BOYCOTT DECLARED AGAINST BREWERS

Will Go into Effect One Week from Today.

RETAIL DEALERS ARE IN EARNEST

Determined That the Breweries Shall Help Them in Their Fight Against the Speak Easies--E. Robinson's Sons the Only Local Brewery to Escape the Boycott--What the Brewers Say.

The predicted boycott against the brewers has been declared. Every brewing company doing business in the city with the exception of five has been proscribed and the E. Robinson's sons company is the only one of the big local breweries to escape the ban.

The edict was issued yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Retail Liquor Dealers association, of Lackawanna county. The meeting was held in Betzhold's hotel, Penn avenue, and was attended by representatives of nearly every town of any importance in the county.

At a meeting of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association of Lackawanna county held at Betzhold's hotel, August 14, it was unanimously adopted that on and after Friday, August 21, we buy our ale and lager from the following brewers only: E. Robinson's Sons, H. K. Hughes, Pittston; Danville Brewing company, F. Rieck, representing the Hallettville Brewing company of Newark; C. E. Guckemberger Honesdale.

BEGINS NEXT FRIDAY.

The boycott does not begin until next Friday although some of the delegates to the meeting wanted to have it take effect immediately, arguing that the brewers had already been given a week's warning and they should not be parleyed with any longer. Out of consideration for two or three of the out-of-town brewing companies, which asked for an extension of time in which to make their decision, the convention resolved to declare the boycott and date it a week ahead.

The boycott is the result of the retail dealers effort to cut off the supply to the unlicensed places. They sent circulars to the different brewers in the county informing them that they must close between supplying speak easies and licensed places, and gave them until Friday, August 7, to come to a decision. Only a few of the brewers paid any heed to the circular so at the meeting one week ago yesterday it was decided to boycott every brewery that would send in a notice of compliance by yesterday.

WOULD MOVE TIME.

Two or three smaller concerns, one of them the Dickson City Brewing company, sent on a request for more time and this alone prevented the boycott from being set for today. It was evidently the intention of the local brewers, who have not yet complied, to make a fight against the retailers attempt at dictation. They make the claim that the association has no right to use them as tools in their fight against the speak easies and further declare that they cannot afford to lose the trade of the speak easies.
