FAMILY REUNION.

The Descendants of John Brown, sr. Hold a Pienie Near Porest City. Special to The Tribune.

Forest City, Pa., Aug. 12,-Yesterday afternoon the descendants of John Brown, sr., together with the latter, assembled to enjoy the day and renew family ties in the pleasanpt grove east of the Ontario & Western depot. At noon an excellently prepared dinner was served, of which thirty-eight persons partook. Four generations were represented. The eight children elder Brown were present, namely: Mrs. Robert Unvis of Hicketville, Long Island, mother of W. J. Davis, our former clothier; Mrs. W. J. Gilchrist of Conco: Mrs. Menhenett and Mrs. E. J. Monroe of Forest City, and his sons, William of Deposit, John C., Thomas and Hugh W. of this place Besides these there are fifty grandchildren and niceteen great-grandchildren. Among those of the third generation noted as present were Editor John M. Brown and wife, James Brown, Thomas Brown, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Maxey, Mame Brown, Edith Brown, Frank Brown, Alvin Monroe and others. May Maxey of Bozeman, Montana, and George Maxey, jr., of Forest City were present as the guests | the east and south, of Mrs. W. J. Maxey.

The head of this now numerous family, John Brown, sr., was born in Re the year 1800. The greater portion of his life was passed as a farmer and eattle dealer near historic Londondery in the north of Ireland. In 1871 he migrated to America and settled pear Come, Wayne county, Pa. His blood is that of the Scotch-Irish and he is a worthy representative of that in-domitable race, which has produced more great characters in proportion to its numbers than any other known to modern history. In politics Mr. Brown, like a majority of his countrymen, has been a believer in the fundamental principles of the Republican party and to-day as ever, he is a supporter of its can

TO BUILD SPIRITUALIST COLLEGE.

Big Donations Are Freely Offered a the Indiana Conclave.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 12.-The sixtl annual camp meeting of Indiana spiritualists, which has been in session for the last month, ended today. Today at the big conference the proposition was made for the Indiana association and surrounding states to erect a spiritualistic college at Camp Chesterfield, a model place, and a dozen wealthy spiritualists sprang to their feet and pledged $1,000 donations.

The matter will be presented to the Michigan and Iowa spiritualists text Be week. It is understood that the national association would also place a big endowment.
