed.

One of the most interesting convenions ever held by the Republicans of the Third Legislative district convened yesterday afternoon in the arbitration room of the court house. Dr. N. C. Mackey, of Waverly was nominated for the legislature, defeating Frank J. Grover, of Moosic, who represented the district in the state legislature at the vention was demonstrated by the large crowd that thronged the arbitration room. Although the atmosphere in the little court room was at white heat the spectators remained until the nomination had been made. Then the warm, perspiration-soaked crowd gave vent to round of cheers for the nominee and sought the cooler air of the corridor. Yesterday's convention terminated a fight for the nomination which has been in progress for months. At the outset he declared candidates were Dr. N. C. Mackey, Frank J. Grover, William P. Griffiths, burgess of Taylor; J. W. Cure, of Greenfield and Attorney R. H. Holgate, of La Plume. Gradually the numbers of the competitors was lessened and yesterday only the names of Mackey and Grover were presented. The chair asked for nominations for the legislature and Charles Monie, of Lackawanna, placed the name of Frank J. Grover, of Moosic, before the convention. He paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Grover's gallant services during the war and to his business ability and his services in the last legislature. "There may have been better orators than he in the legislature," said Mr.

He is entitled to every consideration from us and I bespeak for him a large vote, a majority of the votes in this convention, for Frank J. Grover is entitled to the

DR. MACKEY NAMED.

B. F. Tinkham, of Waverly, next claimed the attention of the convention. He said the next legislature will elect a member of the United States senate, the highest law-making body in the country, and it was proper that at this time the district should send a big broad-minded and patriotic man who aspires to be a legislator, not because of the pecuniary reward it will bring him, but because he has a patriotic desire to represent the people of the district. Such a man he presented to the convention in the person of Dr. N. Mackey, of Waverly. He said that the part of the county Dr. Mackey comes from is entitled to the nomination this speaker. He began by paying glowing tributes to William McKinley and the The great Interest shown in the concandidates on the county ticket. "You have met here today," he continued "to round out the party ticket. Will you name a man who is entitled to and can receive the united vote of the party or will you name a man for whom you must apologize, a man against whom large section of this district is solidly arrayed? I stand here to second the nomination of that gallant soldier, Frank J. Grover." Mr. Holgate concluded by some extremely caustic re-marks regarding Dr. Mackey. The delegates were polled and the result was as follows:

CHEERS FOR THE NOMINEE. Chairman Parker declared Dr. Mac key the nominee of the convention and deliberations of the convention were thereupon there was a scene of much watched by nearly all of the prominent excitement. Delegates threw their hats Republicans of the district and not a in the air and yelled "Mackey" and "Hurrah for Mackey" at the top of their

of the district standing committee. The sentiments expressed in the councalled the convention to order at 2.30 ty convention resolutions a week ago were endorsed as the expression of the convention.

THE POLISH CHURCH TROUBLE.

Committee Asserts That a Majority Are Against Father Aust.

A committee representing those who are opposed to Father Aust's administration of affairs at the Polish Catholi church on the South Side called at The Tribune office yesterday and made the following statement concerning Mon day night's meeting:

"The meeting was called to order by Father Aust and he appointed Father Gramlevitch as a speaker. Father Gramlevitch was not allowed to speak as he had no business there and beside knew nothing of the affairs of the church. All the priests then left and afterwards the congregation appointed the following committee to manage the financial affairs of the church: President, Joseph Nyts; vice-president, Matdent, Joseph Nyts; vice-president, Matthews Sufka; treasurer, Martin Rabega secretary, Leon Kafchlenski; assistant secretary, Stanley Rumovitch; con-troller, Rev. Richard Aust.

"Six trustees and four collectors were also appointed. This committee shall exist for one year and shall manage faithfully all the affairs of the church. We also wish to say that we had be tween six and seven hundred legal members of the church at the meeting which appointed this committee. Father Aust had only about one hundred mer and they made the disturbance at the meeting.

DICKSON CITY CONTEST.

Strong Probability That Pressman's Vote Will Be Thrown Out.

There was another hearing in the Dickson city election contest before Commissioners James E. Watkins and Henry Mulholland in the office of Brien & Kelly yesterday.

Henry Simms, John Pressman, Frank Simms, Benjamin Hall, Joseph Karolan John Amacher, William Eley, John Welland, Cooney Ries and John A. Bar ron were examined. Some of them did not have their tax receipts or natural ization papers with them and will have to attend the next meeting, which will e held on Tuesday, Aug. 18. John Pressman testified that he came to this country when twenty years of age and was naturalized in Ulster county, N. Y. He did not take out his first papers and will therefore in all probability have his vote thrown out.

HALEY WAS CRUEL TO HIS WIFE. She Left Him and Is Now Seeking Divorce.

Mrs. Jennie Haley, of Carbondale, be gan proceedings yesterday to secure a divorce from Ralph Haley. The libel in the case was filed by Attorney J. F. Rey nolds.

The couple were married on July 13, 1892, and lived together until April 16 of this year, when Mrs. Haley alleges that she was compelled to leave her husband on account of his cruel treatment.

CHASE FOR FORTUNE LED HIM TO DEATH

One of the Alleged Handley Heirs Succumbs to a Sunstroke.

WOULD RETURN HOME SATURDAY

Came to This City Three Weeks Ago from Ireland to Prove His Right to a Portion of the Handley Milfions. He Claimed to Be a First Cousin of the Dead Judge.

Andrew Handley, who came to this city from Ireland three weeks ago to contest the will of the late Judge Handley, died early yesterday morning at the home of his cousin, Patrick H. Joyce of 912 Capouse avenue. Sunstroke was the cause of Mr. Handley's death. He first began to suffer from the effects of it Sunday, but thought it would wear away soon and refused to allow a physician to be called. Early yesterday morning he was heard groaning as if in pain and soon after lapsed into unconsciousness. Dr. Saltry was called but it was then too late to do any thing for the sufferer.

Mr. Handley was a man of splendid physique and in many respects resembled the late Judge Handley, whose first cousin he claimed to be. Sunday, July 19, he arrived in the city in company with his neice, Miss Rosa Gunn Deceased was born in Roscommon Ireland, and was 48 years old. He was a member of the Royal Irish constabulary, and was stationed in County Sligo. He is survived by his wife and five children.. He intended to leave home Saturday. Since arriving in the city he had been in almost constant consultation with attorneys and had great hopes of ultimately getting a slice of the Handley millions

SHE STILL LOVED HIM

Mrs. Haveron Would Not See He Brutal Husband Go to Jail. Annie Haveron, of Priceburg, the w man who was so shamefully abused by her husband and his cousin John Towniski, forgave both of them yesterday after they had been committed to jail and also paid the costs of the case out of her own savings. Alderman Millar was loth to discharge the prisoner but had no alternative and had to let them go. He however, made Haveron take an oath that he would never abuse his wife again and put both of them under bonds to keep the peace. At the hearing the two brutes freely admitted that they were guilty and that they had no regrets for what they had done.
