Daniel B. Hughes and Miss Miriam Phillips Married at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

Daniel B. Hughes, of 531 North Sumner avenue, and Miss Mirlam Phillips were married at 9 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Price street. Rev. H. H. Harris, of low, Admission is 25 cents. Calvary Baptist church, Taylor, performed the ceremony.

As the bridal party entered the parlor Miss Maggie Hughes played the march. There were two bridesmaids and as many best men. The maids were Misses Ida Pemor idge and Mary Bowen. The former was attired in a gown of white mulle with satin ribbon trimmings. Miss Bowen's costume was of the Swiss with chiffon trimmings.

The bride's gown was of pearl cashmere, trimed with chiffon. She carried oses. The groomsmen were John Hughes, brother of the groom, and Thomas Phillips. After the ceremony a social time was enjoyed by the hund-red guests present. The Columbian quartette, of which Mr. Hughes is a member, enlivened the evening with their songs.

The young people received many presents of various forms and values. They will immediately begin house-keeping at 1618 Price street. Mr. Hughes has many friends. He is a drummer in the Thirteenth regiment corp and among the soldier boys, he is very popular. The bride is blessed with a large following of well-wishing acquaintances.

DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN.

Thomas Davis, aged 23 years, died at 5 o'clock last evening at his home on North Lincoln avenue. He leaves a wife and one child. Two weeks ago he was stricken by an attack of typhoid fever, from the effect of which he died. The deceased was of a quiet disposition but the friends he had clung to him and deeply mourn his loss. He was employed at the Diamond colliery and was a member of Keystone lodge, No. 37, Loyal Knights of America. The lodge will meet in their rooms at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral at 2,30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

The remains of the late Mrs. William Davis were buried at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from her late residence on Filmore avenue in Washburn street cemetery.

MILLION patriotic voters have recognized the confusion of our public politics, and are determined toin form themselves, and stand like patriots in the hour of their peril and vote to the best of their knowledge, for the best interests of the common people of the whole country. It means further that every voter wants to know, not only the doctrines of his own party, but the views of all other parties and the reason for the differences-Gold, Silver, Tariff and Free Trade. To this end we have · , secured a complete handbook of public political information, edited by Lawrence F. Prescott, WHICH WE WILL PRESENT TO THE PURCHASER OF ANY MEN'S SUIT.

New York, Aug. 12.-Stocks today were lower. Local traders who turned bullish yesterday finding little demand for stocks even from the shorts also sold and in th absence of support the decline noted was quickly accomplished. The heaviness of Manhattan was a special feature of the day's operations. Reports of troubles in commercial circles and the assignment of an old member of the Stock exchange helped the pears in their work of depress ing prices. In the closing transactions the market was weak in tone, the resul of the break in Manhattan. Net change show losses of 1/2 to 4% pere cent., the lat-ter in Manhattan.
