CITY SOLICITORS IN CONVENTION HERE

Drafting Amendments to the Law Governing Third Class Cities.

HARMONIZING THE ACT OF 1889

Many Additions and Changes and Also Special Acts Proposed .- One ot These Latter Is for a Receiver of Taxes and Another Places City Appointments Under Civil Service Regulations.

The convention of city solicitors reassembled in this city yesterday and began their task of preparing a report for McHugh arrived from Philadelphia the municipal convention to be held in over the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road at 9.65 o'clock last night. Williamsport, August 25. The sessions are being held in the select council chamber and will continue today at Thomas F. Carmody, of the cathedral least and possibly all day tomorrow. and a number of Phialdelphia relatives The following solicitors were in attendand friends, including Miss McHugh, ance yesterday: A. A. Cochran, Chester; C. F. Bohan, Pittston; W. W. Brown, Bradford; R. D. Stuart, Carrepresentation of St. Peter's congregabondale; W. D. Crocker, Williamsport; W. K. Stevens, Reading; R. J. Lewis, remains and accompanied them to the York; A. B. Osborne, Corry; Henry A. cathedral where the casket, without Clark, Erie; R. M. Speer, Oil City; James A. Gardner, Newcastle; E. P. catafalque, erected in the middle of the Geary, Lock Haven, and James H. Tor aisle near the altar, which like the church was draped in deep mourning. rev. Scranton.

Mr. Torrey, chairman of the committee, called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and without any formalities the solicitors got down to work. The reports of the sub-committees, to which different sections of the act were referred for amendment, were read in turn and passed upon.

The entire Act of 1899, under which will be sung after which interment will third-class cities are governed, is being revised. There are but few radical changes, the principal part of the work being verbal changes, which make the act more intelligible and destroy ambiguous or seemingly contradictory clauses. As an instance of this the Mc-Askie case gives an example. The city of Scranton wanted to annex the Sixth ward of Dunmore and the spirit of the eremonies; Rev. J. J. B. Feeley, of the law doubtlessly permits this, but because the statutes failed to say that a part of a borough can be annexed the movement was defeated. By the insertion of the words "or part thereof," the

SEWER ASSESSMENTS.

The committee has hopes that the supreme court will modify its recent opinion in the matter of sower assessments, according to which a sewer system cannot be built piecemeal, but the whole district must be constructed or none at all. This ruling it will be remembered knocked out the proposed sewering of the Nineteenth ward and part of the Twentieth in the Seven-teenth sewer district. A case bringing in this point goes up before the supreme court from Pittsburg in October and it is thought that it will be possible to convince the supreme court that its decision should be modified. If the expected modification should occur the third class cities will be prepared to take advantage of it, the necessary legislation having already been drufted by the solicitors' commit-

Kressler court, to whom Dingle sold it There is a whole raft of minor amendments which have been proposed Dingle was taken before Alderman and made part of the revised act and Millar and in default of bail was committed to the county jail. He says he some of which are quite important. Among these latter is a provision exonerating in part the owner of a corner lot from paying for sewers on two streets. Another, which is specially for the benefit of this city, allows a in an al derman from any ward to hold police court in the station house. Another gives councils In response to the invitation sent by the power to appoint vewers of city the People's party county committee to work instead of the courts, as is the Candidate Bryan to address a Populist case at present. ratification meeting in this city ex-

OTHER AMENDMENTS.

Other amendments provide that all sales of personal property of the city shall be to the highest bidder; that the city can re-establish grades of streets; that a three-fourths, instead of a twothirds, vote of councils is required to en force improvements not petitioned for by property holders; that no two persons from the same ward shall serve on any board elected by councils; that en tertainments for religious or charitable purposes, foreign as well as local, be exempt from license fees; that a city can expend its money in building dikes, widening or deepening the channel of a river, extending a sewer and the like in territory outside of the city, providing it inures to the benefit of the city; that a city controller is constituted an auditor with power to audit the accounts of any city official and if a balance in favor of the city is found to charge the same up against the official and if necessary enter judgment against him in the prothonotary's office.

Two special acts are under consideration, one of them Mr. Torrey's act creating the office of receiver of taxes which has been approved, and another fathered by Mr. Stevens, of Reading, which places all third-class cities under civil service regulations. The latter act will come up for discussion today. The purpose of this act is to take the police orce, fire deparrtment, city clerks and like employes out of politics. It pro-

The convention adjourned at 5.50 o'clock yesterday to reconvene at 9 o'clock this morning. A number of other solicitors are expected to be on hand today.

H. Passenger Train.

While sitting on the track, John Ratchford was strek by a Delaware and ludson passenger train last night shortly before 11.30 o'clock between the Diamond and Carbon street crossing.

Ergineer Bailey saw the man on the track and rang the bell and sounded the whistle, but Ratchford did not move and the engine struck him and hurled the body to the side of the track. The train was stopped and Ratchford placed in the baggage car and brought to the Delaware and Hudson station. Dr. Keller made a hasty examination and found a terrible gash on the right

In some unexplainable manner the boat was jarred suddenly and McDonough fell overboard. He struggled in the water for several minutes while his companion, becomng excited, pulled both oars from their ocks and he was struggling trying to get them back again when McDonough went down only ten feet away. Both men were yelling for help and the lake was soon in motion with the approach of the rescuers. But they came too late An ineffective search for the body was nade until dark yesterday and a renewal will be made today. McDonough's mother and two sisters were at he lake at the time. It is the first drowning that has ever taken place at Lake Ariel.

DIED FROM THE HEAT.

Michael Meaher, a Baker, Found Dend in Bed.

Michael Meaher, an employe scheuer's bakery, was found dead in bed at 11 o'clock last night at his boarding house on Pittston avenue.

He went home about 5.30 o'clock com-plaining of feeling ill, which he attributed to the excessive heat about the bake oven where he worked. He went to bed early and about 11 o'clock, when his boarding boss, Patrick Gibbons, went to his room to see how he was feeling, he found him dead. Coroner Longstreet was notified and gave directions that the body should be cared for by an undertaker. He will make an investigation this morning. Deceased was 51 years of age and came here recently from New York city.
